Harvard drop-out will be Dr Gates

Tokyo: Bill Gates, known as the world's wealthiest man, will soon be "doctor" Bill Gates. The Harvard drop-out, who later became one of the founders of Microsoft Corp, will be awarded an honorary doctorate degree in humanities at Japan's Rikkyo University in Tokyo, officials said. "Bill Gates has not only contributed to today's computer science technology but also has given much to improve education through his private funds," an official said. (UNI)

Half of life is spent trying to find something to do with the time we have rushed through life trying to save xx

Do you consider yourself Indian at the core? You seem very western to me.

I've lived all my life in India and my mother was born and raised in India although her parents were European, and my father's entire family is a very close-knit family, so, I grew up learning Indian classical dance and classical music. I know for sure if I ever settle down in life and have children I'd like to bring them up in India and share the culture I was given. It's an important part of my life.

My surname

my forefathers belong

My father used to say that

originally SOORATH which was the name of an ancestral village.

Later my great-grand father who was a specialist in curing for snake bites treated a quite a good number of patients even by the stroke of a phone call or vice call & his family used to be called as PAMULA VARU. He then local ruler, heading the state allotted a certain piece of land as Maayana for the adequate long term maintenance of family which came to be known as PAMULA MARI PALLE
which still exists in NEELORE of Andhra Pradesh

Our estate is presently 3.5 acres.

At Pannulavani Palam,

we have an ancestral temple of TRINITY housing the three images of Adi Parasakthi depicting:

MAHA KALI,

MAHA LAKSHMI, &

MAHA SARASWATI

built in 1901, by my grand father Pannala Arambanarayanaiah handed down to my father Pannala Adinarayanaiah then handed down to me by my father in 1960, as the hereditary Trustee;

to which I have added the idols of LORD GANESHA & LORD MURUGA in 1995 (October 4th).

The annual festival of the temple is usually celebrated during Navaratri (Sept) wherein we participate on the last day.

21) What is the origin of this family temple?

21) What is the origin of your family temple?

from the family funds. Around the same time, my grandfather's brother Mr. Villanarajah's family also suffered a different ailment - his wife succumbed after a few days. The two brothers had a row & stiff fight over the construction of the temple from joint family funds, which culminated in the partition of the family.

Though Mr. Anantharaman went ahead with the construction of the temple out of his own funds & since the temple is growing in fame & reputation among the neighboring villages (there are several) by the temple (organization)

Legend goes that my grandfather learned Anantharaman's name this way. Anantharaman used to construct a temple for the Divine Lady, when their family was afflicted by chickenpox to secure quick relief & good health. After a safe passage through this illness my grandfather started the construction of temple in right earnest.

Q2) What about your marriage - Is it a love marriage or an arranged one?

a plain Hindu Brahmin family in
I was born in an era when love & making lies beyond the comprehension of any youth
It cannot be otherwise than a traditionally arranged marriage of the too from out of near kith & kin

I was, like an unmarried sister in the family, my marriage was

Q3) PRO QUO ~~arranged~~ with her hand and any indo distinctions or ultra modern tendencies would have adverse reactions in fixing her marriage & in the process I was also fixed up

Q4) What are the attributes of your wife in a nutshell?

I wanted a wife who could run into me when she had to walk; but I have a wife who ~~flies~~ ^{flies} with me when she has to crawl;

That is her resume in a nutshell.

She is a simpleton, unassuming, soft spoken, well-mannered, not self-centred, helpful to the needy, better known in the household or from outside, god fearing, religious minded & thrifty, does donkey's job to keep her children above board, beautiful & has fresh health & delicate constitution.

How many brothers
are you now?

24) How many brothers
are you now?

As history repeats itself

We are ^{do} two brothers now fighting for the same temple.

Stepping into the shoes of my father & grand father
I am very much devoted & attached to the temple to look after its maintenance & repairs,
my brother, indebted by the temperance of late his own wish, is very much against my opinion on the temple by joint family Company, I have taken over the maintenance of the temple gladly from my own funds.
provided a Hike system & fixed marble placards

sanctum sanctorum & prices asked for flooring for the compound to prevent water logging.

At the instance of my father, I had engaged for the electrification of the temple premises & created a fund ^{for Rs 20000} for the interest on which takes care of the cc bills & other commitments.

What is he now?

25) what is he now?

He is also a retired after not being retired for a research on the Pacific sector
like CSIR and settled on a - Hadral

How about his education?

(26) How about his education?

As the ^{male chief} eldest member of the family, at the insistence of my father, I had to take after his education, after +2, get him a decent job (after fixing him in six jobs one after another & putting him out later) finally in CSIR, then a classmate of mine heading the organization, from which he finally retired in 1999. Truly noting in his professional education, but also

I was also largely influential in his marriage.
With the daughter of a colleague of mine from A.P. office and secured a bright future for him (to satisfy my aged father) though he now claims all due to be part of his own personal achievements.

While I don't claim any benefit or undue advantage out of his achievements, I will be happy if he does not call me names or claim anything wherein from me.

Librants are supposed to have a gift tongue & courage with better great test. Asset. JANUARY
Despite conflicts & some confrontation they are pursuing their goals & score a winning goal. Most librants are social in their outlook & the co. They keep on moving

32) What is the specific characteristic feature of Librant of which you are aware or heard of

be wonderful congenial always productive & successful in his work. Librant give their utmost schipfulness in life. He is strong motivated & goal oriented to achieve result. Love & affection in life. Love the near & dear.

Librant enjoy a very glorious & full life. They are family & loved ones. Great support from family & friends. Librants are noted for their outspokenness & for friends. For those they are likely to be mistaken in homefront. They are essential in nature (often mistaken aggressive & positive in their outlook & goals).

33) Some people call you aggressive? What have you to say? But there is a lot of difference between being essential & aggressive (as seen in the clipping)

I depend that. Many people who deal with me call aggressive, but I pity them. Knowledge of English. They don't know the difference between being essential & aggressive (as seen in the clipping)

34) Was your temperment like this from your childhood or youth?

Not at all Sir. As a child I was nervous & essential. I have become strong & essential after facing hardship of life & ending the hard facts of it. family

35) Do you believe in Astrology?

33) Do you believe in Astrology?

in reference to Khushwant Singh's Astrology on television. Recently, I fully agree with the views expressed in the conquering space. It is proved beyond doubt planets are just inanimate objects and in no way influence the destinies of human beings.

In spite of all this, it is a sad that astrologers are still thriving by exploiting the people. To be more precise, the latter are allowing themselves to be exploited. There is another area where astrology is causing havoc — fixing of marriage alliances.

Elders in the family decide an alliance just because the horoscopes of the prospective bride and groom do not match. As a result of this stupid practice many persons are being deprived of the companionship of compatible life partners.

Instead of being exploited let's boldly accept the fact that the future is unpredictable. As Singh has rightly remarked, let's make a bonfire out of the horoscopes.

Yes I am, to a reasonable level of accuracy.

Still U cannot ignore the horoscopes ruling Your life. Even if U do recognize other factors, not available to U, make U cannot rule out

Lord SURYA (Sun god) & Lord Chandra (Moon god)

Who form p/o S S R S, Who provide light/shade day/night

All men are not equal

Some are intelligent & some are stupid

Some good & some bad & neutral

All this is due to his place & time of birth & parentage

While our future may not be predictable, U can have some impact on future ^{later} can be predicted to a reasonable degree/level

JANUARY

I am a religious person
I believe in the existence of God.
By all means

Let my own heart

I am a god fearing person
omnipotent/omniscient

Urmu is said in the Vedas & Puranas, that is happening in our eyes & what we experience in our daily life has enough evidence to prove my belief

My parents have brought up as a god fearing people

39) Does he exist?

If he does where is he?

He does exist
unseen & unobscure
because by naked eye but can be felt by those who believe

Very few people in the world have claimed to have seen him mysteriously. Even here Ramakrishna Paramahansa or Tukaram or Swami of Shirdi and the like. But he has not at all revealed himself to the modern world in a way such that it can verify his existence scientifically

40) Is there any point in putting yourself with few individuals of antiquity who claim to have witnessed him?

My not. In fact they are not obscure individuals, but persons who gave vision to the modern world through the ethics & teachings

41) Is there any empirical or pragmatic formulations for your beliefs?

42) but the scientists say that the so called laws of Nature itself is primarily an adhoc assumption? Where do these reside? What are they made of? Can we see them?

43) but this is all not the same as showing the so called laws?

Yes, the existence of the so called laws of nature, cannot be understood by us as the laws to be supernatural power for the existence

Some scientific discoveries have found mathematical solutions to certain laws governing the universe which help them in making accurate predictions like the laws of Newton, Heisenberg, Schrödinger, etc. Paul Davies states that science also assumes that the universe is omniscient, omnipotent, and eternal and all attributes ascribed to God.

The bottom line is that the existence of the laws as the governing force of this universe, is equally as much an article of faith & metaphysical mystery as existence of God. There are philosophical as I cannot understand

41) Is there any empirical and pragmatic foundation for your belief?

Yes, the existence of the so called laws of nature, cannot be overruled by us as they seem to be a supernatural power for the existence

42) But some scientists say that the so called laws of nature itself is a primarily our adhoc arrangement? Where do these laws resided and what are they made of?

Some scientific discoveries have found mathematical solutions to certain laws governing the universe. Which helps them in making accurate predictions like the laws of Newton, Reaction of Newton, Templeton & Bigg's writing, Paul Davies states that science also assumes that science can be omniscient - complete & defined. And all other rules ascribed to God.

43) But this is not the same as showing these called laws

The bottom line is that the existence of the laws as the governing force of this universe, is equally as much an article of faith & metaphysical mystery as existence of God. There are philosophical as I cannot answer

41) So the puzzle remains who created the universe?

Is it God or natural law?

If it is God who created God?

42) Then are we left with chicken/egg like enigma?

CHICKEN/EGG like enigma?

Quite contrary to the assumption Science the spiritual mind perceives that there is much more to the universe than what meets the human eye & the acting of God's will is manifested through the natural law.

Unlike the scientific mind, the spiritual mind needs no instrument other than itself to understand & acknowledge the Lord's existence.

The religious person sees with his inner vision & uses his third eye as intuitive capacity, almost entirely absent in the empirical scientist. The eye of telescope or microscope can never be enough to reveal God to the materialistic observer. Nevertheless, there is a marvellous central pt of convergence for all world religions & Secular the common belief in the existence of some sort of SUPREME OMNIPOTENT & MYSTIC, ALL-DOER.

46) Ok According to you God is infinite all pervading and fearless.
Then God only Should be one. Then, how do you justify so many forms of infinite God?

It is a fact that God is infinite and fearless.

But people like you cannot conceive of a formless

God & require a concrete form

Hence our scriptures provided symbols

to the Deities to represent God.
Like a concrete shape & dimensions.

But as you are aware of human nature

no two people are alike as to the way we understand the same human being

Each person has a conscience to dictate

a Brain to think & a Mind to act.

The magnitude & direction of inner is known only to himself & not anybody else. If one of the same symbol is used to represent God, some may have or may not have a liking for it, just as two people do not value the same dish

Hence we have male & female symbols, and sometimes animals like monkey, serpent

of trees, mantras of trees, as well to represent the formless God. Vedas say

"Choose any form you like & invoke the INFINITE"

47) Is there any infinity or superiority among various forms of God?

Even the dispute between Janaka & Hanuman was solved by SHIVA

48) Do you believe in any particular form of God?

I believe in the superhuman form that is inseparable from our creating existence. The age of science & technology is all about scientific research & technological advancement.

49) What is the basis of your belief?

What is the basis of my belief? I heard in one of the lectures by Chinmayanda that the events of BRAHMA & VISHNU are stated to have gone in search of lost form of SHIVA. They failed in their efforts & LORD SHIVA appeared in the form of "LINGAM". That day is held sacred and celebrated as SHIVARATHRI. Lord SHIVA is worshipped with fasting & Jaagranas. The prayers, prostrations & submission offered through fasting & Jaagranas mean total surrender to God of our free will & individuality & EGO.

101) What was the first occupation in your life after your graduation?

I immediately after my graduation I stepped into my father's profession as an untrained teacher & a tutor in the same college where I studied.

102) Did you like the job?

Yes? Whether I liked or not I considered as the noblest profession to start with.

103) Did you apply for any other job?

Yes, I applied to Nizam's Govt. got Hyderabad also took completion examination for Dena Way Regulation in the M. Ry. Hyderabad but before I could get to know the results, I got selected as an auditor in computerised bank of A.P. Hyderabad later my father suppressed the news of my selection in Mys. as he pleases it was a field job exposed to sun & weather. Had I waited a couple of months I could have had the opportunity of joining Mys. & becoming the GM of South Central Railway by retirement. After all, man proposes God disposes.

104) How was life at Hyderabad during Nizams time

It was much better than now - it is now after SRC. Life in Nizam's time was the best of necessity in the country. The Hindi currency was perfect harmony. There were no communal disturbances. Telephone language was highly corrupted because of the influence of Urdu.

104) But for your Auditor's job what would you have become otherwise?

~~Ind. Rly Service Engineer~~ ~~because~~ ARCH Soga Rly Zone 2

105) Do you believe in the limitations of human body and its existence in the competitive world?

Yes, by all means.
The limitations of human body are very much evident by my own example when I had to leave my native state & travel > 600 kms in search of livelihood only to get over competition & secure a convenient job to sail through life.

106) Did you have the blessings of your parents in your search of jobs outside?

It was not too easy to secure their blessing because they were opposed to my going out of home town in large family 2 brothers & 4 sisters. When everybody looked at me to help I had to assure every one of them that I will not forget them as soon as I leave home but will look for their upliftment at the slightest opportunity & keep in good family contact.

107) Did you succeed in your efforts ultimately?

Yes to a large extent although it meant a lot of sacrifice on my home front. I found a lot of financial disparity in our justice to everybody.

108) Can you spell out some of your efforts in maintaining the joint family intact?

While doing my job at Hyd I could electify my ancestral home at my home town. I train my first TA Bill. I signed Puzar at my ancestral temple.

Let the Blessing of an family diety:-

- 1) I received admission to my brother in Eng college & my sister in Medical college to increase their job potential. I gave a professorial degree. I gave immediate scope for ~~starting~~ a class I jobs. When I could see any after 30 years -
- 2) I could consolidate the family at Hyd after my father's retirement. When I could have under one roof with my family.
- 3) I could secure family decent marriage alliances to my brother & sister's into my official career & could get them a decent start in ^{their} personal lives as well.
- 4) I could give a facility to an ancestral temple, since my father was very much affected of pride a decent surrounding to it. The decoration, Shalised flooring and marble floors around the Sanctoria Sanctoria. Let divine inspirations -

109) Name one asset of your joint temple with which you are very much attached?

The only asset of our joint family which I am very much attached to is my ancestral temple.

110) what is your favourite view point to maintain the homogeneous nature of the family?

After the demise of my father in 1980 & my mother in 1987, there was nothing left to ensure a homogeneous nature of our joint family, except the property I inherited from my mother's support to the family.

My brother fell into debt & my sister remained neutral & so I had to fend for myself & resist all attempts for the breaking up of the joint family. My brother moved abroad & sought to dispose of our ancestral house at NR & my sister was there we could retain it as a heritage building. Unless I could be have another means to have my next meal. Still he prevailed on me to convert my mother's share (even here I had around a higher fig of 15000 for her part 10000 he needed) and I had to part with the house on 19 Aug 1994 on the eve of my US visit for 2nd time. Even since then the only common link is ancestral lands (home site & wet lands) situated at P. S. S. & from my brother is often the dispute. I am totally alone now, since I have finally decided to live here. Temple for better management & the more & more S. S. S. also makes for a trust fund to help & support the temple & annual maintenance & also in family welfare work.

MARCH

111) Do you believe in the mystery of life?

Yes very much. It is all the result of your past life.

112) What is your basic concept of life?

Life is what you make of it. You are the Captain of your ship & the master of your sent. It is up to you to make it a Heaven or Hell. It is in your hands.

113) How do you want to go about in your life? and make it worth living?

As I mentioned earlier, my motto is "Live one day at a time" and life is the greatest extent of instant thinking of what you say. That starts tomorrow on your way of life.

Forget the past & don't think of tomorrow. Spend today wisely & constructively. I believe in the saying:

"Yesterday is a cancelled cheque, you can't cash it. Tomorrow is a promissory note, you can't rely on it. Today is ready cash, spend it wisely."

114) What is that you have learnt in life whether good or bad and its challenges?

I learnt some things 1) Responsibility of being a parent in a joint family

2) Responsibility of each parenthood

3) The long last of balancing the two

'The day I interacted with my Sage & children, the way I used to keep my elders in good harmony
the way I disciplining my children without using the stick. It was a sheer thrill of adventure & excitement. It was my precious moment — a more mature consideration of trials & tribulations faced by me helped me to cheer and my task accordingly — the light schedule evening for meeting to PM, but then I had to intersperse my two college studies. — in the evening college in between my duties & responsibilities seemed me the reward & satisfaction.
Life in Boston had been a living experience but I did wish up to balance as much as possible'

M A R C I

116) Any regrets?

Not at all. I was all an ~~experience~~ in substance having to find time to fulfill domestic responsibilities. Yet it was an effort while the trouble. The only regret I constantly experienced was the fact that I had to unlearn
 the lessons I learnt during my 20 year formal education. If with it had not had I been blessed with more time, financial resources (as I do have now)
 I could have done miracles.

I am confident of that.

117) Do you have the required satisfaction now?

In spite of all that I am a satisfied soul most happy bringing up my children in the line of their choice to the level of my satisfaction & having made them married men the spouses of equally good, well-schooled educational career and at the top of all maintaining cordial relations with them at the same time maintaining my own individuality & leading separate life without depending on their contributions.

118) Which of your faculties are responsible for achieving this level of satisfaction or happiness in your life?

I believe in the 80/20 rule. We should ^{not} have to eat but ^{only} eat to live.

My counts are ~~hundreds~~ of my own needs. I believe that "work is worship" and is the work that keeps it busy. Three enemies: Boredom, Vice & Need.

119) Name three things you have learnt in your life

The three most important aspects I learned in my 20 years of life are:

- 1) Respect for elders & parents to family & one's parents
- 2) Respect for Rule of Law & respect of one's position or status in life (Tony Blair's example)
- 3) Impatience & Self-discipline in our daily life

Rule of law

The report that the British Prime Minister Tony Blair's son was ~~arrested~~ by the police for being ~~incapable~~ is not all news from a country where the rule of law means that no one is above the law. Two years ago, Mr. Blair witnessed an incident of a pilot ~~being~~ asked him to switch off his mobile phone as the PM answered a call. Just as the plane was ~~about~~ to take off. The pilot said: "I am sorry it is, mate, rules are rules, switch it off."

120) What do you mean by Self discipline?

It is common to see persons following traffic rule when the police is present around & dropping at red in his absence

Similarly we are honest enough not giving up their property in broad day light, but are not hesitate to drop left handered or in darkness

When we go out of our country, we find Indians very strictly following the laws of the land wherever they stay but the moment we land in India,

we start behaving differently

I could say that it is the type of law is so, because

121) What is the reason for this type of behaviour)

lack of elementary SELF-DISCIPLINE

Our discipline is an enforced one & not brought about by individual self In foreign countries, we do not see the law enforcing authorities, but we see the law But here we see mass of law enforcing authorities but little of law itself

122) What is the remedy?

The remedy is simple & clear. Politicians should keep themselves away from law enforcement. We should follow rule of law not self discipline or face punishment

123) who was the first teacher in your life?

It was my father & mother
It was my mother who first taught me how to read & how to write & talk & eat. She attributed all my faculties to my mother who fed me & made me grow big.

It was my father who later taught me to learn & improve myself.
He was an elementary school teacher, later an independent person as an independent college gave me an idea of an ancient temple & made me grow religious & God fearing. He would go to any length to help others without expecting anything in return.
He took up public causes like supporting teaching and children for a living encouraged me onto the temple. He often braved opposition & became a very scrupulous theologian & was always engaged in his attempts but all of this to use in my everyday life.

During your whole life

What is the single most important thing that you believed in and practised?

124) During your whole life

what is the single most important thing that you believed in and practised?

"Do you work without depending on others?"

— without depending on others

Even if it happens like a team work don't wait for others to start Just go ahead & take the lead & start doing it. Others will follow Don't wait for others to start Don't allow work to suffer

— I take "work as worship" & this keeps me fit & healthy

I believe in the saying "work keeps at bay three things: Boredom, vice and need"

work keeps at bay three things : boredom, vice and need 125) What has been your objective in public life?

I always wanted to be a good person & do my best.
There are many ways of doing things, but I have my own specialty
in being a free introvert & doing my best giving my best effort & using my full potential & there is not a secret from other concepts to my conduct.

I don't block anything in conducting me & instead offer my services personal or official to those who need it. I believe in shortcuts & solutions or simplified methods to complex problems.
Whenever I take up, I see it from a different angle in s/o the conventional way.
I empathize with those who need me for help.
I make human beings first, often next keeping away the relationship of kith & kin brother or sister or distant cousin.
This helps me to find easy solutions acceptable to one & all. I am proud to say that because of accessibility, there is accessibility.

126) where did you learn your managerial skills?

4th year
APR 11
I like my stay at ASCG

Nepher & Nodres and etc Institute of HAD helped me in building up my managerial skills

127) Do you have any access to prove your managerial skills? If so where?

In fact I went in search of opportunities

I had served the training
At House Board

well for five years and Nishant for one year and Sangre from 74 to 81

to be known as?

I don't want to be known as somebody important because I am a silent worker
I am not chasing

131) what irritates you?

It is my self comparison that irritates me
It is my comparison for some people
that irritates me
into actions
It is my philosophy of life that want to make impossible that drive me close to success or excellence Wherever little I can do
I try to reach perfection
I believe in the saying that there is nothing when can't do - of course I mean also -

135) What is the difference between perfection and excellence?

Excellence can be in a particular field or faculty or area

Perfection is above excellence in all fields & areas

Man's persistent efforts to reach perfection alone makes him superior to all other living creatures/animals

You can't just expect to find anyone who is at the ideal stage of perfection both in behavior, thought, word & deed because it is an all time exercise & never a completed exercise

It is a continuous on going process

To be more specific getting 100% (100/100) in your math paper = excellence but scoring $\frac{150}{100}$ is perfection & far beyond what I achieved in my intermediate

136) How is it possible to get 150/100?

As you are above 4 in mathematics usually there is a fair chance you will answer & solutions looked at

If you are ~~not~~ asked to do 10 sums out of 15 given in a paper if you can do all 136) What do you think is responsible for your success in maths?

In the 1st month leaving any, you are awarded $\frac{150}{100}$ & proportionally less if you do 12 out of 10 $\frac{120}{100}$

Q What do you think is responsible for your success in Maths?

Success comes with a combination of hard work & good luck

When it comes though Maths we used to do repeat and repeat any break down all the sums with examples & that gave me enormous confidence for I can handle even the most difficult sum

138) What is the secret of success
in your life?

success

is your life

I always target on things at the ^{starting} point of action at the ^{beginning} of not start for the top

Continue standing on ego or observing my protocol.

otherwise I stand at my DAS or group, upper level instead, I go to the lowest.

Case worker & help him in having the case file first & help him in process of disposal with right advice of securing the cooperation & coordination, when necessary from other related areas.

Now and then to a large extent communication gap & avoiding delays in transition.

Now is how I achieve to secure consumer satisfaction or customer appreciation. I am always convinced as problem solver.

high achiever in my front circle or official circle. I am always convinced as a leader in my cadre.

type I did not accept any open to even responsibility because it leads to tie me down to myself.

139) Is anybody else behind your success or it is your own self?

My success
due to my dedications & and also to my children
by my idea to be my

Commit to my own self, I do my hard work (in the office to take care of my professional Not only I am grateful to God me with success on a

140) what do you think of all the HYPE about the new millennium?

William Spectacular Attend it's once in a lifetime, you get to see such events
There is also an argument about whether the new millennium should start at 1st Jan 2000 or at the next new year day But either way, the change into next 100 years is reason enough to celebrate, because not everyone gets to see this day

141) Ultimately you concede that there was some HYPE
about the new millennium?

Yes, in one way
it has helped me
in securing a family following of all my sons who moved out of their ancestral home
in search of better livelihoods
Not that they were starving prior to this but they went out in search of some greener pastures in the field of their choicest computer software tech;
a global HYPE I should say

142) Do you think life is complicated and gloomy with all these obstacles?

Do you think you have a positive/negative attitude to life? I feel that nothing is complicated in this world. Everything in God's creation is beautiful and enjoyable. It is all in the mind. It all depends on how we handle the situation. The most powerful thing we have is the mind. All of us are gifted with it without making it to think we don't make use of it properly. I pick up all good things from everywhere. Every day's newspaper, every interaction (may be it is a gossipy talk, quarrel, argument). I want to live life by proactive interactions & not by subdued self defence.

143) What are your personal views as an individual or professional?

As an individual, I am an ordinary god fearing individual who has come in this life building my career brick by brick in self confidence & self assertion. I love my home, village, family & God. But as a professional lawyer & advocate I have to compromise. I have to work for my clients (to send for ship) to suit your customer. Hence I am unable to do lots in my life. As a devotee of Swamiji I am bound to go as my nose leads me to.

144) when the countdown began on 31st night who are all the people
you would like to spend?

Apart from my son my spouse,
I had planned much earlier for a global meeting of all my children (beats for all corners of globe) to meet at Hys
& my plan would well

145) Do you recall any particular event of this eventful evening?

Yes, very much. It is the gala dance & singing festival we celebrated on 31st night in the company of friends & relatives including our tenants from Grand floor when all my children including ten spouses & their parents as well

146) Is there any other way you can recall that event day in and out?

Apart from the video tape
my sons have developed for periodical display (VCR)
I have taken a number of family portraits in various combinations & permutations out of them I have enlarged
a couple of them to decorate my visitors / my room

APRIL

146) Do you attach any importance to the family portrait?

Though photography was not my hobby (being a child on a)

I encouraged my children to have as many photos as they want to celebrate this big gathering. In particular go into a snap of the full gathering of all the 18 members getting it enlarged into 4' x 8' to decorate my drawing room besides in full view. With great difficulty I secured 40-entangled 7 30" x 15", as they are beyond the figures could not be decipherable.

147) Did you face any difficulty in getting all the people agree for this and making them pose for photograph?

Yes, it is a brainturning exercise (5 1/2/03). I visited the wedding party should be the favorite Kanakpuram silk saree of the marriage suit.

While none of the were readily accessible to them they preferred to pose late simple daily wear. Ultimately you find me alone with a needle and my life in a Kanakpuram silk saree. While the rest wore any casual dress, but with an "omile" caution by the professional photographer I should say I succeeded in getting a good family snap.

148) What according to you is the best thing that happened to mankind in the past 100 years?

In my opinion it is the Wright Brothers who made travel easier all over globe. But for him, my children would not have flown to USA for better prospects, nor we could have gone to visit them.

149) and the worst thing not to have happened?

Had Graham Bell not made communication easier things like Telephone, Telex or Internet.

Science has made such a tremendous progress of things computers / medicine. It has really opened up the world.

150) What is the worst thing not to have happened to mankind?

The worst thing to happen to India was the Emergency of 1975 when we lost our democracy & human rights.

Not exactly. I believe in the axiom "you write

Honestly speaking, I am glorified lucky that hard work is in fact autobiographical like DAVID COPPERFIELD

Anything else?

Sorry I forgot to tell you about

There was the period when my grandfather was round the corner of my maternal uncle from whom I received the occasions
as the eldest member of an old family.
He was an unique example of a consistently contentant in life, despite the hard knocks he received from the family but also eventually by way of dismissal from his job. While I looked at his nobility grand land in his typical predicament his life seemed as an example of caution.

173) Did anybody enter your life as a mentor afterwards?

After his death, a colleague advocating mine whom I came to know at SPMills was I looked as a law officer, ~~told~~ me
the comfort he read in reading things of discipline. Encouraged then,

I found some comfort by reading things that I prayed for DATTATREYA as my mentor. His book gave me some insight into spiritual discipline for which ~~more~~ out of game is necessary wherein it is difficult to evade concentration.

179) What is your favourite transport?

91- is my legs
Walking down Route 101 which has blessed me
to keep intact

180) What is your favourite pasttime?

My favourite past time is walking walking I have done most

1) Dog walking - Various types of walking like Hiking walking like my dog
Mr Jimmy up down
the Mass Park Road

2) Milk walking - walking to fetch to fetch milk

3) Vegetable walk - to secure vegetables for lunch & dinner
(I don't believe in processed veg in bulk & store them in fridge)

4) Staircase walking - walking up & down the staircase - (I live in 1 floor - My dog & study room - 11 floor
- My school (front floor)

5) Library walk - long walk to fetch books from library

6) After dinner walk - walking with my dog after dinner, before taking it to the terrace.

181) How did you develop taste in walking?

I used to walk up & down to my school & college (VRC) by short cut - walking along the Railway track, jumping over the rails & sleeping on by the line to my class. This long spell of walk for about 6 years (1945-50) developed in me a flair for walking which I sustain even today.

182) What was your longest walk in your life?

It was 22 miles (About 30km) from Huneppur to Bellare. When I walked along with my grand father - escorting a fleet of 100 cars which he owned - a big family asset those days.

ii) The next - 5000 was a stretch of 12 miles (18km) from my native place Bellare to Bellare. When I had to walk down (due to breakdown of the only one single service (private bus) to catch my train to Hyderabad in 1955.

183) Did you never use any other transport like cycle?

184) What was your proud possession during those days?

Why not? I guess not. I learnt cycling late. My father's cycle was my proud possession those days. In our local trips to my village Panvelcham. While my father rode me a good bit. I used to take the return cycling and used to pedal back by the train.

185) So was cycling another form of exercise?

Very much. Many of A & V had also experienced the cumbersome transportation of balls breaking Bullock cart rides, & had no nice cycle ride was a blessing in disguise.

186) What was the popularity of cycling those days?

At that time, cycle was considered the most perfect solution to the country's need for providing economic transport to the common man. Very little attention was then paid to aesthetics or technology, the primary objective being the vehicle's utility (external pedals).

187) What was your later experience?

Even after my shifting to Hyderabad, bicycle was my main transport. I carried my old cycle to Hyderabad from Nellore. I used it for 10 long years till I went in for my 2nd wheel in 1965. I remember the day when my cycle was caught by Nellore's police for drunk intent breezes, sometime for want of light & occasionally for double driving & sometimes for hasty ride with my two kids up to 25 km/hr. Once the policeman commented "Kyo, itna Ann Dandee" while I was let off mostly by virtue of my AE's official employment, there were occasions that I had to plead guilty & paid the Chellam for penalty - as well.

188) What is the position of that cycle today?

Later in 1973, I gifted it away to my peon (of AHHS) who carried the basket box to my children at school.

189) What is the stage of cycle transport today?

today however it is quite different stage altogether
Aerodynamic design and state of the art technology are the result of the modern by the way let's see like getting molecular biology, physics, etc. from its predecessor

She is an understanding woman & life partner

I would have been able educated in professional courses

if they are occupying comfortable

As a college student after some I looked for a quiet apartment morning & evening (I have seen to even for my college fees)

201) Had you any disappointments in life?

Like everybody else
I too had my share of disappointments as well. Only then one can appreciate the taste of happiness that you have & that you could reach for as against what you aspire for Simply speaking, if you could achieve what you aspire for without any trouble once you are happy with the acquisitions you begin taking things easy & you don't feel the need to learn more & learn more, with the result you start deteriorating in your IQ.

But once you face some disappointments that acquire what you wanted, you try to expect yourself & start looking for equally good alternatives & in the process you learn a lot more & start venturing into new vistas.
That was how I learnt over the past 5 decades

202) Can you name any disappointments in life and how did you circumvent them?

Name a couple of disappointments you faced
How you tried to Circumvent them

The first disappointment was when I could not afford to secure a seat
in a single college despite my earning a high 1st class in Mathematics
at Intermediate level
I also after degree level

It was mainly a lack of opportunity of going out for study at a different place of meeting the required hostel charges but as I was I re-evaluated my degree in the same college and this time

My second disappointment was to make it to IAS cadre just then introduced by CPSC. It was a fair enough hard but tuition fees were not affordable so I had to take up a local job as an in-house teacher to meet the joint family responsibilities. It was only after going to the 4th year, I could make my fee for IAS then a nice chance to serve candidly

finally how did you reconcile to your ambitions?

Even after going a reputed 2nd
Department (ASAD)

I continued my urge for higher studies to reach higher echelons of life

I seemed determined to leave college of law, much against the wishes of my department (which refused permission)
I took the risk of losing my job for the sake of a law degree. Finally it ended up with a training in my SR Inward I was happy when my law degree entered my official records that day
It is the law degree that came to my rescue for setting up practice in my post-retirement era.

Re: my desire to secure a class 1 job through IAS, I had to lead things various departments till I took my way up of the official hierarchy over a period of 30 long years, from IAS class 1 to the coveted class I in 1987, just half year before my retirement.

204) Any event or situation in life that has really changed you?

Any event or situation in your life that has really changed you?

or someone who has influenced your life?

If I am to speak of one event it was my retirement -

While I spent the prime of my life in helping the St. family of public sector workers into comfortable positions, it was my wife's retirement that stirred into my eyes + pruned me to do something for my family members.

Luckily for me God helped me in shaping the lives of my children into good education & finding a suitable spouse for all of them. Fortunately I could clear all my own obligations to my family by the delay of my retirement, so much so I could invest all my retirement earnings on the improvement of my own housing. So I managed to provide a separate room for each of them in 1 floor.

205) Is there someone who influenced your life?

● I may say
● Collectively it has my children who have largely influenced my life
by their steadfast effort in ~~climbing~~ up their career ladder availing of the best opportunities afforded them at the cost of my own comforts & needs.

If I am to single out a particular individual, it was my wife who kept by my side through thick & thin and cautioned me at times again at appropriate intervals, reminding me of my responsibilities to my own family & pointing to the necessary infrastructure & mental make-up required for the onslaught.
But for her, I would not have ventured into the first floor construction & the boys too not equally provided the demerol for the purpose.

Q. Did you want to be an Engineer, but fate turned me into an Auditor?
 N. E. (What you said) I would have become the GM of SCL by now as an Auditor.

206) What did you want to become in life?

What would you have become if not as an auditor?

Landmark event in your career?

It is the millennium.

207) What do you think has been a landmark event in your career? and in this millennium?

In my career, it is my election to class (IAS rank) the IAS rank as a landmark event since it compelled me to my flourish to meritorious things IAS after a while in service.

It gave me a lot of direction in personal life.

It provided the much needed impetus to pursue my chosen activities in my past retirement period & also in my twilight years.

If you want me to specify the particular landmark work to the nation as a whole, it is undoubtedly the independence we secured in 1947 & frame of our constitution.

I can make an L like a ZERO

Two angles then I write 2

Three angles then I write 3

the people are devoted to the Lord & sing his songs

Yogic power have hand in my setting up

(211) 211) What is the advantage of following yogic discipline?

By practicing Yogic discipline,
the body gets disciplined in the activities
the mind gets disciplined & controlled it cannot be trusted too much.
Just as a deer cannot trust a hunter, so also yogis don't put faith in the fickle natured mind,

I always lie low

Who are all the

221) Who are all the leaders who inspired you?

Inspiration^{first} comes from life itself &
its hard necessities.
Even from nature itself.
Even little babies who can make a noise in the cradle can form an inspiration.

The car when it's low "BAA"

can be an inspiration.

Patience & motherhood can be or great source of inspiration

& come from Role Models -

On my literary field, the first inspirations came from Tagore's "Gitanjali" which I picked up from a footpath dump in Abidje

"My book 5 Rupees" I was hooked by the verse "Where the Hind is what I fear"

which was one of the lessons in my X class which I can recall even today. Then I wrote a parody to the verse to inspire the present day youth from their college slumber.

Who are other family members. You have inspired yours?
I inspired her?

253 I would keep away from him
I regarded him as a different

He belonged to lot of people & not

In retrospect I feel he was

She more than compensated for my father's preoccupied style.

I don't discriminate

It is a must for the growth of every child In the matter of choosing their career or spouse

When it comes to level of education, a girl has to ultimately find comfort @ her in-laws & in-laws the in-laws of her parents who brought them up in life so I take extra care in providing her the

As regards the boys, I believe in the saying that boys

286

Whose dream was to go to US?

In fact, it was the dream of Dr Raj to make it to USA. He started much early things in preparation for TOEFL & GRE.

How about his Engineering Education?

Engineering Education?

I think 1970 was the time point in the history of Engg Education in India.

When an entrance examination was introduced for admission to professional courses like Engg & medicine of Osmania University colleges. Dr Raj could clear the entrance with top 100 rank. He was allotted "Chemical Technology" which he had accepted. Within a month, JNTU came out with the admission list based on the marks scored in the Intermediate exam. Raj left his Osmani seat & joined JNTU in "Electrical & Electronics" branch. Later based on his 1st year performance he was elevated to "Electronics & Communication Engg". And he successfully cleared in flying colors securing 1st class with distinction and emerging in the top 10 of the university rank.

What about his PG studies?

After B.Tech in 1980 he took the entrance examination for M.Tech & secured admission in I.I.T Kharagpur in "Computer Engineering" discipline. He cleared with distinction by December 1982.

While at Khavap

of good appointments long camping selection
one at TBL Madras

At TBL, Bombay

Since I did not have much idea about his placement, I could not advise him
I finally he himself chose TBL, Bombay probably with an eye on foreign assignment Though he has been applying for US scholarship for over 10 years, even since he completed BSc
he was not blessed with any offer.

Finally the day I on which he boarded the Bombay express to proceed to Bombay to join TBL, I rec'd a cable from him asking for his acceptance in SIU, Cambridge of a year for his acceptance. But by the time I could contact him at Pras Hotel Bombay, he had already signed his contract with TBL & he preferred to seek extension 6 months to join with Fall semester. His request was finally granted & he joined SIU in Jan 83 (He provided for Nelson on 6/1/83 by Air France. He took great risk in leaving TBL without formal relief for a long time after him for quite some time
He believed that there is no chance in life without risk of his risk has paid him rich dividends.
He is a Professor @ CAL STATE LA now

Mr. Satya if I remember correctly?

True to his name
Satya was a delightful & good feeling child who depended immense faith in his parents & never deviated from the path of righteousness.
Whether at home or school

Once he broke the thermos of his teacher (not by his mistake but by miscreants pushing one of his classmates) & had to pay the penalty because he pleaded guilty. He was very modest & hard working scoring 100/100 in 10th
He was school I in 7th, 9th rank in 10th & secured 13th rank in EM CET Engineering fully when he was joining counselling for B Tech. admission, I advised him Mechanical (then Electrical branch was open to him) to which he opted. But the result he had not for 10 long years in PRASA TOOLS Ltd
where promotion as BSN Manager PPC

He left Prapant for a change to VOLTA where he worked as Manager (PPC) for a year & moved over to TCS as a software consultant.
Marriage has brought him luck after 2 years he & his wife did some PD diploma in computer which helped him in getting TCS job, while his wife ended up a job in HCL New Delhi.
Then software exposure at Delhi for 2 years helped them in getting a US placement in 1987

294) How did he finally step into the shoes of his brothers?

He stepped into the shoes of his brothers because his employer at CSE was giving him a lot of trouble and he was almost every six months to discharge him from his job.

Meanwhile his elder brother was encouraging him to join them at USA. He did not even move initially because his employer at CSE was giving him a lot of trouble and he was almost every six months to discharge him from his job.

In June 2000, one of the employees of CSE who started his own business at SAARJEI invited him to join him. Since Nandan had completed 5 years of stay at Delhi, the government of Delhi prompted him to accept the US offer.

Finally when Nandan resigned from CSE, his employer presented him with a fair amount of a cheque offer to USA. He took it.

Thereupon he applied for immigration of his dependents. My wife was reluctant to accept immigration, I had to convince her, more for the sake of my grand children, than for ourselves. The process is now on.

Do you believe that parenteral influence has an impact on the bringing up of children?

Yes to large extent
I believe in the philosophy that child learn by example. The way parents behave largely is reflected on the behaviour of children. Parents can remain a smoker & commit his son to be a non smoker & similarly in the making of drinking or gambling or of false sportsman, his children automatically follow a tight regimen. R. K. Dhanu Sen Sharma is a tennis star of fame.

Do you consider parenteral influence blessing or a bane?

I believe that a parentally taken mother can play a +ve role in the upbringing of a child. While the parenteral influence may not be as pronounced as in Western Countries, from the nature of family & interactions from the society in India, family support looms large in helping the child blossom into a well rounded personality. As it is said, it is in the genes, it is up to the child to take advantage of family background & slip into the shoes of his father's avocations or business as the case may be. However it is not an enviable task. Sometimes parents may be subjective & emotional. It is not easy to balance the books. Their hopes, intent crossing the "Laxman Rakha".

are not very rare people are unable to accept him as a true Godman.

He was an outstanding divine messenger who believed & preached equality of all religions
When he knew of his impending death

he called in all his followers, both Hindus & Muslims & told them about his end approaching death. Different people argued differently about his end ceremony according to their own religious customs, rather to be to fight amongst themselves, the doors got opened

But you must have some idea of the discipline of journalism vs literature

I do not very much like the pigeonholing pure literature vs journalism.
I don't find any difference except between you write a novel, you write on your own ideas;
whereas when you are a journalist reporting on a media problem
you get out to talk to people & elicit their opinion.

If it is a biography, it is like a very long article.
Only the methods are quite different.
A lot of our prominent writers have also been excellent journalists, like for ex.
Graham Green, George Orwell, Evelyn Waugh
In India too, we have Keshavnath Suri &
Atherell, he is both a novelist & columnist.

350

You said you had spent - a couple of years in USA
intermittently What is the quality of newspapers
in USA
vis-a-vis India?

351

Well, I am not expert, to judge
the quality of newspaper
But - one thing I tell you in India,
there is a complete obsession with politics in national newspapers.
The tabloids we find across in India resembled the national British tabloids in layout, but thankfully the contents are sober.

I find an absence of human interest stories, features & in-depth analysis.

The American media could have gone to the highlighting human interest angle, but here the focus is on political & economic aspects.

Do you ~~think~~ that American newspapers were

Do you mean to say that American Newspapers were less obsessed with politics?

Yes, by large
the national dailies
here New York Times
Washington Post
Los Angeles Times
do carry a lot of political stories.

But the other beats are not ignored. The political coverage in our dailies is less partisan & as this aspect is left to editorial pages

The Wall Street Journal is viciously right-wing, but its political coverage is unbiased.

In American journalism the job of the political correspondent is the most sought after, despite the fact that journalists & columnists are salesmen and politicians find them at the bottom of the "most-coveted job list".

vis-a-vis CTBT get plenty coverage in the US media

I don't know the coverage depends

You are known to be a disciplinarian
What is your concept of discipline

359

Have you been able to inculcate the same in your children & grand children

Yes, I am proud of sim called a Disciplinarian. There is a method in my MADNESS
 you may call it fo.
 I believe in the Thine Duty & Discipline
 To obey God's orders as delivered by conscience is DUTY. & To obey Man's orders as right for authority is called DISCIPLINE.
 The foundation for both these is alike is Denial of Self for a higher Common Good Unless the Lesson of Duty is first well learned, the Lesson of Discipline cannot be perfectly understood. I am happy to say all my children are following the same path.

 My daughter is a Lecturer for 1/2 day interacting with hundreds of teen age children in the same Discipline Education for other 1/2 hour a family co. & providing employment for ten more homes.
 To make me feel proud that "educating a woman is educating entire family".
 My eldest son is the Head of the 25 Dept of a military University of USA (as a computer advisor to millions of student community, fetching law degrees not only to himself but also to other Indian where he was born.
 My Second Son is a Production oriented Computer Programmer.
 My Third Son is a Computer Aided Design making a Global Software Comp.
 All them are still disciplinarians in their own field. I am very proud of them.

for the elderly begins

lining caregiving aspects for the elderly will be forwarded to the government.

Dr K Balakrishnan, prof in demography, IIAFW, explaining the diseases affecting the elderly, pointed out that among the age group of 50 and above, mostly incurable ailments were responsible for their suicides.

Prof P V Ramamurthi, Centre

for Ageing, Sri Venkateswara University, called for maintaining the ethos of caring the elders.

He also outlined the strategies to improve the care giving mechanism by educating the kith and kin and community, improving the social support mechanism, increase community participation involving more NGO's and to train the caregivers in caregiving skills.

360) What is your methodology in bringing up your children?

What is your methodology in bringing up your children to the level you wanted them to be in terms of the level of the youth of the country?

At the outset I believe in self-discipline on the part of the individual. I expect that my children would follow suit in self-discipline.

Secondly, my care-giving mechanism provides a place for MOTHER first & then only father comes to play.

Thirdly, my methodology provides for elderly care up to certain age being the stage beyond 15/16 to self-discipline & self-improvement.

Fourthly, marriage should be at an early age of (20-25) the period when they are able to decision making.

Fifthly: After marriage it is a kind of a Double-Bullock Cart which should be aimed at a common goal.

What happens later is a common agenda with common interests & use of the social support mechanism available in neighborhood.

OCTOBER

Do you have any other hobbies?

Other hobbies?

Yes. I do indulge in some writing story writing for children.

Is it folk tales or fairy tales?

It is folk tales, or fairy tales.

Neither. It is something like familiarizing with home land, ancestry & providing family background.

Is it anything the sort of Panchatantra?

Is it anything of the sort of Pancha Tantra?

Yes, something like that which alerts the children from the pit-falls of modern world on the lines of The Pancha Tantra? Mother's Lullaby / Mother's Bedtime
Hearing the conch shells (Sankha)
& avoiding the conflict (Vijayanta)

Habits of Panchatantra Chitra Soodri?

Do you think that the reading habits of children are in jeopardy?

Yes, that is why I promote the habit of self-learning through books.
I use of the daily newspaper & pick up a couple of news words from headlines becoming the meaning for the Dictionary getting them down in their personal dictionary & ultimately bringing them 2nd personal dictionary.

365

How are children attracted to these stories or tales?

1. Attraction to the stories

2. In elementary school books, some of the folk tales are included. They love to read some sequels / follow up to these tales.

I heard from Richard Bamberger, an Australian (Vienna based storyteller). That in his country folk literature is very much told with some originality. Scandinavian stories are much simpler & easy to read and understand.

3. Larger than life figures to be seen here

Yes. Fairy tales are mostly based on some wishful feelings and misgivings. Certainly.

Do you think that few tales have therapeutic value?

Yes, they can provide the comfort for the lonely child more than these are intellectual or cerebral kind of reading material. Children read more & more of these, if they are relieved to their mind & conscience.

Certainly most fairy tales do stress on certain ideological factors harboring or upbringing of children such as

Mostly those dwelling on children's well being

- (1) Authority of parents
- (2) Regulate behavior
- (3) Discipline & related matters
- (4) Wit & wisdom

Do you object to such topics?

No not at all. While modern day culture is just to the ideal, being pumped into young mind through fairy tales some parents also are afraid of their slant interpretation at schools. But I personally feel that such stories should must be included in supplementary reading as they things in children's life culture of various generations & various religious & to some natural belief to work God & unseen force acting on our lives.

2000

What is their main thrust towards such stories?

Their main objection is that many of them are not true to life and are dangerous. They feel that the children may find in life some fear to face to some abstract ideas like superstitions, existence of God & other divine forces and begin to experience fear & pain. But fear & pain are a part of life. Even when by reading a tale a child experiences fear, by the time he completes the story he also learns how to overcome the fear. As he has overcome the evil force, the child realises that ultimately, but it is good that eventually emerges victorious, suppressing the evil.

The International Institute for Children's Literature & Reading Research, founded in 1965, has done a lot of research and introduced a new approach to reading promotion among children.

hassles of life

You can use the modern computers

also in setting their minds in the right directions - computer can become a media other than being a tool of accounting.

Yes, very much. I did not

You seem to have some knowledge about computers. Is it so?

From any degree or diploma or official

Certificate about knowledge of computers I used my spare time

[in 1991] of stay in USA to equip myself with the basics of computers & a particular of helped in bringing out an educational

Journal for the sake of children

primarily meant to expose the present day children, particularly those belonging to Indian community staying in USA,

who had no access to Sunshree & Varanasi

Did you find any response from the parents of Indian Community? Why they want you to immigrate to US or stay put in Hyderabad?

Yes, to a large extent. They found it so useful that they used to enquire after me for my next month's issue & then they can have it in new hands.

Did you find any response from the parents of Indian Community? Why they want you to immigrate to US or stay put in Hyderabad?

Some of them went to the extent of asking me to immigrate to US & open a school for the children of Indian community. I have prepared to pool up enough resources for starting a school. There was enough resources, even enough political & more than the request response from parents & children. What was required was the will to do.

I want to tell you

many problems by thinking creatively &
utilizing your resources on hand to the max.

In this type of business, you have to be there was no way a novice.

If every business going down the drain

For every business that fails, there is a new one that succeeds. There is always a fifty-fifty chance for success & failure. Repetition is Certainly not the answer.

I take the view that failure is a success in one way, in that it gave confidence in their efforts & capabilities & make them look hard for more genuine

How is India posed for the future?

A lot of activity happening in the Indian market
right now

In the beginning people thought that (I too felt a prey to this attraction in 1994)
MULTI MEDIA is the thing and everybody (including me) got into it, but in a very disorganised manner.

Now the dot-com wave started,
the venture capitalists started coming after the dot-com and vice versa.
Everybody suddenly has his fantastic idea & wanted to drop their jobs & started their own portals. Fuelled like the NASDAQ rumbling down, a market has happened & people have become very of the dot-coms created by fly-by-night operators.

Now the industry has matured
a bit, by then an experience, and only business houses like & formula & firms are surviving & getting funded.

To start with, enterprises

Can you tell me about the latest in the Business?

It's E-commerce

E-Business

391

What is the difference between the two?

Both appear to be one & the same but actually they are not different services to the public?

E-commerce is p/o E-Business
- it is one of the ^{four} segments of E-Business an individual seller

SOCIAL SYSTEM	E-commerce
Public to Consumer (b2c)	B2C Business to CONSUMERS
INTRANET Within Business	INTER-ENTERPRISE (b2b) Business to Business

Together b2b & b2c have created a bedrock of applications & utilities, whereby money can change hands via the web, as information and services also can be changed with the same ease.

What exactly is meant by e COMMERCE?

E Commerce is the nothing but buying & selling goods on the INTERNET and complements the traditional aspects of the Trade.

Is there anything better than this?

Yes definitely something new is emerging in the field. A new concept "E-SERVICES

development H.P. has come into the market.

Today E-commerce has HISTORY

SO, I think E-services man.

Now is the new internet now,

too businesses on the NETS, As

"Alice in Wonderland", discover

How fast is this change?

It is fantastic & unbelievable

If radio has taken about 40 years to reach common man
TV has 13 years to its credit
Cable TV 9 years to reach domestic market
Internet has taken just 4 years.

Is it not remarkable & unbelievable Internet is the best medium to sell not only your products but also your ideas

At this rate it is expected that E Business will touch every 10th house (1 in 10)
by the end of 2000 if not

NO wonder if some new concept emerges, the snafu in the internet, because the Internet users are increasing much than 2 1/2 times every alternate month

395

What is the purpose of e-services?

E Service is any service you make available via the NET but without necessarily requiring the customer to log on to a website.

E Service is something that includes both E-commerce and E-business as well. & then some more.

396

What is the sociality of the type of service now as e-service?

The key thing about E-service is that you don't have to go to the net to access them. An off-line service can request a service.

When you kick in LMS it's your initial action.

The real security of E-service, is that it restores dignity & respect to a much-maligned member of the hi-tech community viz BROKER. When you use these services, you don't buy or sell anything as such, but they add confidence to your transactions.

What is the modus operandi to be followed?

When I had no opportunity because my life partner, I accepted the Quaid's arrangement. My mother had gone in with interest of my sister's marriage & opened my career & service for improving the lot of my children. I encouraged them to have their choice of profession & select their own spouses.

Now I am a contented son & happy guy

It → nothing but
EAT, DRINK & MERR

After I came from school / college /

first employment - as a cleric, Rs. 150 out of which I saved 50/- to come back. I could not afford a second plate of IDLY at 00/11 & 00/12 1/2 annas I instead satisfied myself in a plate of free sambhar, much the chagrin of the waiter. I had to educate the next of my kin (brother & sisters) & to maintain a joint family like my meagre savings, supplementing my income with tuition.
As a middle-aged man I had to think twice
I had to struggle to before I go to a REVUE which is a night college at a party 400, with to improve my prospects the most rate of 10-15 to secure a low degree to feed me in a part retirement exercises. As a retired man
I could not be complacent with my family responsibilities to be given a decent shape Sometimes I am successful, if you can call me so to have shaped the future of my children But bulk of the credit goes to my wife, who carries the lunch boxes from home to school bathed her clothes, kept them in good human condition like a remote center, with the value for the day

the most precious event
in your life?

It was when mother had announced my marriage ^{date} without my indicating in advance about the girl.

My maternal uncle (youngest of my mother's brothers) of my age happened to live with me & spent his childhood clamped into me & studied in the same college & professions,
as he lost his mother when he was a child & his father lost his eye sight fairly early in his life. As she was concerned about her sons' future, she called her daughter (my mother) close to her & took a promise from her that she was given her youngest daughter in marriage to her son & take care of him for the rest of his life.

After fixing a day for her marriage in the summer of 1949, she thought it fit enough to inform her elder brother about the marriage of her younger brother.

I took her to the bus stand & saw to it that she boarded the right bus to her brother's place & promised to pick her back from the bus stand, the same evening little aware of the result of her deliberations.

As she got down the bus that evening
she started congratulating me & then

I demanded why? She started telling me that she had fixed my marriage with her brother's daughter in a rather pregnant situation.

11

Usually any boy starts thinking of his marriage as soon as he reaches puberty.
I have been looking forward to it with lots of ideas & expectations &
I prepared for the event.

In my case I never entertained the idea, nor looked for it. I never even expected to face the event leaving aside the issue of selection & approval.
My mother did everything for me,
of course, the greatest & complete benefit for the entire family.

19) How did the precious things

Not even for me because I did not have any time to prepare for it that's success

to its results.

Naturally even before any registered dreams to it about reading books on the subject & prepare for it.
In my case it was a FATH Accompli.
because it was a foregone conclusion.

Of course, I don't blame my mother too since she too had not expected but went ahead with her statement.
With the utmost confidence she had in me & was the hope that I will repeat her word & will not let her down.

forgetting the fact that "I too have a daughter to be married"

Now let you have become my daughter-in-law

"Unless you accept my daughter for marriage with your son,
I can not accept your daughter for marriage with my brother"

My mother promptly said: "I accept the challenge"
my son is a gentleman who cares for his mother and I can accept your daughter for my son".

It covers natural laws

Natural Laws

Natural characteristics

Laws of different species

Society & social conduct

Religious conduct

Professional conduct

All other eternal laws of nature which apply to all creations
(It covers the entire universe)

Just like a jewel from the inside to the outside
If U protect Dharma, Dharma will protect U

Dharma is in U & action not simple belief

Good of everyone in world is Dharma

Dharma is self sustaining

Sense for dharma is Dharma in action

That which makes U forget yourself is Dharma

It is a jewel with no facets of knowledge

Laws of nature which govern all creations

Who ever feels sorry for that misery

Who feels happy when that happiness is Dharma

Truth, non-stealing, feeling sorry for mistakes committed

Discrimination between good & bad; control of senses & good education are some essentials of Dharma

to be cured by Japa, AS, DOLA
