Director's Message: Greetings to all:

The holiday season is only weeks away, it's time to wish all a happy and joyous season.

Kathryn and I just returned from participating in the National Driving Tour hosted by the Valley Forge Region CLC in Gettysburg PA. from Oct. 21st-27th, extending our stay thru The 31st to visit relatives. We had a great time, made new friends and learned as much as possible from our first driving tour experience. We are looking forward to sharing all that we learned from our first driving tour experience.

Be sure to mark your calendar on Dec. 8th for the Mt Hood Region

Christmas Celebration Dinner to be held at Saylor's Old Country Kitchen. Please see our Website at mthoodregionclc.com for complete details

Best wishes to all during the upcoming holiday season.

Greg Duthie
Director: MTRCLC

The Newsletter need to be emailed to members. Thank you Laurie our Club is 100% compliant. Patty Schick continues to make progress. McCauleys had dinner with Patti and Larry Schick. Both of them are looking forward to get back to Club activities.

Our Club had a successful dry run to Lincoln City. Also included were the Evergreen Aviation Museum, wine tasting at the Willamette Valley Wineries, lunch at the Pura Vida and Ramblas Restaurants. Also there were several scenic drives to include the Yamhill Winery situated at the top of a hill. It has a fantastic view. The group spent 2 nights at the Chinook Winds Hotel and Casino.

There will be a 2020 Driving Tour meeting at McCauley's on Sunday 10/17 at 12:00 noon. It would be a pot luck lunch. The committee members will be discussing website access, lodgings and new contracts, sponsorships, and volunteer appeals including Astoria. Jodie Wojnowski volunteered to do the 50/50. Mona will talk about some information about menu selection and opening and closing activities in the November meeting.

A letter to the Self-Starter including Registration needs to be sent for Dec-January. Also the Club needs to send a letter to the Self Starter regarding advertising the 2020 National Driving Tour to be published starting March going forward.

Swap Meet.

The Club needs to have a person in charge of organizing the Swap meet participation. It will take place the first weekend in April 2020. Members need to donate items to sell. Two years ago the Club's participation in the Swap meet was successful. Johnny might have some items. We need to have a volunteer schedule. It should be put on the website or emailed to members individually in the early part of November. We need to put together a volunteer signup sheet. It should have 4 shifts. Keith is of the opinion that the shifts should be 4 hours max per person. Tentative schedule would be:

Thursday we move in.
Friday 7am to 7pm
Saturday 7am to 5pm
Sunday 8am to 1pm

Grill Badges

We need to put a picture on the Newsletter and the Self Starter advertising the Grill Badges for sale. There are $36 +bubble wrap and mailing. The price will be $40 for outsiders. They could be delivered at the Christmas dinner.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm.

*Respectfully Submitted,
Rocio Baunsgard, Secretary*
