

A Pastor has many responsibilities and it is astonishing that they can continue to perform day after day after day.

Beginning with their faith and love for our Lord and Savior and with a willingness to give up their time when they are called to help, heal and save those in need.

There are many hats that a Pastor must wear while also being a husband, a father and a friend to others while managing their own life. He must be a leader and be able to pray and deliver what he wants to say and teach. He must be an interpreter, a counselor, a comforter, a manager, a director, an administrator, an accountant, an organizer, a guardian, a protector, a scheduler, a creator, a researcher, a communicator and an officiator for weddings, funerals, events and more.

The Pastor I have is also soft spoken, thankful, caring, loving, sensitive, considerate, knowledgeable, quick witted, seasoned and experienced and I think he has a gift from God to be able to perform like he does.

I pray and send blessings to all the Pastors who are doing our Lord and Saviors' work including my own Pastor and ask the Holy Spirit to convey this to all who may come in contact with them and to then protect everyone from the enemy. I ask all who read this and are in agreement to join in this prayer with me and as per Mathew 18:19 "it shall be done." Amen.
