

Once Again NO, NO, NO!!

I just heard Senator Chris Coons in an interview last night. He was saying that he wouldn't support funding DHS unless the administration agreed to certain conditions on ICE: No masks, body cams on ICE agents, etc.

No, No, No! What good are conditions? We all know that Trump and his cabinet will not pay attention to them. Or they will find a way to get around them. That's a given. Coons still thinks politics is civil and that compromise is still an option. NO, No, No! We need to cut off the money, plain and simple.

Oh, but what about FEMA, which is under DHS? Who cares? FEMA isn't doing shit anyway. FEMA might as well not exist. The Small Business Administration, which funds disaster relief programs, is gutted.

Excuse the cliché, but we have to play hardball, as we did in the last shutdown showdown. That got us somewhere. It made it clear that the Dems are for healthcare, and the Republicans don't give a crap.

I know that Trump and his court of evil jesters will still find a way to rain their cruelty on those who oppose them, but we have to slow this train down. At least till the midterms. We have to take a page out of Trump's playbook: delay, delay, and delay.

Please.

Senators, congressmen

Please heed the call

Don't stand in the doorway

Don't block up the hall

For he that gets hurt

Will be he who has stalled

The battle outside ragin'

Will soon shake your windows

And rattle your walls

For the times they are a-changin'
