

ARNOLD: I just want to know why...why me? Did I wear a sign the first day of school that said, "Hi, I'm a punching bag?" I've never done anything to anyone. I just want to go about my business. I want get to my classes without be hit, tripped or sent for a swirl, I want to get my books without being shoved into the locker. I want to get from my locker to the bus without having obscenities shouted at me and I would like to just once ride the bus without being pelted with food and garbage. And not being lit on fire would be nice too.
