From Me to You....

You meet this amazing person, Jesus Christ, and He says, pick up your cross and follow me. Wait, what? Sure I want to follow you...but I want a life free of worry, pain and suffering! Except this Cross thing...sorry, it just doesn't sound like a lot of fun.

Christ never promised us a bed of roses. The whole concept of turning your life over to this person who lived over 2000 years ago sounds crazy, doesn't it? If following Him means to go out of my comfort zone and think of other persons needs more than my own, um. No thanks. Its easier to keep to myself. That's asking a lot, isn't it? And yet. And yet there is a secret in the Cross. When we look beyond ourselves and make the effort to notice someone else's pain or bring a cup of coffee to a grieving friend...and be SILENT, then our Cross doesn't seem so heavy. Sure, sounds like a great idea, Pattie, however my schedule doesn't have a minute to spare. Oh, that's the beauty of it. Somehow, some way God multiplies our time so the minutes we spend helping another are given back to us tenfold. Even better, it brings such indescribable joy into your life.

The kind of Joy that helps lessen the weight of that cross. Truly, I promise it does.
