HOW ARE YOUR LEVELS?

ARE YOUR FRUITS IDENTIFIABLE?

But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

How's Your Levels And Are They Recognizable

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

The climate in our world today is that of a pressure cooker. Where the level is intensely high on the verge of exploding. Where no one clearly knows the aftermath to come. Whether it's total devastation or salvageable either way it's dangerous and we should be concerned.

We have political and social unrest across the board where the stress levels are extreme. How did we become this way by being preoccupied by the distractions of our disobedience and consumed by many lies? When the truth is clear and presence. Therefore, we are misaligned gravely from the principles of God and deception has been allowed to consume an audience with false cries of many untruths and treats.

It is also clear that mankind has failed in following basic instructions and has been deceived to consider even those things in which the scriptures have forecast due to their ignorance to the Word of God because they do not study. Proving that there is a lack of enlightenment. For those who do take the opportunity to study the illumination of the Word of God which is very revealing and greatly understood. We can match the living Word of God within the confirmation of the news as it unfolds daily.

Therefore, the remnant that chooses to study are like the five wise virgin who have oil to trim their lamps and can go out to meet the bridegroom when he approaches. It's time to ask ourselves which set of five are we, wise or foolish? The foolish are unprepared for the anticipated arrival, everyone has been told that He is coming.

In the meantime, how are your levels in preparation of His return? Are they at the capacity of readiness and clearly understood? Or are you clearly baffled by the question before you now with regards to your preparedness? Are you existing in a state of ignorance and have you fallen into a reprobate mindset? These are all relevant questions and because we are in a period of grace and mercy, we have been granted the opportunity for self-evaluation. A small window of time to change our no into a definite answer of yes. Our ignorance into understanding and clearly seeing and embracing the love that has provided this opportunity to come out of darkness into His mighty light.

Understanding that we have been caught up in believing that our demonstrated behaviors and it is perfectly evident what the old nature does. It expresses itself in sexual immorality, impurity and indecency; involvement with the occult and with drugs; in feuding, fighting, becoming jealous and getting angry; in selfish ambition, factionalism, intrigue and envy; in drunkenness, orgies and things like these. Which we have been warned of now and before: those who do such things will have no share in the Kingdom of God!

This is found in the scriptures in Galatians (Gal) 5:19-21 spelled out clearly to see, understand and repent, moving away from such behaviors.

Replacing them with the desired attributes the fruits of the spirits which are demonstrated by love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility, self-control. Nothing in the Word of God stands against such things.

Galatians (Gal) 5:22-23

The scriptures go on to tell us further in Galatians (Gal) 5:25-26

If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

This is an expectation that should be demonstrated that others may see the attributes of Christ in our life's and want to glorify God because of their presence. Replacing them with the desired attributes the fruits of the spirits which are demonstrated by love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility, self-control. HOW ARE YOUR LEVELS?

a position on a real (or imaginary) scale of amount, quantity, extent, or quality:

If one doesn't display any of the fruits of the Spirit, I question the level of God's Spirit within. First, without love, no matter who you are, or no matter how many gifts you have, it will profit you nothing.

I Corinthians 13:1-3 says, "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

² And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

³ And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing."

Love is the greatest fruit of the Spirit and will cause one to surrender to what you love and to what you think most highly of. It is impossible to have the Love of God and not possess the Fruits of His Spirit.

These are the fruits of the Spirit.

It takes time to consistently yield to the nature of The Holy Spirit, therefore, some feel if they complete an act or "work," then their salvation is secure and that this completes the work of the Holy Spirit.

Some put value on how well a person can speak or sing or carry their gift and believe that is the anointing or the "oil." They may declare a person's level of anointing lies within how effectively they promote their gift. Well, while this may have some validity it is also dangerous to gauge a person's spirituality by how well they display or perform their gifts. Which brings me to my next observation.

It concerns me today to see so many professed “Christians,” yet many of them have not overcome worldly desires and behaviors. Although they may love the Lord, and perform well, they lack moral and ethical behaviors indicative that they are filled with God’s Spirit, the Holy Ghost! So, although their gift(s) may be thriving and flourishing, their spirit isn’t and then they are in danger of not only a natural death but a spiritual death. Although “levels” include quality, it also includes substance and duration. Recently, someone asked how can a person who proclaims salvation, one who has the holy spirit, become demon filled? My response to them was that according to Matthew 12:45 if a person’s spirit has been cleaned, (saved) but they have not fully converted, or surrendered to the will of God, this leaves a “door, or “an avenue for the enemy to enter and when he does, he brings seven more spirits with him so that the individual will never be free. This is also applicable to all those who hear the word of God, and are in part reformed, but not truly converted.

The unclean spirit leaves for a time, but when he returns, he finds Christ is not there to shut him out; Hence the story of Mary Magdalene one who was possessed with seven spirits, indicating strong demons of whom was expecting to bind her eternally. But we thank God who triumphs over us and gives us the victory! Seven was a favorite number with the Jews and was used to denote "completeness" or "perfection," or any "finished" or "complete" number. Seven also denotes a large but indefinite number.

The danger in validating a person according to their gift or according to what they outwardly show, is dangerous because although they may be gifted, they also may not have totally surrendered their life to Christ, which leaves an opportunity for possession of their spirit by the enemy.

Therefore, I ask, how are your levels? How are your levels within yourself and with God? Have you totally surrendered your will for His? Have you totally given your life to Him for the salvation of your soul and for the edification of the church? Are you totally filled and governed by God's Holy Spirit?

Check your levels, do you have enough to keep you from yielding to sin? The decisions you make when they are right and acceptable with God, will edify God and will show the fruits of His Spirit, which edifies the church, the body of Christ!

May God Bless You All!

“Your body is NOT your own”

Sgt. Nate Griffin

For the month of September, let's look at some of the health-related issues surrounding us today and work on optimizing our health to best of our ability, so that we may be better equipped and healthy enough to go out into all the world with the good news of the Gospel.

What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? I Corinthians 6:19

Fitness Tips

It's been recommended that you only need about 3 days of 30 minutes workouts per week to receive health related benefit. This is however, contingent upon the intensity of the routines. Seek a professional fitness instructor for the best workouts for your specific goal.

Health Tips

Sleep is grossly underrated in this do-it-now-get-your-grind-on generation. The truth of the matter is this. Your body grows, heals and rebuilds and reboot during this time. Your Hormones and immune system are rejuvenated as well. So, if you wanted to really see the results of your workouts. Get some sleep.

Nutrition Tips

Diets Don't Work! Learning to make healthy selections when it comes to meals and sticking with one that is sustainable better your chances of success. You may need to consult to the services of a Registered Dietician for additional support and recommendations. It is not a one-size-fits-all type of thing.

Warning Signs

STROKE: Weakness, trouble walking, sudden loss of balance, sudden loss of vision, dizziness, a severe headache, fatigue, loss of swallowing reflex, loss of sensation (hearing, taste, smell), and heart palpitations. Should you witness these signs occurring in someone immediately call 911 and run this quick test. Think... F.A.S.T.

F: face dropping,

A: arm weakness,

C: speech difficulty,

T: time to call 911.

Ask Your Doctor

If you are a 20 years old woman, these are the recommendation test and exams for you to consult with your doctor.

- Blood pressure
- Cholesterol screening
- Diabetes screening
- Dental exam
- Eye exam
- Immunizations
- Breast cancer screening
- Infectious disease screening
- Cervical cancer screening
- Mental health/substance abuse consultation
- Self-skin care exam
- Physical exam

If you are a 20 years old male, these are the recommended test and exams for you to consult with your doctor.

- Blood pressure
- Cholesterol screening
- Diabetes screening
- Dental exam
- Eye exam
- Immunizations
- Infectious disease screening
- Physical exam
- Mental health/substance abuse consultation
- Testicular exam

This Month's Awareness

September is National Sickle Cell Anemia and Prostate/Ovarian Cancer awareness month. This would be a good time to schedule your appropriate exams and studies. Stay far ahead of the curve. It's your health. Make time for health or make time for healing.

Workout of the Month: Sit and stand. This is a very simple routine to do. It will build strength in your hip and legs, which can grow weak as you age. Falls is the leading cause of death in older people. Not so much because of the fall itself. But, due to fractured hips and the lengthy recovery. Patients tend give up on the will to live and basically, waste away. Make a game of it. Complete 3 to 4 sets of 10 repetitions.

A WONDERFUL BIRTHDAY

I wonder if there's mention in heaven of our earthly birth?

Or are our spiritual beginnings, the only importance of our worth?

Sometimes we continue to say, "Happy Birthday" to loved ones who are gone, but is this a futile thing, once they're with the Lord?

Until we know the answer to this harmless riddle,
I guess we'll continue to send Birthday Greetings,
although they may be silly

What amazes me most is the wonder of our birth,
How God spoke of our entry before we entered earth,

And that one day while I'm here, I'll be Born
Again,

Then Heavenly Angels and Earthly man can both proclaim, Happy Wonderful Birthday!

Thank You Jesus!
Your Daughter, Diane Harvell

Observation, Focus and Acknowledgement

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

It's sad and ashamed that our nation has fallen into a reprobate mindset and is so divided that even visual proof of wrong doing is not seen as truth. It's troubling that commonsense and spiritual sense is not even impactful. Our nation has let political fights become what they claim to fear on the nation's street with the Crips and Bloods using the same colors and rival tactics with in our government halls failing to truly care for all people as we should rather than the select few. Failing to focus on the principles of God which should be at the forefront.

We are in a spiritual battle which we are blind to and the tactic which is divide and conquer and it appears that everyone is racing to that finish line. We don't have to worry about foreign entity as much because they recognize we have internal turmoil where we are on the verge of imploding on ourselves, in self-destruction. The Bible is true and the Word of God doesn't return back void as stated in Luke 11:17 But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against an house falleth.

Our nation is escalating for a fall lest we truly open our eyes to the principles of God. History has demonstrated that once prominent nations who failed to adhere to the principles of God now fail to exist. When this nation was formed it was started on "In God we Trust" over century and decades because of the desires by the words proclaimed. Events have happened to align this nation to the principles of God as well as the true definition of our stated creed in God eyes because the document was an expressed desire. Even if the initial behavior wasn't completely reflective of what was written. Changes were instituted that has on the path to getting there.

If we continue on the path that we as a nation are traveling without repentance for our apparent complacency and lack of attention to the signs of the times. Especially when we condone one's contrary behavior over another equally detrimental behaviors that too don't line up with the principles of God. We are going to make ourselves the example of what becomes of a nation who defy the Principles of God in this century. Really let's not fool ourselves with the antics that politics bring to the surface because it has truly become non-effective and counterproductive to that which is truly needed to take place.

What we are dealing with is more dangerous than most realizes, so it is imperative that we wake up. Go back to doing our required first works and that is loving our neighbors as ourselves. Help others through difficult times. Truly watch as well as prayer so we can remain in line with the principles of God. Most importantly study to show thyself approved a workman that need not be ashamed but rightly dividing the Word of God of truth.

Acknowledging our individual areas of opportunity with in ourselves becoming more accountable for our actions changes the atmosphere around us. It is easy to point the finger at others, but not ourselves. You will have to meditate on that one for a few and take a hard assessment and review. You might uncover different outcomes more favorable. When we truly do that, we find ourselves establishing a greater alignment with the principles of God and demonstrating integrity. That overrides any social politics which this day has a narrow avenue for compromise.

Rachael Voss

My Story:

Rachael Voss

For years I felt stuck in my job as a Recruiter. I liked helping people find a job that suited them, and it was not enough. I craved more. I wanted to have an even greater impact – though I had no clue how. I had no way out, no way to pay my bills while also pursuing what I truly desired: working, on a deep level, to help people break through negative beliefs and the barriers holding them back.

I had previously been introduced to various alternative medicines. My first introduction was the most personal. In 2003 when my mother had surgery to remove an ovarian cyst the doctors found stage three cancer. They told her she had four years to live. My parents pursued conventional chemotherapy, which my mom favored, though my father explored – and introduced us to – numerous types of alternative medicines.

My mother died in 2007. In the end progress my mom experienced from alternative interventions could not hold. Chemo had destroyed her stomach. She lived four years after the diagnosis – exactly as long as the doctors told her she would. This confirmed for me the power of one's mindset!

In 2017 I worked with a therapist who taught me that we are made up of energy and we give off certain vibrations. This sparked my interest, I wanted to know what I could do to increase my vibration, which led me to Binaural Beats. Nine months later, in 2018, I became a Certified Level II Reiki Practitioner. Within two months I was researching organic skin care and became a consultant with Neal's Yard Remedies. These powerful modalities were steppingstones to where I was going.

In March 2020 I was laid off from my job due to Covid... a blessing in disguise. At that moment life seemed to come at me non-stop: weeks before I was laid off my best friend died, there was family trauma, children starting to homeschool during Covid times and house hunting. My life felt unmanageable. In November 2020 I had started praying for clarity; clarity on how to utilize my deep desire to help others while serving my Higher Power. I started a Neuro Linguistic Programming course that fall, but it was put on hold when my aunt died. The week I returned from her funeral my son was in the hospital for HSP, a rare inflammatory disease. During his stay in the hospital my grandfather died, and a few days later I had a miscarriage. Life was throwing things at me left and right.

The recovery from my miscarriage was painful—some days I could barely move around the house. I was starting a charity organization for mothers going through a miscarriage when the words, "The Emotion Code" popped into my head, clear as day. Was this a book I had heard about? I looked it up, found it and bought it. Apparently, I had been told about it during a phone call with someone who had provided meals for my family after my aunt's death. When I started reading the book, I learned how unprocessed emotions become Trapped Emotions. I also learned how these trapped emotions can be released. This filled me with excitement – it spoke to my soul! It truly felt like the answer to my prayers, and I knew this was what I was meant to be doing. I signed up for the course immediately and LOVED doing the work with all my volunteers. I became a Certified Emotion Code Practitioner.

Through the Emotion Code, I learned of Dr. Bradley Nelson's second major modality: The Body Code, a patented energy balancing system, intended to help uncover root causes of discomfort, sickness, and suffering in mind/body/spirit. I knew I needed to be able to offer this as well and I soon became a Certified Body Code Practitioner.

My passion and desire to help others has become my own practice: Release & Realign Wellness LLC. I am grateful and excited to work in partnership with you.

How The Emotion Code & Body Code has Impacted Me:

Before The Emotion Code and The Body Code, I was not the mom I thought I would be. I was easily triggered, feeling unheard, overwhelmed, and needing to control. Which led to anger. Which led to EXTREME anger. And lots of yelling. I felt defeated time and time again.

In April 2021, I started working on myself with the Emotion Code – I was able to identify unprocessed trapped emotions of which I was not even aware I had: betrayal, abandonment, love unreceived, taken for granted, lack of control, fear, anxiety, worthlessness, and resentment all came up often. Sometimes after identifying the emotion, it was necessary for my conscious mind to know more, such as; age of occurrence and who it was in relation to. I found that many of these trapped emotions occurred due to trauma from just nineteen months through age seven. I now have clarity regarding my childhood trauma, when before I was in the dark. I had blocked it all out.

Doing The Body Code work on myself, I have been able to release Physical-Emotional Shock over 80 times. Each time it showed up in a session was one time I hadn't processed this type of shock – each time it became trapped within. I uncovered that I had unhealthy wills and negative statements in my Subconscious such as:

- “A will to please others” from nineteen months
- “A will to die and avoid connection” from nineteen months

- “No will to love self” from nineteen months
- “People want to hurt me” from age two
- “I am stuck” from age five
- “No will to be vulnerable/open” from age five

“I am not good enough”

As a non-verbal baby, I just went into my head – the only place I was able to go. My discoveries have helped me to understand why as an adult I would get so upset, shut down, build up walls and get stuck. I now understand why it was so hard for me to share my feelings. Now when I get upset, I can readily acknowledge my feelings and, instead of shutting down with my husband, I communicate sooner than I ever was able to before.

In doing the work on myself and releasing all that was not processed, I am finding that I am showing up to life in alignment with the person I desire to be. I am more present for my children! Instead of getting upset when they are not listening to me, I can work on understanding what’s going on with them.

I am no longer consumed by anger. My kids tell me I am so much nicer! I am not overwhelmed with daily tasks around the house. I am finding that I have more energy even though I sometimes get less sleep! I am setting healthier boundaries.

If you are a mother interested in energy healing, with children still at home:

- Who often gets triggered by your children or spouse, and you desire to be present with them
- Who feels stuck in your personal life or your career and you are ready to break through what is holding you back

Who feels as if you are not enough; struggles with loving yourself or doing selfcare; desires to finally love and accept yourself just as you are

If you are a mother looking for alternative help for your child, who:

- Has been labeled with a learning disability

Has been affected by trauma

- ...I would love to be in partnership with you and or your child.

I am here for you. I am on the other side, reaching out my hand, sharing my experience, hope and strength. I am here to walk with you, to assist you in the possibility of realigning with the person you are meant to be. hard for me to share my feelings. Individual Power and Responsibility

Let us keep it real. The term or phrase of "Individual Power and Responsibility" right phrase for now but we have to apply it to the correct reason. We have to put our understanding and reasoning above and over everything that the worldwide leadership is focused on and look at the one key fact that has to be addressed and that is our Individual Power and Responsibility to align ourselves with the principles of God. When the Word of God is factual with what has to be done to fix all issue. The created has become oblivious to the fact that the creator is still present and His principles are what truly set the tone of what happens in the earth. We are proving the Word of God daily with regards to what the scriptures have already proclaimed. 1 Corinthians the very first chapter lays out exactly what we are doing today in and out of the church yet mankind continues to push his own agenda as though he possesses the remedy to that which is hindering mankind on every level. In this passage of scriptures, it is proclaimed "but God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty...1 Corinthians 1:27 KJV. You can read the same thing in any version of Word of God it states the same sentiment of what is wrong with mankind.

Believe it or not we are currently in a place of judgement. Just like a parent should be with their child. We have to do what is necessary to change the disobedient behavior to bring that child back into alignment with the principles and standards for our home, so than it is for mankind with the principles of God. We as the created cannot run over or dismiss the authority of God as if His Will does not matter.

Even in the situations we find ourselves in today the Word of God provides the antidote to fix the poisons that have been applied to mankind that we should not perish without hope. Proverbs recognized as the book of wisdom explains within the 24 Chapter what we should consider even during these time in which we find ourselves even after all the things we have already faced. God always has a way of escape even for His children who are diligent in seeking Him for guidance towards the right direct so we don't misstep and fall into temptation and make a costly decision that can even do harm to a generation.

These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. Proverbs 24:23 KJV.

Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Isaiah 55:6 KJV

Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger. Zephaniah 2:3 KJV

The issue is also there are a lot of distractions and misinformation which aid in creating an abundance of chaos and confusion leaving an overwhelming number of scars mental, spiritual and physical. Simply because even though the answers and remedies are available to us, the Word of God provided for mankind is only considered as a last result. Rather than studying as instructed to avoid the constant circumstances and situation we find ourselves in daily. We continue to react to life rather than responding in a favorable manner because we haven't done our due diligence as we should have. So, the outcomes are on us due to disobedience and the cliques apply to our behavior. God's promises come with our obedience to His Word and His principles and this fact will never change.
