Have You Not Awakened Yet?

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

Words and actions have consequences and eventually all of that will catch up to you. When we are given the opportunity to show and share care and compassion for another and we refuse by demonstrating the opposite. In doing that you increase hardship rather than relief, with words of rhetoric that disrespects, ridicule and belittles those seeking refuge. Then you scatter and separate creating more confusion because you now show respect of person. How does that demonstrate the attributes of Jesus Christ. Have you not understood that God sees, hears and remembers? Have you not studied the Word of God which has instructed us on how we should treat one another. Furthermore Romans 12:9-10 KJV

[9] Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. [10] Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another.

What is now taking place upon the land is the answers to our actions that were clearly not aligned with God's Word and principles. If we had studied, we would understand that God's word will not return unto Him void. We can't overstep our authority for we are not God, we are provided positions to fulfill His will. So, when we violate our assignment and His trust, we receive His Word in full strength. Deuteronomy 32:35! I prefer to use the Hebrew translation which I feel provides a clearer understanding.

D'varim (Deuteronomy) 32:35, 36 CJB

[35] Vengeance and payback are mine for the time when their foot slips; for the day of their calamity is coming soon, their doom is rushing upon them.

[36] "Yes, Adonai (God) will judge his people, taking pity on his servants, when he sees that their strength is gone, that no one is left, slave or free.

We as a nation must be careful who we allow to occupy seats of decision making and authority especially when they are coming from a singular and self-gratification mindset with no others in mind, lacking the knowledge of understanding the needs of those to whom they should be serving. That is the meaning of public service. Many of today's politicians have lost that understanding, therefore this is why it has become difficult to serve the people equally.

Now let me further enlighten you with a deeper understanding. In certain parts of this nation, they are experiencing the effects of Deuteronomy 32:35 because humility and repentance hasn't been applied. However, more political rhetoric has been spoken and directed towards God's people. As you consider what I'm stating go back and read again Deuteronomy 32:35,36, reminding yourself of what has taken place over the last decade what's been said and done as well as where it has taken place. God will respond to our behaviors when we don't heed to His warning and choose the side that does not align with His principles, His Word, His will and His way. If you still doubt what I'm saying as a voice of reasoning continue to watch and learn from these difficult situations. Hopefully you will understand that the only way out is by repentance rather pushing an agenda that is contrary to His Word. For the future study God's Word so you understand what He requires of you and with this knowledge you will not align yourself with areas within life that doesn't fulfill His purpose for your life.

Don't allow yourself to be deceived and destroyed finding yourself standing in judgement giving an account for your alignment and actions. Missing the promises that would have been yours in eternity. Understand that the climate is a dangerous ticking time bomb of greater confusion. Run into your prayer closet (your Ark) and align yourself with God and His Word. Be not conformed to this world (political rhetoric) but be ye transform by the renewing of your mind (through the Word of God). This is a wake-up urgent call, cry aloud.

Have You Ever Questioned Yourself

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

Have you ever questioned yourself to find out why it is more important for you as an individual to have to be a part of the so-called crowd in everything you do? Especially when it goes against the principles of God, all commonsense factors, when you can literally see the wrong in the behavior, action or statements. Why is it when someone tells you what their intent is, and it will destroy and bring devastation to everything you have accomplished and achieved? You still support and follow them to destruction? Just to be in the so-called in crowd and considered popular to the point that you disrespect yourself? You see and hear it yourself, being ridiculed by your standards, your culture and race, because theirs is an agenda that only benefits the person who is putting all the nonsense and double talk out there. How is it that you can fall and cling to the spirit of Barraba's and be deceived on every important front of your life and lose everything? Don't you have sense enough to run into the Ark before the rain starts? When we align ourselves with someone who does not align themselves nor walks in the principles of God, nor has a true relationship with Him as defined within the Holy scriptures. You have defiled yourself and you must get back in alignment with God. He instructed us to study, and because you have not done so properly you will follow anything. The scriptures tell us that God's Word will not return unto Him void. He has already set in order within the atmosphere what will take place upon one for misbehavior without repentance and it will manifest itself within one's life for that reason. Wake up to God's reality and wipe away and clean up the slug that covers your eyes, so you can see what God is consistently showing you. Stop following those living and operating contrary to God's Word refrain from the lukewarm lifestyle it is distasteful to Him. Taking this opportunity to cry loud and spare not as I have been led to do. Get as close to God as you can because there is safety there. Tune into His voice so the stranger you will not follow. Run back and open the scriptures to the instructions that were provided for you to live by. Because it's hard to get someone off track who applies themselves to studying and listens to the voice of true and living God. The real I AM that I AM and not a man-made version. Please understand that warning comes before destruction. The signal is ringing to warn you the train of destruction is coming down the track this is the safety bar, do not ignore and go around only to be stuck on the track and not have the sense to just leave everything and get out of harm's way in split second (God mercy and grace), you can't ponder (delay) in that split second or you will lay in waiting for judgement (death). This message is for all, myself included, for we each may have an area within our life where this may apply. It's time to examine ourselves, that day of Jesus' return is closer than we think. This is a Grace opportunity. I encourage you to share this with those you love and even with those you struggle to love. May God bless our wake up.

Judgement Draws Closer Every Day

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

It is concerning and clear just by the things which are occurring on a daily basis that we have failed to be obedient to God's Will and Way because we do not fully honor His principles nor the established covenants. It is also clear that we continue to manipulate His Word in spite of the warnings provided by His remnant which He has placed throughout all nations. That speak His truth not man's delusional understanding. Even though by the standards the elite are getting and sending out wrong messages that have strong consequences which they helped to create. The sad fact is judgments from God have already started being rendered but due to the fact that most have not studied the Word of God for themselves meaning set aside actual time to sit down and read for yourself is evident within the outcomes of daily living. Cause and effect is real and happening around us but our world and nations are blind and ignorant to the facts for a high level.

The Word of God states that His Word will not return unto Him void Isaiah 55:11, interesting chapter as well as book in the Bible. Hosea 4:6 "My people are destroyed due to the lack of knowledge; because thou have rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee... I invite you to finish reading for yourselves because you must get connected to God's Word.

Proverbs 16:18-19

[18] Pride goeth before destruction, And an haughty spirit before a fall. [19] Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

These are instructions provided for us throughout God's Word. We must further understand that these words are provided to keep us in alignment with God and not caught up in calamity of today's events and even political mayhem. Study the Word of God.

2 Thessalonians 2:3-5 KJV

[3] Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; [4] who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. [5] Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? Please don't stop here open the Bible and read on further. When we have a relationship with God he communicates well, and we understand the instructions

Isaiah 28:23 KJV

[23] Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech. When we as individuals stand in alignment and on the principles of God that is what we clearly follow, regardless of what man says or promises we look to God and He is never contrary to His Word. John 10:27-30 KJV

[27] My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: [28] and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. [29] My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. [30] I and my Father are one. Take off the political blinders and look to God for your answers. He is the most valuable relationship you need and His promises are not broken. In all your getting get an understanding.

You Are Never Alone!!!!

Written by Diane Simms

With Love and Pure Concern

Life is a precious gift, although it is full of hard knocks, trials, disappointments, and even trouble. Just remember how much GOD loves US, He promised to never leave or forsake You and Me! When we feel like we are broken, overwhelmed, feeling like an outcast and abandoned he promised to build us up and emphatically declares that when he builds you "thou shall be built"!

Jeremiah 31: 3-4 <sup>3</sup>The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. <sup>4</sup>Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

I get excited every time I read this scripture because of his everlasting love, his loving kindness, and his promise to draw us to himself and then build us up reassures me daily that we are not alone on this journey called life.

Believe the promises made by GOD to us all, lean and depend on those promises doubting nothing!! Isaiah 41:10 "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand".

Hebrews 13: 6 <sup>6</sup>So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. In this verse man means (the system of this world). Do not dwell on the situations and circumstances of the world, focus on our Lord and Savior Yeshua Hamashiach, Jesus Christ. Remember 2 Corinthians 1:20, which says, "For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us".

Psalms 116: 1-2 I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. <sup>2</sup>Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

If you call on him, he will answer you, if you have faith in him, he will move on your behalf, if you trust his promises they shall come to pass in your life. I'm not telling you something I heard, I have lived it, I would not trade my relationship with the Savior for anything this world could possibly offer me. I am a living, walking, breathing testimony of the awesome power and provision of GOD!

Remove doubt, remove fear, GOD is not a man, he will not, he cannot lie. Trust him with confidence. We serve an infallible GOD, he is not capable of failure. Believe on him with your whole heart. Proverbs 3: 5-6 <sup>5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. <sup>6</sup>In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

1 John 5:19-20 <sup>19</sup> And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. <sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

We are taught these things to have peace in the knowledge of GOD, to have confidence in his Word and declare it boldly. Be ye steadfast and unmovable always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor (your faith and trust) are not in vain.

Just checking in to remind You, He is right by Your side through it all, You are Never Alone!!!!

I cordially invite you to join with me for an in-depth Bible Studies, Prayer and Fellowship.

Thanks unto
The Lord!*

THE MESSAGE IS GOSPEL, THE METHOD IS MUSIC

By Sgt. Nate Griffin of Sgt. Nate Fitness LLC.

For the next few articles. I want to focus on a different approach to wellness, spiritual wellness. This will be through a review and expounding on the 10 tracks of my 1988 release, Give thanks unto the Lord.

Mental health is as equally important as physical and spiritual health. The total man must be considered when dealing with complete healing. If you were to ask 5 different people how they deal with stress, failures, triumphs, and disappointments. You may end up with 5 different answers. This is because we all have ways of coping with the un-expectancies of life. One method of managing life's constant changes, is through music. It could be secular or sacred. Music has a way of touching you to the core. It can stir up memories of old, enrage you of the injustices we face today, or elevate the soul to the very presence of the Father himself. Remember, it was young David who would eventually become king of Israel, who played the devil out of Saul. (I Samuel 16:14-23).

My desire as a songwriter for God, is to share with you all the songs He has given me in hopes that they will bring you the same encouragement, inspiration, direction, and comfort, that they have brought me down through the years.

Christ The Anointed One: This is the very first gospel song I wrote. It is based on the reading Jesus gave in the temple when he was handed the scrolls. The scriptures say he found the place where it was written (Lk 4:18). Musically, this song can be shared in almost any Sunday service as a source of comfort and reassurance following the morning message. It reminds us the ministry of Jesus, and how he was sent not to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. This song is a reminder that Jesus was not sent here to make us rich, popular, overseers of large congregations, or celebrities in our own rights. But to save the souls of men who would believe on him in their hearts.

Give Thanks unto The Lord: This is the title track. It has a little bit of a kick to it. It wanted to use this song to get people excited about giving God thanks for everything we encounter, good or not so good. For many, complaining comes easy. The they complain, the more things the find to complain about. But using a little tongue and cheek, I say in the song that God also has a need. So instead of always, give me won't you please. Just raise your hands, lift your voices, and give God the praise. Having the audience do a call and respond whenever I did this song in concert was incredible.

To Know Him: This is one of my favorite songs. Simply, because it a song of comfort and encouragement. I originally wrote it for one of the soloist at my church. But after working on it and hearing repeatedly, I soon kept it and recorded it. It's a song reminding us that during those times when it seems we are alone. We're not, for God is with us. For Jesus himself said he'd never leave us nor forsake, but be with us till the ends of the age.

Walkin In the Spirit: Romans 8:1 state, that there is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ, which walks not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. When I wrote this song as with all of the others. I wanted to be as scripturally accurate as possible. The word of God is clear about the standards of Holy living we must practice if we wish to dwell with the Father in eternity.

Precious Holy Spirit: Now this is an interesting song. First, I wrote in the flavor of evangelist Jimmy Swaggart. I've always loved his worship songs he played just before ministering. Second, this sing has a southern gospel flavor to it. Complete with the southern sounds of country music and the steel guitar. As a matter of fact, the studio where 8 of the 10 tracks were produced, where done in Rebecca, GA. What I love about this song is the invitation to enter your secret room and just lay before the Lord, especially when you don't know what to say. Once you've closed the door, raised your hands, and lift his name in praise. Let his precious Holy Spirit, meet you there and lead you when you pray. You will really love this one.

What A Mighty Good God We Serve: The lyrics to this song was taken from Psalms 96. It takes you through a list of things to consider as reasons for exclaiming how good God is. My favorite part is when I belt out, Honor and majesty are before him. Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. For thine is the Kingdom, the power and glory. Forever and ever, Lord we give you the praise.

Back To Calvary: The inspiration behind this song is a bit sour. It was during the time of the great fall among the Televangelist. Jimm Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, and a few others were exposed for the discretions. Then in my home church, at the time, there were several members who also fell from grace. As I thought on those accounts. I quickly stopped in my tracks and repented for being judgmental, and asked the Lord that, should the yearn in my heart no longer burn, and his words to me, s'like a sweet lovely song, and his will I find I no longer want to do. Lord, take me back to Calvary. I thing we all need to be reminded from time to time of not only his grace, but of his mercy.

With Loving Kindness: There are times in life, we feel unjustly treated. We may feel discouraged, disillusioned, depressed, and bitter with how our life is going. For many, this was enough to cause them to abandon their faith and return the world. Yet, with God's loving kindness he seeks to draw us back to him. He will see us through all of the rough patches if we just stay with him. God is aware of all of the heartaches and pain we experience in this life. Would you rather go through or face those turbulent time with him or without him.

Be Not Conformed: As a gospel entertainer (drama, music etc). Much can be done in the name of ministry. There is competition, lucrative offers of fame and fortune, prestige and material wealth. This song reminds us not to conform to the world dynamic and try to fit in as if this is our destiny. It can be difficult to avoid these tempting offers. What is worse is how many will use scripture to rationalize resembling so much like the world in the attempt to win the world. But what many may not talk about is, how many people are in the industry of gospel music, but are not in fellowship with the Christ of the gospel.

Jesus Is There: Finishing up this awesome project is a song I would finish my concerts with. Sort of like an encouraging benediction of sort. Long before Taylor Swift began saying “Haters gonna hate.” I wrote these words to remind believers that regardless to what we face, regardless to what people will say, and how they may turn on you. Remember, Jesus is there.

So, there you have it. The complete run down of the songs written and arranged by yours truly from my 1988 music project, Give thanks unto the Lord. I want you to be encouraged and inspired to walk with the King. Give him thanks and remember, Jesus will be with you through it all.

Why People Buy Marketing psychology

La Meshia Conley

I have to go through this diagram at least twice a year for the new people. This is Maslow's hierarchy which is a psychological model to understand people. You can check out the videos on the YouTube channel to watch a faster version. I want to make sure you understand why people buy. You must make sure your offer aligns with your ideal client. If it does not look at your messaging and sales strategy.

Place your offer in any of these on the chart. Is that where your client lies?

Your client will fall into either of these categories: expander states or contraction states.

The expander states is profit/gain, pleasure, love & affection, or prestige. The contraction states is fear of loss and avoidance of pain.

If your CLIENT is the EXPANDER STATE: the offer must be greater than the desire.
If your CLIENT is in the CONTRACTION STATE: the OBJECT must be valued greater than the price of the offer.

I hope this makes sense.

Another way to view it is:

DEED- social, spiritual (for others)

SEED- future, security (aspiration)

NEED- emotional, physical (for self)

FEED- present, reality (obligation)

If you sell health products your offer would be under NEED.

If you sell insurance that may fall under SEED.

Your client is in a contraction state. So the offer must match where they are presently.

You can't make a DEED type of offer if your client is in FEED...

You should not make a SEED offer when your clientele is in NEED.

Match your offer with your clients and watch the bag get heftier.

PS just so you know the lower the hierarchy the lower the ticket offer. As you ascend on the hierarchy you notice the higher your ticket offer. Personal development is near the top that's why it's high ticket.

Are You OK? You Really Do Matter!

By Elder Diane Harvell

Have you ever been down because of circumstances in life that occurred beyond or even within your control or perhaps been so wounded by someone you admired, or have you ever just been overwhelmed, and it took Almighty God to restore you? Yet during those daunting times, when asked, are you ok you smile and say, “oh yes, I’m blessed and highly favored!”

I believe most of us are afraid to become vulnerable to the question because of fear that the answer may be met with more unkindness and disappointment. Jesus was the perfect example of kindness. He blessed and served the poor; He healed the sick and catered to the distressed.

He gave us nine fruits of the spirit to walk in:

- Love
- Joy
- Peace
- Longsuffering
- Kindness
- Goodness
- Faithfulness
- Gentleness
- Self-Control

Having these characteristics removes the law of condemnation. Paul further writes that having these characteristics of the spirit destroys unwarranted and negative actions or reactions. Therefore, if we walk in the spirit, we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. Galatians 5:16.

The most telling sign of emotional untruth is when one tries to show that surviving life’s challenges are just “fine” or pretending they aren’t there and don’t exist. But learning and growing from different unfavorable experiences can be used as fuel for personal growth.

Emotionally tough individuals don’t stagnate. They evolve. They learn from their mistakes, they adapt to new situations, and they continuously strive to become better versions of themselves.

This continuous growth is the cornerstone of emotional resilience. It reflects a mindset that refuses to be defeated and instead chooses to grow stronger with each challenge. The road to wholeness isn’t a straight path. It’s a journey filled with twists, turns, and occasional detours. Every experience we go through serve as unique milestones on this journey. They challenge us, shape us, and ultimately strengthen us emotionally.

But perhaps the most important thing to remember is it's not about reaching a specific point in life and declaring "I've arrived". There's a stark difference between surviving life and truly living it.

That difference often comes down to emotional wholeness. It's not about hiding your feelings or hurting someone else's, but rather about managing them, even when life throws a curveball at you. Are you really, OK?

Familia Vega in the Mission Field

Preparing for El Salvador!

Hello, Friends! Hola, Amigos!

We are the Vega family! We would like to share a little bit of our story, history, and calling as missionaries.

Uzi, from El Salvador, and Bethany, from the U.S., met in 2013 while serving and training with Youth With A Mission in Costa Rica. We were married in 2015, got custody of Uzi's daughter, Genesis, and continued to serve as full time missionaries until 2018 when our first son, Isaac was born. We came to the United States for a sabbatical with the purpose of getting Uzi's U.S. citizenship and establishing a connection with our church family before returning to the field. Then, just like the rest of the world, our plans were affected by the sudden appearance of the covid-19 virus. In the waiting, our son Tobías was born in May 2022.

Now, after five and half years of living in the United States Uzi has his citizenship, and we are FINALLY preparing to return to where our hearts belong: the mission field! This coming January, we will be serving Youth With A Mission again, this time in El Salvador as full time staff. We are so excited to pour the gifts and talents God has blessed us with into Uzi's beautiful homeland; to see the resurrection of a lost hope, restoration of the family unit, and to see communities develop into healthy and thriving places! El Salvador (in English, The Savior) has been ravaged by corrupt government and gang violence for decades, but the political atmosphere is shifting. Corrupt politicians are being weeded out and gang members are being imprisoned by the thousands. There is a growing sense of freedom and hope, but the wounds and scars and pain are still there, in need of the healing touch of the Father.

Why El Salvador? In our time in the States, we did a lot of praying and seeking and asking questions about things that God had put in our hearts over the years. What we saw was a pile of puzzle pieces and no idea of where to start. But God spoke confirmation from three people who didn't know each other and were in different countries! God said, "I gave you all the pieces, just start and I will guide you!" So what are those pieces that fit in El Salvador? Connections, Empowerment, and Immersion.

Connections: The need for mental health workers is enormous and we have already started conversations with mental health care workers here about bringing their training to El Salvador to equip YWAMers and local pastors to be able to minister in this area. We also have a huge desire to see more U.S. church members experience missions in order to be a blessing and to grow in their walk with the Lord. Lastly, we are working to connect/coordinate the pioneering of a new training course for YWAM that focuses on worship, intercessory prayer, spiritual warfare, and evangelism, in order to be more effective in ministry.

Empowerment: We want to see the Salvadorans take ownership in the growth and restoration of their country. We believe that God has connected us to key people and ministries for the task of equipping the people so that they can rise up and take hold of the blessings God has for them.

Immersion: Before we were married, we talked and prayed about how we wanted to raise our kids and what things were important to us as individuals, but also as a missionary family. Our desire is to live with a diverse “Kingdom culture”, where the best parts of our cultures are drawn out to honor God. We want to have our kids immersed in Salvadoran culture so that part of their heritage is not lost.

Who/what is Youth With A Mission? Youth with a Mission (YWAM) is an international and interdenominational Christian training organization founded in 1960. The three focuses are in training, mercy ministries, and evangelism with the goal of seeing God in each of the 7 spheres of society (family, economics, government, religion, education, media, and the arts). There are more than 1,200 working locations in over 180 countries. Each year approximately 25,000 short term missionaries are sent around the globe.

What will we be doing? As full time staff, we will have general operations responsibilities (i.e. property maintenance, kitchen duties, hospitality, etc.), work utilizing our gifts and talents (i.e. Spanish/English translation, administration, discipling/mentoring, etc.), and being involved with ministries of the base (i.e. mercy ministries, kids programs, Bible and literacy classes, etc.). So what might our day look like? In the morning, we may be preparing breakfast for a team that has come to build a home for a single mother in the community. After breakfast, Uzi could be translating for classes while Bethany homeschools and works in communications. After lunch, we prepare for kids ministry (a hot meal and a fun Bible study out in the community) or helping to build the house with the team. On the way back from ministry, we might stop to do the grocery shopping for the base meals for the rest of the week. More translating for Uzi for evening classes! Before dinner, someone needs to talk and process; Bethany can help with that! Dinner might be done, but the day is not finished; time to sort through the vegetable donations that have just been dropped off. Now we can rest for another busy day!

There is so much more we'd like to share! Please connect with us and ask questions. 😊 Please keep us in your prayers as we finish preparations for our departure in January 2024.
