 Special Intentions

Acceptance...

Doesn't mean giving in or giving up.

It means giving yourself completely

to God's plan
 for your life,

Trusting that HE Always wants

What's best for you,

And will help you meet

every challenge

With courage

For surely I know
 the plans I have for you,

says the Lord,
 plans for your welfare

and not for harm, to give you a

future with home

~ Jeremiah 29:11

From Me to You....

Last week my middle daughter Olivia came home for a few days visit! Liv has always been fascinated with science, history and agriculture. So it was no surprise that out of the million TV channels, both cable and streamed, she would come across a series of shows combining all of her interests. Together we binge watched War Time Farm, Tudor Monastery Farm and Victorian Farm.

Two Archeology Professors and a Domestic Historian spend a year on each of these historical farms in England recreating those time periods only using the equipment of that day to solve the challenges of the farmland, tend the animals and do all the chores needed to physically and financially survive. It is fascinating! I know I never would have made it living in those times. I most definitely would have been voted off the farm!

Thinking along those lines, where do we get the will to make it through difficult times? In each of the recreated farms no one worked alone, they reached out to others to find solutions, to weather the storms of life together.

Today in our world we find ourselves weary of 18 months plus of this virus that is relentless. Do you remember the Spring months of 2020 when it seemed we had a renewed sense of compassion for the other? We need to work our way back to that... to seeing God's presence in each other. We all need to help heal the divides. It seems like everything has become an Us and Them issue. Who wins when we set our minds like that? Evil wins. I pray that we make a change, one heart at a time to look at each other in love, and in the words of Gandhi, be the change we want to see in this world.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY October 24

The Annual Collection provides us with your gifts to the Pontifical Missions Society, who support and sustain priest, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, serve the poor and speak of our shared faith in all corners of the world. It also supports the Black and Indian Missions Office of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. At least 8 of our parishes and schools have received needed funding from this collection. World Mission Sunday also funds Catholic Home Missions. Many of our local evangelization efforts are supported historically in our diocese from these funds.
 Thank you for your generous support.
