Subject: Harlan Sprague Dawley, inc. Name Change

Dear Ms. Kimberly Bell,

We are pleased to announce that, effective November 9, 2008, the legal name of Harlan Sprague Dawley, inc. has been changed to Harlan Laboratories, INC. The Company and the other members of the Harlan Laboratories global family of companies have also adopted a new corporate logo as can be seen atop this letter. The changes are being made to unify the image and brand of the Harlan Laboratories global family of companies under the Harlan Laboratories name and logo.

Neither the Company's legal structure nor its ownership has changed. You will start to see a transition of printed items from us with our new branding (stationary, packaging, advertising, and other items).

With our name change we are coming together under a single banner worldwide, with one vision, one set of values, and a company-wide passion for scientific excellence.

For any question or additional information needed, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
