

LADY DA FLAME

BIO

INTERNATIONAL RECORDING ARTIST

People often say, "Big things come in small packages." Few artists embody that more than Lady Da Flame (Marjorie Reid). A powerhouse Jamaican-American vocalist, DJ, songwriter, composer, and performer, Lady Da Flame has earned a reputation for delivering unforgettable performances that transcend genres while inspiring audiences worldwide.

EARLY ROOTS & VERSATILITY

Born and raised in Washington, D.C., with proud Jamaican heritage, Lady Da Flame brings together the best of both worlds: the raw, authentic energy of reggae and the soulful influences of gospel, R&B, hip-hop, and electronic music. Her versatility allows her to seamlessly transition between cultural stages and musical spaces, making her one of the most adaptable and impactful performers in the industry.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS & AWARDS

Lady Da Flame's career is shining bright. As her hard work continues to manifest, the songstress takes pride in her accomplishments. Notably, she has shared stages with what reads like a who's who of gospel and reggae music, including Shirley Caesar, Beres Hammond, Marcia Griffiths, Capleton, Beenie Man, Bounty Killer, Richie Stephens, Lady Saw, Baby Cham, Mikey Spice, Khago, Sizzla, Spice, Wayne Wonder, Spragga Benz and more.

THE LOVERS ROCK ERA

In February 2024, Lady Da Flame released her acclaimed "Lovers Rock" EP, showcasing her versatility and ability to connect deeply through soulful reggae ballads. The project included a heartfelt tribute to reggae icon Phyllis Dillon, with the accompanying music video resonating strongly with audiences. The "Lady Flame Presents Phyllis Dillon Medley" went on to chart at #1 for five consecutive weeks, a major milestone that highlighted Lady Da Flame's growing impact in the Lovers Rock arena.

SOUND SYSTEM CULTURE & INTERNATIONAL REACH

In addition to her recording career, Lady Da Flame is highly respected in sound system culture, with hundreds of dubplates circulating across the international reggae scene. Her voice has become cultural currency for selectors worldwide, with standout dub renditions including:

- Adele's "Hello"
- Rihanna's "Wild Thoughts"
- Electrifying cover of "Goodness of God" - Vybz Kartel's Freedom Street Concert (December 31, 2024)

These dub performances have only strengthened her influence in reggae's grassroots and global communities alike.
