

BOMBINGHAM ALABAMA

(JAMES 1:2-4)

INTRO ...

Once upon a time, not long ago, the legend of niggas begins ...

It's ironic how niggas in Alabama are not the iconic figure to have the courage to stand and boldly face these demonic white folks to fight for our rights. You would think that they had a bionic hearts to take such a stand against racism. It was the right tonic to energize the whole movement. Yet they teach that we had a platonic union with white people; so, they gave rights to us. Not true ... For the sonic command of white officers to sicced their dogs on us, thrown in the slammer, bomb their homes, and turned their fire holes on us. Niggas in Alabama was like M.C. Hammer, "Let's Get It Started". They even petition the courts to address our condition, which never made the decision to grant our rights. So, this narrative that JFK gave permission to us to have rights is a lie. These protests prove that we took our rights.

HOOK

I am trying to not lose my patience.
So, help me, GOD. This has been going on too long.
Treating me like a nigga is really trying
my patience, but I am not running out of patience.
We can do this forever, because I don't chase
my dream but live it. So, what you do is useless.

Why worry; you know that you are bigger than that? We always figure a way out of this racist rigor. So, act like the bigger nigger who you are. Focus on our legacy, which is a demonstration of our people to put their concentration into being patient to fight to end racist laws that were used to control us in this nation. Each risk was a calculated move, and each move was a calculated risk. Despite being extremely hated, GOD has always created a way out of what appears as no way out (1 Cor. 10:13), but there was always a way.

CHRIST JESUS is the way, the truth, and the life to freedom (John 14:6). So, pray, and endure the test of your faith, because the race is won by those who may possess staying- power, not those who use all their strength, or move too fast, which exhausts your energy. Move at your pace ... is the only way to last (Eccles. 9:11)!

HOOK

I am trying to not lose my patience.
So, help me, GOD. This has been going on too long.
Treating me like a nigga is really trying
my patience, but I am not running out of patience.
We can do this forever, because I don't chase
my dream but live it. So, what you do is useless.

These racist people in authority use the government as a tool to subtly use oppression to rule the economy, public school, social events et cetera in a way to not stop violence, but fool us to act cruel towards each other. Notice how the government fuel the flame of violence instead of stopping it. They prearrange a duel by legalizing these violent sports, a competitive market, plus allowing price gouging with housing, gas, and in the supermarket. So, they are knowingly and willfully causing us to experience pain, because they enjoy watching people to hurt each other. This explains (as I study the timeline of this nation's history), why I can't find one moment, when this nation was not oppressing us. Yet some will say, "make America great, again". Why does the record not show such a day?

HOOK

I am trying to not lose my patience.
So, help me, GOD. This has been going on too long.

Treating me like a nigga is really trying
my patience, but I am not running out of patience.
We can do this forever, because I don't chase
my dream but live it. So, what you do is useless.

Outro ...

Open your Bible to the book of James. Now turn to Chapter one, verse 2 through 4. I will discuss the virtue, power and effectiveness of being patient by using the excruciating experience of my people in America. My people were deprived of an identity, rights, freedom, and the hope of these racist people to let us free; yet we persevere through the most impossible and miserable situation imaginable. We never gave up despite the difficulty, obstacles, or discouragement from White people. Allow me to play a prerecorded tape of my people to force JFK to give our rights to us, which contradicts this narrative in history books and classes of him as this good guy for fighting for us to have rights (If you want to see the video or just hear the audio of JFK to admit that niggas in Alabama compel him and this nation to grant our rights, then click the tabs at the top of this page).

The fact that John F. Kennedy did not intervene to allow us to have our rights, and prevent his people from oppressing us, killing us et cetera until after niggas to revolt in Alabama, this is self-evident of him to not make an agreement with us to stop oppressing us out of sympathy, but defeat. You must admire the irony of this situation. They thought by having us outnumber, outgun, and establishing racist laws to oppose and resist us from having equal rights would turn us into hopeless people; yet this advantage over us was hopeless and useless to stop us from overthrowing this racist nation to rule us. Therefore, I would like to honor my people in Alabama here. Even though all my people (all over America) revolt against the racist culture, laws, and authority of America; nevertheless, it was the stand of my people in Alabama to become the defining moment of our rise in America to force these racist white people to give equal rights to us.

Joe Biden reminds me of John F. Kennedy, and Abraham Lincoln. All admitted that this is wrong for their people to act racist towards us to prevent us from having freedom and rights. However, John F. Kennedy and Abraham Lincoln were tardy, while Joe Biden is absence. Can you imagine how many Black lives could have been saved if they were to respond immediately instead of late? Yet the President never does his job to serve and protect us willingly, but after an uprising. Notice how the madness stopped when the President gave the order to stop it. Therefore, the President has the power to stop their people's racist treatment towards us. So, why Joe Biden has not made any executive order to stop racism like he promised during a debate with Donald Trump?

What is so disturbing about using Abraham Lincoln and JFK as their iconic figures to give permission to us to have freedom and our rights is, what makes them think that we have to ask them for permission, and what makes that a good thing. This just proves that they were a sinister President, because you only beg criminals (out of desperation) to not violate you or your rights.

Therefore, our patience was truly tested and tried. We quietly and calmly persevered by taking the abuse, hardship, pain, misfortune, annoyance without complaining, or losing our temper until we figured the right way out of this horrible experience. Our excruciating struggle turned into a greater cause for humanity. For the entire world started to come here after the Civil Rights Movement in hope of a better future. Amen!