Alan Keyes, Ph.D.

special guest speaker

Alan Keyes has lived a life dedicated to defending, promoting, and fight for liberty. He holds a Ph.D. in government from Harvard and wrote his dissertation on constitutional theory. Keyes has run for elected office and has hosted very successful news shows. He is best known for thrusting the evil of abortion – which he considers our nation’s “greatest moral challenge” – into the national spotlight. During the Reagan years, he served as Assistant Secretary of State and as Ambassador to the United Nations.
