

Let's Change Wound Care Together – Statement of Support
Helping Clinics Like Yours.
Built by a Canadian, Female-Led Startup.

Hello!

I'm getting ready to launch our ready-to-go wound care kits—designed to save your team time, eliminate regulatory risk, and help you provide safer patient care with total confidence!. Right now, I'm looking for early supporters to help me show investors that Canadian clinics are ready for a solution like this.

 Why This Matters

By signing this non-binding Statement of Support, you'll:

Show support for a Canadian, female-led healthcare innovation
Get early access to our fully compliant, audit-ready wound care kits
Be recognized as one of our Founding Clinic Partners on our website & materials

There's absolutely no obligation to buy anything or make any commitment.

It's Quick & Easy to Support!

Sign below. Send it back using the pre-paid return envelope, or snap a quick photo and email it to
