(Joe and Rosie Ruhl Student Community Center)

In partnership with Penn State Alumni Career Services and the Penn State York Alumni Society, we are hosting a “New Year” Special Event...

How to Optimize Networking by Building Stronger Relationships

Special guest, Cheryl Bonner, Director of Career Services at Penn State, will be sharing advice and resources for maximizing your networking opportunities.

Cheryl Bonner is a career services professional with over 25 years' experience as a career program director and counselor, working in various higher education settings including private and public universities and community colleges. She is currently the director of Alumni Career Services at Penn State, supporting the career and life management needs of all Penn Staters. Under her leadership, Penn State graduates are now offered a comprehensive array of career services including regional and virtual networking events and programs, seminars, webinars, individual career counseling and career coaching, an extensive job board, and many other resources that help them identify and achieve their career goals.

Start off the new year and resolve to meet new people, learn about their experiences, and build connections that will help you grow as an individual and professional.
