we are unable to inquire.*

God took the fragrance
of a flower...

The majesty of a tree...

The gentleness of morning dew...

The calm of a quiet sea...

The beauty
of the twilight hour...

The soul
of a starry night...

The laughter of a
rippling brook...

The grace of a bird
in flight...

Then God fashioned
from these things

A creation like no other,

And when his masterpiece was through

He called it simply - Mother.

~Herbert Farnham

GRIEF SHARE NEWS:
For Tuesday, May 10th

We will talk about moving forward and why peace and pain will always coexist.

Join us this Tuesday, 12:00 to 2:00pm Parish House

Bless O Lord
all mothers of a family those with or without children who mother us all.

May your hands of grace be upon them
touching their hearts with love, peace
and encouragement.

Lead them Lord with your light.
We pray they gain favor in Your sight.

May You be their pillar
of strength
as they overcome all hurdles
in life's length.
Amen.

From Me to You.... "And Mary held all these things in her heart" scripture tells us.

When Jesus was lost for three days while the family traveled back from Passover in Jerusalem, Mary and Joseph were frantic. They finally find him in the Temple, teaching in His Father's name. I'm sure Mary's friends questioned her, wondering how they would discipline such an act of deliberate disobedience from their son. Can you imagine? It's not like Mary could say, well, he IS the Son of God, you know. THAT would go over real well with her peers, no doubt.

Mothers hold many worries, fears, and concerns in their heart for their children. The "what ifs, whens, whys" can overpower a Mom with anxiousness.

I remember that with my first baby I panicked bringing her home. What was I supposed to do and what if I mess up? Mess up I did indeed, numerous times. Endless calls those first few years to my Mom..."Alexa put the dirty end of the kitty scooper in her mouth....",

"Her diaper exploded across the hall and hit the bookcase..." and many years later telling my Mom who was then in heaven, "someone broke her heart..."

No matter if you are a Mom, an Aunt, a Sister or a best friend, caring for someone and being there through the difficult and joyous times of someone's life is being a Mom to them. How many Hail Mary's pass over lips and into hearts. Countless.

Here is a thank you to EVERY WOMAN who cares deeply, loves selflessly and guides with wisdom.
Happy Mother's Day!
