The Joy of Hot Sauce

Hot Sauce has become a true American art form. From delicious & potent recipes to creative packaging, it's not always for the faint of heart. Nonetheless, it's a lot of tasty fun! The joy of hot sauce is perfect for spreading Christmas joy!

At Fishville Trading Post, we are endeavoring to build an epic collection of great American hot sauces. If you want something better than the mass marketed, mass produced hot sauces, come to Fishville Trading Post! Today we will focus on two brands.

The General's Hot Sauce Scorch'd earth offerings. many flavors, unique packaging that looks like a handgrenade. Veteran owned & grown in South Carolina, American grown, 86% peppers in every bottle. Build your own Christmas Combo with the premium wooden gift boxes available.

Whoop Ass is brand new, to us. The name & the packaging tell you a lot about the product! Not only are they fun & delicious, they can whoop your ass! Bottles are truly creative looking like a cowboy and the lid is a cowboy hat! Their "Ass Blaster" looks like a typical bottle packaged into an outhouse box. Gift packaging has 3 bottles in a wooden crate.

Other hot sauces include Route 66 Habanero Hot Sauce, Hot Sauce Challenge, the Book of Pleasure and Pain, and more.
