“Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us.

We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each others relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

It becomes our road map to Heaven.

Let’s help each other get there!

Dear Parishioners,

If you haven't heard, I won't be with you for June and July. Our Bishop has asked me to earn a Canon Law degree. Thus for the next 4 summers I'll be at the Catholic University of America in Washington D.C. for the months of June and July.

I'd like to be able to tell you that I am unhappy to do this, but I'm embarrassed to admit that I am excited for these next two months. I'm excited to study this topic for which I don't have much of an appreciation. I hope that the regular schedule of classes will aid me in establishing healthier habits with my phone, and rest, and eating, and prayer. I'm excited to participate in liturgy at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

I'm excited to be in D.C. as the United States turns 250 years. I'm excited to see family who live out that way. I plan on writing you all a letter once a week in order to keep you updated on my experience, and I look forward to returning to all of you in August.

Hopefully I will be holier, smarter, and full of greater zeal for serving you.

Please pray for me as I pray for you.

In Christ,
Fr. Fritz Schlueter
