I've Never Picked Up A Bible. Is This A Study?

No, this is FAITH SHARING of thoughts on the readings. There are no right or wrong answers. You will not have to answer every question, there is no pressure to participate.

You are encouraged to use a Bible or let us know if you need one and we will give it you!

How Will This Help Me During Lent?

Help deepen one's personal relationship with God through Scripture

Provide new insights into the Sunday readings through the discussions, commentaries, and sharing with others

There is much talk about taking the Church back to its roots.

After Christ died and rose again, His disciples met in small groups. They retold the parables Jesus taught them.

They were Disciples on the Journey. That is exactly what we are doing when we meet in small groups. They were not Biblical scholars, they were just like us.

They were continuing their relationship with Jesus Christ!
And so, we invite you to do the same!

Disciples on the Journey

What To Expect Each Week:

- Reading of the next Sunday's Scriptures
- Questions that help us discuss and share our faith
- Getting to know others

FRATELLI TUTTI

In his third encyclical, Fratelli Tutti (“All Brothers”), Pope Francis reflects on a topic of great importance: human solidarity and friendship. Pope Francis first greeted the world with the words fratelli e sorelle “brothers and sisters” following his election to the papacy. In this encyclical, he continues to address all men and women as his brothers and sisters, calling us to consider what our common brotherhood requires of us.

Fratelli Tutti is Pope Francis’

“cry from the heart” to all people of the earth to see beyond our differences and begin to grow together to build a new and peaceful world.

We have printed the book through the Vatican Website
And have copies available as our Lenten Book choice.

It is suggested to read it by taking your time.
Do not try to read more than a chapter in one sitting.
Give the text time to marinate.
Each chapter takes time to digest.
