"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom." - MATTHEW 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all "good seeds". We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

Chair & Table Rentals

Our parish is grateful to be able to provide chairs and tables for parishioners to borrow. Over time, however, we have noticed that some items have not been returned.

If you have borrowed any chairs or tables, we kindly ask that you return them to the parish at your earliest convenience so they will be available for others to use.

Dear Parishioners,

13th of July, 2026

A couple of weekends ago I was with my family and my brother and sister-in-law gave our niece (who is their god-daughter) a present to commemorate her baptism. In response, our niece (who is my god-daughter) began to cry because I have never given her a gift to commemorate her baptism. Although it was pretty embarrassing, it does remind us of the importance of baptism. Baptism saves us. Baptism washes us of sins, makes us children of God, and incorporates us into the church. Indeed, it is so important that the Church says that all of you should be ready to be the minister of baptism in two circumstances.

(1) If an unbaptized “adult” is in danger of death and has in some manner manifested the intention to receive baptism and adhere to the christian religion then you should without delay baptize the person. (In the context of canon law on baptism an “adult” is someone who is at least 7 and does not suffer from a cognitive impairment) (2) If an unbaptized “infant” is in danger of death you should baptize the person even if the parents oppose baptism. (An infant means someone who is below the age of 7 or who suffers from a grave cognitive impairment.) Baptism is important! But here’s a question for you, “Do you know how to baptize?”

If not, I’ve got some good news for you. We recently learned that Canon 861§2 reads, “Pastors of souls, especially parish priests, are to be diligent in ensuring that Christ’s faithful are taught the correct way to baptize.” I will now fulfill that responsibility.

Baptism is validly conferred by the minister (1) saying, “(the name of the one to baptized), I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” and (2) simultaneously pouring water over the head of the person three times (once while saying “Father”, once while saying “Son” and once while saying, “Holy Spirit.”) There you go, now you know how to baptize and I have fulfilled Fr. Kevin and my responsibility. I pray that if you are given the opportunity to baptize that you would fulfill this weighty responsibility.

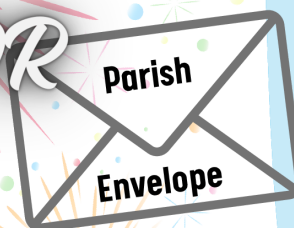

In Christ,
Fr. Fritz Schlueter
