Professional Statement

As an educator and trainer, I have created and led trainings for universities, media organizations, and local, state, and national conferences (for whom?). I have created curriculum materials and training materials and written numerous newsletters and reports.

Training

- I've led trainings in in collaborative communication, diversity communication, and community partnerships.
- Clients have included HBCU's (Historical Black Colleges and Universities), Gannet Newspaper employees, group home employees, private churches, and local school districts.

Writing

- Newsletters and reports for national education programs Tech Prep and School-to-Work.
- Curriculum materials and manuals for education programs. (for whom??)
- (what writing?) workshops and training for local, state and national meetings and conferences.

Building community partnerships. What role did you play in this?

Personal development

- Toastmasters, mediation, collaborative communication
- Codependency meetings, study groups, and workshops
- Transference Healing energy practitioner, teacher and presenter at local and national Conscious Connections Healing Expo
- A Course in Miracles
- Mayan Astrology; I later led workshops and worked with individual clients.
