How long will we continue to make Excuses?

A lack of Commonsense demonstrates our true lack of understanding!

The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death. Proverbs 21:6

...Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments." Psalm 119:73

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Proverbs 4:7

A vibrant, high-angle photograph of a busy city street, likely Times Square in New York City. The scene is filled with tall buildings, numerous billboards for various products and services, and a dense crowd of people walking. A white dove is captured in flight, its wings spread wide, flying across the middle of the frame. The overall atmosphere is one of a bustling, modern urban environment.

Listen to Learn and Observe Then there will come Understanding!

When you don't come out of your area of comfort you judge from a place of blind ignorance, due to the lack of knowledge. Because one never has had the experience of another person's environment. Your sheltered lifestyle makes you cold hearted in your understanding. You harp only on things that benefit you and a select few with your circle of influence. Failing to see and understand those outside of that circle. Protecting things that you can see but, don't acknowledge because it benefits your personal interest while harming others. Justifying your actions knowing that they defy the principles of God and work against that which we have been instructed to do. Fighting to continue to oppress when you have the power to relieve the pressure and make things equal. The excuses that are continually conveyed to continue or bring back oppressions for the sake of a few due to feeling entitled and in places of power.

I challenge you to gain some wisdom, knowledge, and a greater understanding. Go to the places you have an opinion about and get the necessary understanding and education to the true facts. People will give you the information when they see you are coming from a sincere place. But speaking from your opinion just keeps you ignorant and uneducated. People hate to be grouped when we know we were born as individuals. Get to know others rather than group them with people they don't even know. No one likes to be grouped either, especially when they don't act or believe the same way as the assigned group.

As For Me and My House

I cannot stress enough how important it is to get to know the Lord our GOD for yourself. Romans 10:2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. Learn of him, Isaiah 55: 6-7 seek him while he may be found, call upon him while he is near. Let the wicked forsake his way and the righteous man his own thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, for he will have mercy upon him and to our GOD, for he will abundantly pardon.

Man cannot trust what he does not understand, nor follow when he does not believe. Joshua 24:15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood. Remembering those on the other side of the flood had heard of GOD but did not trust or believe and were destroyed.

Romans 10:14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? GOD provided everything Man needed to learn of him and to know him, Ephesians 4: 11-13 ¹¹ And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; ¹² For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: ¹³ Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. The Messiah, the Anointed One.

To know him, is to love him for he is good, he is merciful and our GOD does not want anyone to perish in their sins. No matter who you are, you know when you've done wrong. If you seek him he promised that you "Will" find him. Jesus commanded in Matthew 22:37 Jesus said unto them, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

Your behavior cannot be hidden, your intentions are known to GOD. Man functions carelessly and without considering the consequences of their actions many times, unknowingly offending God and grieving the Holy Spirit. We must realize that Isaiah 53:5-6 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. This is very true, so why would we want to keep hurting the one who died for Us.

⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him (Jesus) the iniquity of us all. We cannot take his love for us or the price he paid for us for granted.

We need a made up mind to please GOD, we need a sincere desire to know him, a steadfast commitment to serve him. He has promised so many things we will not receive if we live like the world lives, act like the world acts and succumb to the traps the devil lays for us. Be certain the devil is still roaming the earth seeking whom he may devour. There is nothing the devil has to offer that GOD our Father has not already promised us, there is nothing GOD cannot provide. Psalm 84:11 he tells each of us NO good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Matthew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. He promised "ALL" things, spiritual and material. He instructed his children to come out from among them and be ye separate. We are not like them and any excuse that is made to stay connected to the world will end in destruction, your Soul is at stake. You must realize that the wages of Sin is Death, whether Spiritual or Physical that is not what you want.

GOD is not to be taken lightly, he gave his only begotten Son for your life. He reminds us in Jeremiah 29:11-13 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. ¹² Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. ¹³ And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

We serve a mighty GOD and he will fight our battles when the devil attacks if we follow his instructions, Isaiah 26: 3-4 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in the Lord forever; for in the Lord Jehovah (Yahweh) is everlasting strength. John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly. Learn to take GOD at his word doubting Nothing. He is faithful to keep his promises. Joshua 24:14 Now therefore fear the Lord and serve him in sincerity and in truth! As For Me and My House We Will Serve the LORD!!!

Something to Consider

When we begin to look at life through our inner spirits perspective, we tend to have a different understanding as we listen and learn from the Holy Spirit. We truly gain wisdom and knowledge therefore have a greater understanding. So, we begin to respond to life rather than react to it with snap judgments that usually creates turmoil and recks havoc, destroying peace, harmony and tranquility. It's hard to take back words that are release within the atmosphere, because the impact can reach out near as well as far. So, learn to guard your words everything doesn't have to be said. If we keep giving everyone a so-called piece of our mind, then we won't have anything noteworthy to give, once we are free from impulse to be negative that can birth harmony.

MENTAL HEALTH ALERT

By: Sgt. Nate Griffin, Sgt. Nate Fitness LL

The condition of one's mental health is far more important than anything else, outside of one's eternal salvation. Many of us spend more time securing the health and well-fair of others and completely forget about their own mental status. "If you don't take care of yourself, you cannot take care of anyone else"- Sgt. Nate.

The importance of mental health in the African American community has been overlooked, ignored, misinformed, and denied from the onset of being brought here as slaves over 4 centuries ago. The need for more research, study, and human consideration of "our" population is critical to our survival as a people.

The prominent high and low profile, physicians, and healthcare professionals, should work harder at assuring and reassuring those of the African American that the medical community (the same community that created the mistrust) has their best interest in mind when it comes to healthcare. It's still believed that blacks have a high threshold for pain when it comes to managing the discomfort. This in turn, has shown itself through the slow response towards blacks when encountering such matters.

Starting today, let's make a personal commitment to treat ourselves better and in some cases, treat ourselves with the same concern and love that we do with others. Self-love (self-care) is not a sin. Selfish love is!

We can look at some of the ways you may be able to express this "self-love."

RELEASE & REALIGN WELLNESS

Rachael Voss

My Story:

Rachael Voss

For years I felt stuck in my job as a Recruiter. I liked helping people find a job that suited them, and it was not enough. I craved more. I wanted to have an even greater impact – though I had no clue how. I had no way out, no way to pay my bills while also pursuing what I truly desired: working, on a deep level, to help people break through negative beliefs and the barriers holding them back.

I had previously been introduced to various alternative medicines. My first introduction was the most personal. In 2003 when my mother had surgery to remove an ovarian cyst the doctors found stage three cancer. They told her she had four years to live. My parents pursued conventional chemotherapy, which my mom favored, though my father explored – and introduced us to – numerous types of alternative medicines.

My mother died in 2007. In the end progress my mom experienced from alternative interventions could not hold. Chemo had destroyed her stomach. She lived four years after the diagnosis – exactly as long as the doctors told her she would. This confirmed for me the power of one's mindset!

In 2017 I worked with a therapist who taught me that we are made up of energy and we give off certain vibrations. This sparked my interest, I wanted to know what I could do to increase my vibration, which led me to Binaural Beats. Nine months later, in 2018, I became a Certified Level II Reiki Practitioner. Within two months I was researching organic skin care and became a consultant with Neal's Yard Remedies. These powerful modalities were steppingstones to where I was going.

In March 2020 I was laid off from my job due to Covid... a blessing in disguise. At that moment life seemed to come at me non-stop: weeks before I was laid off my best friend died, there was family trauma, children starting to homeschool during Covid times and house hunting. My life felt unmanageable. In November 2020 I had started praying for clarity; clarity on how to utilize my deep desire to help others while serving my Higher Power. I started a Neuro Linguistic Programming course that fall, but it was put on hold when my aunt died. The week I returned from her funeral my son was in the hospital for HSP, a rare inflammatory disease. During his stay in the hospital my grandfather died, and a few days later I had a miscarriage. Life was throwing things at me left and right.

The recovery from my miscarriage was painful—some days I could barely move around the house. I was starting a charity organization for mothers going through a miscarriage when the words, "The Emotion Code" popped into my head, clear as day. Was this a book I had heard about? I looked it up, found it and bought it. Apparently, had been told about it during a phone call with someone who had provided meals for my family after my aunt's death. When I started reading the book, I learned how unprocessed emotions become Trapped Emotions. I also learned how these trapped emotions can be released. This filled me with excitement – it spoke to my soul! It truly felt like the answer to my prayers, and I knew this was what I was meant to be doing. I signed up for the course immediately and LOVED doing the work with all my volunteers. I became a Certified Emotion Code Practitioner.

Through the Emotion Code, I learned of Dr. Bradley Nelson's second major modality: The Body Code, a patented energy balancing system, intended to help uncover root causes of discomfort, sickness, and suffering in mind/body/spirit. I knew I needed to be able to offer this as well and I soon became a Certified Body Code Practitioner.

My passion and desire to help others has become my own practice: Release & Realign Wellness LLC. I am grateful and excited to work in partnership with you.

How The Emotion Code & Body Code has Impacted Me:

Before The Emotion Code and The Body Code, I was not the mom I thought I would be. I was easily triggered, feeling unheard, overwhelmed, and needing to control. Which led to anger. Which led to EXTREME anger. And lots of yelling. I felt defeated time and time again.

In April 2021, I started working on myself with the Emotion Code – I was able to identify unprocessed trapped emotions of which I was not even aware I had: betrayal, abandonment, love unreceived, taken for granted, lack of control, fear, anxiety, worthlessness, and resentment all came up often. Sometimes after identifying the emotion, it was necessary for my conscious mind to know more, such as; age of occurrence and who it was in relation to. I found that many of these trapped emotions occurred due to trauma from just nineteen months through age seven. I now have clarity regarding my childhood trauma, when before I was in the dark. I had blocked it all out.

Doing The Body Code work on myself, I have been able to release Physical-Emotional Shock over 80 times. Each time it showed up in a session was one time I hadn't processed this type of shock – each time it became trapped within. I uncovered that I had unhealthy wills and negative statements in my Subconscious such as:

- “A will to please others” from nineteen months
- “A will to die and avoid connection” from nineteen months

- “No will to love self” from nineteen months
- “People want to hurt me” from age two
- “I am stuck” from age five
- “No will to be vulnerable/open” from age five

“I am not good enough”

As a non-verbal baby, I just went into my head – the only place I was able to go. My discoveries have helped me to understand why as an adult I would get so upset, shut down, build up walls and get stuck. I now understand why it was so hard for me to share my feelings. Now when I get upset, I can readily acknowledge my feelings and, instead of shutting down with my husband, I communicate sooner than I ever was able to before.

In doing the work on myself and releasing all that was not processed, I am finding that I am showing up to life in alignment with the person I desire to be. I am more present for my children! Instead of getting upset when they are not listening to me, I can work on understanding what’s going on with them.

I am no longer consumed by anger. My kids tell me I am so much nicer! I am not overwhelmed with daily tasks around the house. I am finding that I have more energy even though I sometimes get less sleep! I am setting healthier boundaries.

If you are a mother interested in energy healing, with children still at home:

- Who often gets triggered by your children or spouse, and you desire to be present with them
- Who feels stuck in your personal life or your career and you are ready to break through what is holding you back

Who feels as if you are not enough; struggles with loving yourself or doing selfcare; desires to finally love and accept yourself just as you are

If you are a mother looking for alternative help for your child, who:

- Has been labeled with a learning disability

Has been affected by trauma

- ...I would love to be in partnership with you and or your child.

I am here for you. I am on the other side, reaching out my hand, sharing my experience, hope and strength. I am here to walk with you, to assist you in the possibility of realigning with the person you are meant to be. hard for me to share my feelings. Now when I get upset, I can readily acknowledge my feelings and, instead of shutting down with my husband, I communicate sooner than I ever was able to before.

In doing the work on myself and releasing all that was not processed, I am finding that I am showing up to life in alignment with the person I desire to be. I am more present for my children! Instead of getting upset when they are not listening to me, I can work on understanding what's going on with them.

Familia Vega in the Mission Field

Preparing for El Salvador!

Hello, Friends! Hola, Amigos!

We are the Vega family! We would like to share a little bit of our story, history, and calling as missionaries.

Uzi, from El Salvador, and Bethany, from the U.S., met in 2013 while serving and training with Youth With A Mission in Costa Rica. We were married in 2015, got custody of Uzi's daughter, Genesis, and continued to serve as full time missionaries until 2018 when our first son, Isaac was born. We came to the United States for a sabbatical with the purpose of getting Uzi's U.S. citizenship and establishing a connection with our church family before returning to the field. Then, just like the rest of the world, our plans were affected by the sudden appearance of the covid-19 virus. In the waiting, our son Tobías was born in May 2022.

Now, after five and half years of living in the United States Uzi has his citizenship, and we are FINALLY preparing to return to where our hearts belong: the mission field! This coming January, we will be serving Youth With A Mission again, this time in El Salvador as full time staff. We are so excited to pour the gifts and talents God has blessed us with into Uzi's beautiful homeland; to see the resurrection of a lost hope, restoration of the family unit, and to see communities develop into healthy and thriving places! El Salvador (in English, The Savior) has been ravaged by corrupt government and gang violence for decades, but the political atmosphere is shifting. Corrupt politicians are being weeded out and gang members are being imprisoned by the thousands. There is a growing sense of freedom and hope, but the wounds and scars and pain are still there, in need of the healing touch of the Father.

Why El Salvador? In our time in the States, we did a lot of praying and seeking and asking questions about things that God had put in our hearts over the years. What we saw was a pile of puzzle pieces and no idea of where to start. But God spoke confirmation from three people who didn't know each other and were in different countries! God said, "I gave you all the pieces, just start and I will guide you!" So what are those pieces that fit in El Salvador? Connections, Empowerment, and Immersion.

Connections: The need for mental health workers is enormous and we have already started conversations with mental health care workers here about bringing their training to El Salvador to equip YWAMers and local pastors to be able to minister in this area. We also have a huge desire to see more U.S. church members experience missions in order to be a blessing and to grow in their walk with the Lord. Lastly, we are working to connect/coordinate the pioneering of a new training course for YWAM that focuses on worship, intercessory prayer, spiritual warfare, and evangelism, in order to be more effective in ministry.

Empowerment: We want to see the Salvadorans take ownership in the growth and restoration of their country. We believe that God has connected us to key people and ministries for the task of equipping the people so that they can rise up and take hold of the blessings God has for them.

Immersion: Before we were married, we talked and prayed about how we wanted to raise our kids and what things were important to us as individuals, but also as a missionary family. Our desire is to live with a diverse “Kingdom culture”, where the best parts of our cultures are drawn out to honor God. We want to have our kids immersed in Salvadoran culture so that part of their heritage is not lost.

Who/what is Youth With A Mission? Youth with a Mission (YWAM) is an international and interdenominational Christian training organization founded in 1960. The three focuses are in training, mercy ministries, and evangelism with the goal of seeing God in each of the 7 spheres of society (family, economics, government, religion, education, media, and the arts). There are more than 1,200 working locations in over 180 countries. Each year approximately 25,000 short term missionaries are sent around the globe.

What will we be doing? As full time staff, we will have general operations responsibilities (i.e. property maintenance, kitchen duties, hospitality, etc.), work utilizing our gifts and talents (i.e. Spanish/English translation, administration, discipling/mentoring, etc.), and being involved with ministries of the base (i.e. mercy ministries, kids programs, Bible and literacy classes, etc.). So what might our day look like? In the morning, we may be preparing breakfast for a team that has come to build a home for a single mother in the community. After breakfast, Uzi could be translating for classes while Bethany homeschools and works in communications. After lunch, we prepare for kids ministry (a hot meal and a fun Bible study out in the community) or helping to build the house with the team. On the way back from ministry, we might stop to do the grocery shopping for the base meals for the rest of the week. More translating for Uzi for evening classes! Before dinner, someone needs to talk and process; Bethany can help with that! Dinner might be done, but the day is not finished; time to sort through the vegetable donations that have just been dropped off. Now we can rest for another busy day!

There is so much more we'd like to share! Please connect with us and ask questions. 😊 Please keep us in your prayers as we finish preparations for our departure in January 2024.

With Love and Gratitude, The Vega Family

What is your Individual Excuse?

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

It should make us leery about the direction that our society is leaning and the fact that we are becoming more misaligned with the principles of God. Why is it so easy? When you just think about some of the things that are now taking place, that before would be a line that we would not cross. But now we compromise on the principles of God. Commonsense should tell us this is not a wise decision. Because there are consequences when we place ourselves on the wrong side of the principles of God. It further demonstrates that we've failed in studying the Word of God to be able to navigate through life and maintain our relationship and alignment with God and the principles of God.

Our society as a whole is walking in a dangerous place of blind ignorance because of our behaviors and inability to follow the instructions given by God. Two areas that has snow balled us into this position are 1. Studying and understanding the principles of God. 2. Training up our children in the ways they should go. These are two areas that will be questioned of each of us in some shape or form. Accountability and that is not a collective Accountability but individual. You have to choose to join in with others. Which means when it counts we each receive our own individual verdict. What will we hear "Welcome thy good and faithful servant" or "Depart from me ye worker of iniquity..." where does our loyalties reside with God who has all power in His hands or with man who has no power other than what God allows.

Our we keeping this understanding in the right perspective or have we allowed ourselves to be manipulated and intimidated by mere man? Who do you believe has full power and does your behaviors demonstrate that fact? Stay focused and don't get caught up in the distraction. Honor your commitment to God. Because when and if the light get turned on within your darkness (ignorance). How far away will you truly be from God's principles? Will there be enough time, grace and mercy to get realigned? Tough questions for tough times. Please don't take a nonchalant attitude about it and miss eternity. Pray to the Lord to guard your heart and mind so you don't fall into a reprobate mindset.

Stay focus on God's mission and assignment for your life because the completion of this is vital, do not allow yourself to be caught up within the hype of the day. Stay on course operate within the lines that God created for those who desire to do His will. Remove all noise and distractions so you can clearly hear the still soft voice.

Something to Consider

It's kind of interesting when you pay attention to the demeanor of politicians and some persons of influence. That they seem to fail in realizing that it is by grace that they seat within the seats that they do. When you step aside from that understanding you go into a reprobate mindset that makes you think that you are the Supreme One and everyone must reverence you, because you now lack compassion towards others and humility to understand your power is limited and provided by grace by the actual Supreme One. But when true reality shows up and it will, it will at its arrival humble you or you will fall from your personal pedestal. If you don't believe that check the one book of history that matters the Word of God, and you too can forecast the future. Vengeance is mine sayeth the Lord. And I will repay, payments have already started, and more are on the way. It's going to be a rude awakening for some. No need to complain just watch and always pray.

How will you Chose to move Forward?

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

Some say it's too much, overwhelming, at times disrespectful and very deceptive. No matter where we look it's constantly a war on words. Don't we understand the easiest way to defeat someone, or something is to divide and conquer. Well, it is definitely a distraction that ushers in fear and mental exhaustion. In our country for years, we have put our trust in a body of individuals to help chart the course for millions. However, the current body of these individuals 535 cannot agree on a direction so they continue to delay. Then because of this issue they try and throw the blame at one individual when it is not them but a fraction of the collective group, because of stubbornness and the people suffer as they wait. So, all the focus is on the confusion, the blame game and personal as well as special agendas.

By the outcomes and the fights, the nation walks further away from the principles of God. Everything is not fair and equal, there is a definite respect of person that is occurring. This goes against what the scriptures have instructed mankind. The issue here is that it demonstrates that the Word of God is not studied or considered. We put more emphasis on who we feel is popular and sounds good. So, we just keep snow balling one issue into more issues. Not understanding that when one chooses to sit in these decision-making sits, there is a greater point of accountability than just sound bites on the evening news.

What is their true motive for being in the midst if not to make a true difference for the betterment of someone's life or is it to just be a disruptor causing distractions, chaos and confusion. By the events that are happening now it is apparent that we lack in understanding of the principles of God. Have we been studying to show ourselves approved a workman that needed not to be ashamed rightfully dividing the word of truth? Are we aware that a house divided against itself will fall? Has our governmental system fallen into a reprobate mindset? Consider the behavior as you answer these questions. Honestly people are suffering where is the compassion that Christ showed.

The scriptures provide many examples as to how we should be responding to each other. It provides instructions when someone comes to us for help. We have to keep in mind that what we consider as blessings or things we have an entitled mindset of could be removed from our presence and reach in one breath. If you are currently in state of confusions as what to do. Let me share some wisdom provided to me by one of my former Pastor's the Late Bishop Christopher Clark, he reminded me of something we used to when I was in the military. Which was when marching there was a maneuver which was call out by NCO "Mark time March". We didn't march forward, nor did we reverse course. We marched in place; he further instructed me during this time to study the word and pray for direction and wait then when I would hear that still soft voice of the Holy Spirit. Telling me to forward march in the direction that He has instructed. Best guidance I have ever received it has saved me from a lot of mishaps. The key is to be silent and patient so you can hear.

We are in a pivotal time right now prayer is our greatest weapon not our mouths towards others. Be careful of the words that you release from your mouth because they take on life. Be conscious and temper in your attitude and again I say guard your tongue every thought that comes to mind doesn't have to be spoken unless given permission by the Holy Spirit to bring forth life. Think on these things and consider our current situation and understand that the next generation is watching you. We were instructed to "Train up a child in the way they should go and when they are old, they will not depart from it. Remember accountability rest at our individual feet. All of this is relevant to which expression we will hear on Judgement Day. "Welcome thy good and faith servant or Depart from me ye worker of iniquity for I know you not..." Choose your alignment carefully your eternal life depends on it!
