Mark Attanasio

Chairman and Principal Owner

The 2019 season is the 15th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Attanasio has overseen the transformation of the Club over the past few seasons, which resulted in a franchise record-tying 96-win regular season in 2018 (the best record in the National League), the National League Central Division title, a franchise-record 102 total wins and a postseason run that concluded just one game shy of a World Series berth.

The organization has focused on acquiring and developing young impact players, building one of MLB's strongest minor league systems as well as remaining an attractive team for veteran free agents. During Attanasio's tenure as principal owner, the Brewers have invested more than $150 million to improve their stadium in Milwaukee and across the minor-league system. Attanasio has also secured long-term contracts with the Club's leadership, including President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns and President of Business Operations Rick Schlesinger.

Attanasio's longstanding objective of establishing a championship-caliber team has been applied throughout the organization, both on and off the field. As part of this objective, Attanasio continues to work diligently to uphold the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and community when the Club was purchased 14 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked with David Stearns, Craig Counsell and the baseball operations staff to build a sustainable inflow of new players to join the team's veteran talent, resulting in a record-setting 2018 season. This effort was recognized by Baseball America, which named the Brewers as its 2018 Organization of the Year.

Last season, the Brewers sent a franchise-best five players to the All-Star Game, including Jesús Aguilar, Lorenzo Cain, Josh Hader, Jeremy Jeffress and Christian Yelich, who in his first season with the team was named National League Most Valuable Player.

Several key prospects also played prominent roles on the 2018 roster, including pitchers Corbin Burnes, Freddy Peralta and Brandon Woodruff, three of baseball's most highly-regarded up-and-comers. In addition, the organization saw success in the minor leagues with the emergence of 2017 first-round selection, second baseman Keston Hiura, who appeared in the All-Star Futures Game and was named MVP of the Arizona Fall League.

The 2019 team includes the addition of All-Star catcher Yasmani Grandal, who has appeared in four consecutive postseasons and two consecutive World Series.

Recognizing the importance of player development, this spring, the Brewers and the City of Phoenix completed an extensive $60-plus million upgrade to the team's training facility in Phoenix. The new facility – which includes upgrades to the stadium, main plaza, practice fields, clubhouse, medical and training facilities, video rooms, offices for coaches and front office personnel, and enhanced fan experience elements – officially opened on February 12.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio continues to appreciate the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans and remains committed to providing them with the best experience possible. Including the postseason, more than three million fans packed Miller Park in 2018. Over the regular season, the Brewers' attendance averaged 35,195 per game, ranking 10th in all of baseball. 2018 marked the 11th time in the past 12 seasons where the Club drew more than 2.5 million fans.

In January 2019, the Brewers and American Family Insurance announced a long-term sponsorship agreement for naming rights beginning in 2021 and continuing for 15 years. As part of the agreement, the Brewers and American Family Insurance will collaboratively fund community projects, including refurbishing youth and high school baseball fields. The two organizations will also work on marketing and promotional initiatives to enhance the fan and customer experience in both the stadium and in the community.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 rebranding. BCF raised more than $4 million during 2018. Over the past nine years, BCF has provided over 1,800 grants totaling more than $17.5 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to fans' support of the Foundation, all uniformed Brewers players, their families, and executives of the Club's front office staff contributed their time or financial resources to BCF in 2018. Along with Christian Yelich and Ryan Braun, the Attanasio family also helped organize "California Strong" this past November to address the needs of families affected by two disastrous events in Southern California.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his 14 years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture has focused on best practices and achieving excellent results across all areas of the Club. This includes providing employees with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach efforts.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 30 years. He is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm, which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the United States, including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Harvard-Westlake School. In addition, Attanasio is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee, Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is Chairman of its Investment Committee. He is a member of LA28, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons and a grandson.

Rick Schlesinger

President of Business Operations

Rick Schlesinger is in his 17th season with the Milwaukee Brewers and first as president of business operations after being promoted to his current position on January 23, 2019. He previously served as executive vice president of business operations (2003-10) and spent the past eight seasons as chief operating officer (2011-18).

Schlesinger oversees the organization's business affairs, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, communications, broadcasting and non-baseball special events. Additionally, he oversees the Phoenix Spring Training complex operation as well as the operations of the Brewers-owned Class-A Carolina Mudcats.

In nearly every aspect of the business, the Brewers have eclipsed records during Schlesinger's tenure. In 2018, over 2.85 million fans attended games at Miller Park, representing the 11th time in the last 12 seasons that the organization has exceeded the 2.5 million attendance mark. The team has sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 13 consecutive seasons, making the Brewers one of just eight Major League teams to reach that level each year since 2006.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. In 2017, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park.. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience. Last season's most notable upgrade included a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers.

The most significant investment for 2019 is the renovation and complete rebuild of the Arizona-based facility, American Family Fields of Phoenix. The $60-plus million project includes a new clubhouse building with locker rooms and vastly improved facilities for all of the baseball operations functions. It also features a wide array of fan enhancements, including new concessions, retail stores, seating and scoreboard.

Over the years, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community to include the rebranding of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. and the introduction of several new initiatives to benefit area causes.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as vice president of business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after previously working in motion picture development and production for Walt Disney Pictures and Television.

Schlesinger is actively involved in several charitable and community activities, including membership on the University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of History Board of Visitors.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (cum laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, he spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney. Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin, and resides in Oconomowoc with his wife, Kate. They have five children: Bradley, Sam, Katie, Molly, and Mathieu.

David Stearns

President of Baseball Operations and General Manager

David Stearns, 34, is entering his fourth season with the Milwaukee Brewers and first as president of baseball operations and general manager, earning a promotion on January 23, 2019. Stearns was named general manager on September 21, 2015, becoming the ninth GM in franchise history. He officially began this position on October 5, 2015.

Under his leadership, the Brewers won a franchise record-tying 96 games and a National League Central Division title in 2018. The team swept the Colorado Rockies in the National League Division Series and came within one game of reaching the World Series after falling to the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series in seven games. The Brewers also earned Baseball America's Organization of the Year award for 2018.

Prior to the 2018 season, Stearns orchestrated a series of moves that were key to the Brewers' success. The moves included trading for outfielder Christian Yelich, who ultimately was named National League MVP after posting one of the most impressive seasons in franchise history. The team also acquired All-Star outfielder Lorenzo Cain, signing him to a five-year contract, and Jhoulys Chacin, who went on to lead the Major Leagues with 35 starts.

Since becoming general manager at age 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to build and retain talent across all levels of the organization with the goal of making an impact at the Major League level. Under Stearns and Manager Craig Counsell, the Brewers have increased their win total in each season (2016-18), posting a 13-game improvement from 2016-17 (73 wins to 86) and a 10-game ascension in 2018 (96 wins). This offseason was highlighted by the signing of catcher Yasmani Grandal on January 14, 2019.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Stearns spent three seasons (2013-15) with the Houston Astros as assistant general manager. He was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting. During his tenure with Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history as they went from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 to clinch a Wild Card berth.

Before joining the Astros, Stearns spent one season as director of baseball operations with the Cleveland Indians from December 2011 through November 2012, where he focused on contract negotiations, salary analysis, team strategy and roster management.

Stearns worked in the Office of the Commissioner from 2008-11, most recently as manager of labor relations. He assisted in the salary arbitration process, handling uniform player contracts, and was a member of MLB's negotiating team for the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Prior to joining Major League Baseball, Stearns served internships in the baseball operations departments of the Pittsburgh Pirates (summers of 2005-06) and New York Mets (2008). In addition, he worked for the Arizona Fall League as assistant director of baseball operations in 2007.

Stearns graduated from Harvard University in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in political science. The New York City native resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Whitney, and their daughter, Nora.

SEASON SUMMARY

The 2018 Mudcats went 65-73, finishing third in the overall Southern Division standings and 7th overall in the Carolina League. The Mudcats additionally went 34-36 in the first half and 31-37 in the second half while finishing tied for fourth and third in respectively in the Southern Division. The team began the season going 11-13 in April before posting a 16-13 record in May. Carolina's 16-13 mark in May was led in large part to the success of the pitching staff as the Mudcats pitchers, led by starters Cam Roegner and Trey Supak, combined to pitch to a league best 2.65 ERA in May. The offense, meanwhile, totaled 20 home runs in May (team high for 2018), with a team leading six homers coming from Keston Hiura alone. Hiura hit .377/.437/.664 with 46 hits, 29 runs, 13 doubles, six home runs and a 1.101 OPS in May and was later named both the Carolina League's Player of the Month and Brewers Minor League Player of the Month for May. The Mudcats began June at 27-26 and 3.0 games back of first in the first half standings, but lost 10 of their next 17 games (all without Hiura who was promoted to Double-A on June 1) while finishing the half at 34-36 and 7.0 games out of the first half championship. After hosting the Carolina League All-Star Classic at Five County Stadium during the break (June 19, 2018), the Mudcats then began the second half at 5-4 and finished June at 12-14. Carolina ended up finishing 14-15 in July while remaining slightly below .500 on the season at 53-54. However, like Hiura, Weston Wilson paced the Carolina offense in July while earning Carolina League Player of the Month and Brewers Minor League Player of the Month honors. Wilson hit .436/.481/.681 with a 1.162 OPS over 27 games in July. Despite Wilson's strong play, and the hot hitting of Cooper Hummel (.309/.463/.497 league best .960 OPS from July 5 through the end of the season), the team would go just 12-18 between August (11-16) and September (1-2) while finishing the second half at 31-37 and 12.0 games out of the second half championship.

OWNERSHIP CHANGE: The 2018 season was the first for the Mudcats under the ownership of the Milwaukee Brewers. The Brewers formally finalized the, 100% stake, full ownership purchase of the Mudcats from previous owner Steve Bryant on 10/3/17. Bryant's ownership legacy began in 1988 when he purchased both the Southern League's Columbus Astros in Columbus, Ga. and the Carolina League's Greensboro Hornets in Greensboro, N.C. The Astros were later renamed through a fan based name the team contest in 1989 and then moved to North Carolina before the 1991 season where they would become the Carolina Mudcats of today.

HOW THEY'RE BUILT: The Mudcats opened the 2018 season with 10 returning players from the previous season, including RHP Luke Barker, RHP Marcos Diplan, RHP Conor Harber, RHP Jon Olczak, RHP Trey Supak, C/OF Cooper Hummel, C Max McDowell, INF Luis Aviles, INF/OF Weston Wilson and OF Carlos Belonis... The 2018 Mudcats also opened the season with the Brewers top overall rated prospect (by MLB Pipeline.com) in INF/DH Keston Hiura. Hiura was one of three former first round selections on the 2018 roster. The others included LHP Nathan Kirby (2015) and OF Clint Coulter (2012)... The 2018 Mudcats also featured three of Milwaukee's Top 30 prospects as rated by MLB Pipeline.com; including Hiura (1), Diplan (12) & Supak (23).

STINGY MAY: Carolina pitchers combined to pitch to a Carolina League best 2.65 ERA in May (258.1 IP, 105 BB, 255 SO, .225 AVG). They also went 16-13 in May, while the offense totaled 20 home runs, 4.48 runs/game and a .245 average (.702 OPS).

AWARDS SZN: The 2018 Mudcats took home several in-season honors including four Carolina League Player/Pitcher of the Week Awards, two Carolina League Player of the Month Awards, three Milwaukee Brewers Minor League Player of the Month Award Winners, six mid-season Carolina League All-Stars and one Carolina League post-season All-Star.

ALL THE STARS: The Mudcats placed four players on the 2018 Carolina League Southern Division All-Star team, including CL earned run average leader LHP Cam Roegner, starter RHP Marcos Diplan, INF Tucker Neuhaus and MiLB caught steals leader C Max McDowell. Both INF Keston Hiura and RHP Trey Supak were also named to the Carolina League Southern Division All-Star team, but were unable to participate due to promotions to Double-A Biloxi weeks before the All-Star event.

ROEGNER'S FIRSTS: LHP Cam Roegner opened the year at 2-0 with a 0.83 ERA over 21.2 innings pitched and over his first four starts. He carried those numbers into May, and at one point led all of Minor League Baseball in earned run average at 0.76 from May 22 to May 23 and 0.68 from May 25 through May 29. His run to the top of the ERA leader board among all full-season league pitchers was aided by a 31.1 consecutive scoreless innings streak from May 2 through May 30. Roegner also led the Carolina League in earned run average during the periods of May 11 through June 4, June 10 - June 23, July 8 - July 9, and July 26 - August 31. Roegner was later recognized as a mid-season All-Star for the first time in his career after putting together a first half run that included him ranked first in the Carolina League in earned run average throughout most of the first half. He later made a spot start with Triple-A Colorado Springs on 7/15. He was then promoted officially to Double-A Biloxi on 7/31 and appeared in five games with the Shuckers before finishing the season in Triple-A on 9/3.

THE LEADERS: LHP Cam Roegner spent much of the 2018 season as the Carolina League's leader in earned run average. He led the league in ERA during the periods of May 11 through June 4, June 10 - June 23, July 8 - July 9, and July 26 - August 31... RHP Trey Supak led the Carolina League in earned run average (1.76) from June 5 through June 9... RHP Conor Harber led the Carolina League in earned run average (2.20/2.26/2.23/2.18) from July 10 through July 25.

HIURA'S MAY: INF Keston Hiura finished the month of May batting .377/.437/.664 with a 1.101 OPS over 29 games played and was named both the Carolina League's Player of the Month for May and the Milwaukee Brewers MiLB player of the month for May. Hiura finished May leading the Carolina League in OPS (1.101), runs (29), hits (tied, 46), extra-base hits (21) and doubles (13). Hiura bid farewell to the Carolina League by going 5-for-5 with two home runs, three runs and two RBI on May 31 in Lynchburg. He set career highs for hits and home runs in a game in what ended up being his last game with the Mudcats as

PLAYOFF PROCEDURESPOSTSEASON FORMAT

Four clubs will qualify for the postseason: the winners of each half in each division. Should one club win both halves of a division, the club in the same division with the second-best second-half winning percentage will qualify as a "wild card."

DIVISION SERIES

Both Division Series will open on the second day following the conclusion of the scheduled regular season. They will continue on consecutive days until a champion is determined. The two half winners within each division will face each other in a best-of-five series to determine the division champion. The first two games will be played on the grounds of the second half winner (or wild card), and the remaining necessary game(s) on the grounds of the first half winner.

MILLS CUP CHAMPIOSHIP SERIES

The Mills Cup Championship Series will open on the eighth day following the end of the scheduled regular season, unless delayed by called or postponed games in either Division Series. The opening of the Series will also be delayed if either competing club is required to travel 500 or more miles following a game the previous day. Once begun, the Series will continue on consecutive days until a champion is determined.

In odd-numbered years, the first two games will be in the city of the Northern Division Champion, with the remaining necessary games in the Southern Division Champion's city. This format will be reversed in even-numbered years.

REGULAR SEASON TIEBREAKERS - FIRST HALF

In case two or more clubs shall have the same percentage at the close of the first half of the championship season, the following tie-breakers will be used. The first tie-breaker is head-to-head first-half record. If that is also tied, the first meeting between the clubs in the second half will determine the first-half championship. If three clubs have identical percentages at the end of the first half and all have identical records against the other two, the first second-half game between any two of them would eliminate one club, and the next meeting of the other two clubs in the second half would determine the first half champion.

REGULAR SEASON TIEBREAKERS - SECOND HALF

In the event that two or more clubs finish with the same percentage in the second half championship (or "wild card" postseason berth), ties will be broken as follows: first by head-to-head second-half record. If that is tied, second by overall head-to-head record. If that is also tied, then by overall record.

A photograph of a large-scale construction project for the renovation of Five County Stadium. The image shows a complex network of concrete beams and columns forming the structural framework of a multi-level building. In the foreground, a large, rectangular concrete beam lies on the ground. The background features a tall stadium light tower and a clear blue sky. A crane is visible on the right side of the frame. The overall scene depicts the early stages of a major infrastructure project.

CAROLINA MUDCATS MLB AFFILIATE HISTORY

IMPORTANT DATES & MOMENTS

1988

August 1, 1988: Future Carolina Mudcats owner Steve Bryant finalizes purchase of Columbus Astros (Double-A, Southern League) franchise from the Preston group in Columbus, GA. Bryant also purchased the Carolina League's Greensboro Hornets in 1988.

1989

Steve Bryant re-brands the Columbus Astros as the Columbus Mudcats and expands the team front office. The new team name is chosen by local fans following a name the team contest. Mudcats, Generals, Cannons, River Rats and Scrambled Dogs were among the thousands of suggestions submitted by fans.

1990

Following the 1990 season, the Columbus Mudcats announce plans to move to Zebulon, North Carolina and become the Carolina Mudcats.

The new Mudcats brand proves to be a hit as merchandise sales top $225,000. Sports Illustrated and Baseball Weekly both noted that Mudcats' hats were purchased by Muhammad Ali, Willard Scott and President Jimmy Carter.

Pittsburgh Pirates affiliation begins: The Mudcats concluded their player development agreement with the Houston Astros following the 1990 season and began a new agreement with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

April 11, 1991: The first ever game in Carolina Mudcats history results in a 1-0 loss in Greenville, SC versus the Braves (Atlanta Braves).

April 19, 1991: With Five County Stadium still under construction, the Mudcats begin playing games at Fleming Stadium in Wilson, NC. The Mudcats defeated the visiting Greenville Braves 5-1 in their first home game of the season.

July 3, 1991: The Mudcats officially make their home debut at Five County Stadium in Zebulon in front of a crowd of 7,333 (L, 6-5 vs. Greenville). Workers were still installing the stadium seats when the Mudcats finally began their home slate of games in Zebulon on July 3, 1991. Those same workers then doubled as ushers as they installed seats for fans as they entered through the gates. Stadium workers also had to physically raise a flag pole during the opening night rendition of the National Anthem before the game.

Raleigh Hot Stove Banquet awards Steve Bryant its annual Will Wynne Award. The award, presented is given to the North Carolinian who has done the most for baseball in the Tar Heel State.

May 8, 1992: RHP Mike Zimmerman and RHP Dennis Tafoya combined on the first no-hitter in Carolina team history as the Mudcats defeated Chattanooga, 1-0 on May 8.

May 11, 1992: The Pittsburgh Pirates defeat the Mudcats 4-1 in a MLB exhibition game in front of 7,412 fans at Five County Stadium.

1993

The Mudcats set a new triangle team area attendance record after drawing over 328,000 people to the still growing Five County Stadium in Zebulon.

1994

Manager Bobby Meacham leads the Mudcats to a 74-66 record and to the Southern League first half (44-26) Eastern Division title. The Mudcats then went on to defeat Greenville three games two in the Eastern Division Playoffs, before falling three games to one to Huntsville in the Southern League Championship series.

Five County Stadium Opener

July 3, 1991 | Attendance: 7,333 | W, 6-1 vs. Greenville

Following the 1990 season, the then Columbus Mudcats packed up shop and left Golden Ballpark in Georgia for Eastern North Carolina where they would make their home in Zebulon and become the Carolina Mudcats. The idea was to begin play at the brand new Five County Stadium in Zebulon in 1991, but poor winter weather slowed construction forcing the Mudcats to begin their home schedule of games temporarily at Fleming Stadium in Wilson, NC.

The Mudcats then made their Fleming Stadium home debut against Greenville on April 19, 1991 in front of a crowd of 4,357. Professional baseball had been absent in Wilson for 18 years before the Mudcats used Fleming Stadium as their temporary home.

The Mudcats called Fleming Stadium home through June in 1991 before officially making their home debut at Five County Stadium on July 3, 1991. That home opener resulted in a 6-1 victory versus Greenville and was played in front of a crowd of 7,333 at Five County Stadium.

Construction workers were still installing the new stadium seats when the Mudcats finally began their home slate of games in Zebulon. Those same workers also had to physically raise a flag pole during the opening night rendition of the National Anthem before the first game in Five County Stadium history.

Season in Review: 1995 Championship Season

by Bob Licht

In 1992, Carolina was in its second season in the Triangle and was just establishing itself as the top-drawing club in the Southern League. But, on the field the 'Cats struggled and wound up with the worst record in minor league baseball. They finished with 92 losses in '92.

Please forgive the die-hard Mudcats' fans who feel a sincere, deep satisfaction for a team that, in just three seasons, improved to 95 wins in '95, and brought the Triangle its first professional championship in the modern sports era.

The Mudcats had some unfinished business entering the '95 campaign. Following their most successful season in franchise history, Carolina sought its first Southern League Championship. A year earlier, Huntsville defeated Carolina 3 games to 1 for the league title. But, Carolina won both halves a year ago and led the Southern League with an 89-55 regular season record. After capturing their second straight East Division crown (3 games to 2 over Orlando), the 'Cats defeated Chattanooga 3 games to 2 for their first-ever Southern League Championship. Carolina led the league in attendance for the second time in three years (317,802 in 70 openings, 4,540 per game average), while completing its title run.

Catcher Jason "Kid" Kendall became the second straight Mudcats' player to capture the SL's MVP award. He just missed leading the league in batting, but set a club record with a .326 average. First baseman George Canale led the league with 102 RBI, also a new team mark. Reliever "Fish Fryin" Matt Ryan shattered the single season and career club save records with 26 during the regular season. Elmer Dessens had one of the most difficult names to pronounce and one of the most difficult pitching repertoires to hit, leading the league with a 2.49 earned run average and 15 wins. His 15-8 record tied Tim Wakefield's club record. Steve Parris, a 27 year-old former Phillie and Mariner, bounced back from re-constructive shoulder surgery to start the season 8-0 and improved to 9-1 before making the jump directly to Pittsburgh. He was one of four Mudcats who was promoted to the big leagues during the season.

Gary Wilson pitched the second half title clincher, the East Division title clincher against Orlando, and the fifth and deciding game against Chattanooga for the Southern League Championship. One year earlier, Wilson had hurled the East Division title clinching victory over Greenville.

Trent Jewett, at 30 the youngest manager in club history and the youngest in the league, managed the team. It was his second straight championship following his title in Hawaii with the Kauai Emeralds during the winter.

Pitching coach Dave Rajsich captured his 9th championship in professional baseball. Both were promoted to the Pirates' Triple-A affiliate in Calgary after the season.

The 'Cats were second in the league in batting (.270) and pitching (3.48 ERA). Carolina managed more sacrifice hits (67) than any other team.

Other amazing highlights from the 1995 season were:

- George Canale's three homer game a Jacksonville on 5/1.
- Carolina's 17-inning affair against Port City on 8/12 that became the first game Five County Stadium ever suspended because of the league curfew rule.
- Brett Backlund's 13 strikeout performance on 7/12.
- Carolina's first-ever triple play, against Greenville on 6/21.
- Jacob Brumfield's game-winning homer leading off the bottom of the 9th inning in his first game on injury rehab
- Tony Womack's 9 1/2 minute at-bat in the 8th inning of the title game.

2003 Southern League Championship Series Recap

by Patrick Kinas

With Birmingham and Tennessee falling to the wayside, the Southern League Championship Series set up as a match between the league's two premier teams. Joe Davis Stadium, home of the Western Division Champion Huntsville Stars, hosted the first two contests of the best-of-five series. However, the Eastern Division Champion Carolina Mudcats came in having won five of seven meetings during the regular season, including three of four games in Zebulon just two weeks earlier. The Mudcats posted the league's best regular season record at 80-58, a full five games ahead of second place Huntsville.

Brimming with confidence, the Mudcats sent ace Trevor Hutchinson to the mound for Game 1. A scoreless stalemate between Hutchinson and Stars' starter Ben Hendrickson lasted into the eighth inning. Carolina mounted nary a threat, with the Stars having the game's best scoring chance in the sixth. All-Star Dave Krynzell tripled against Hutchinson with two outs. Then, fellow All-Star J.J. Hardy smashed one to Willingham at third base. The Mudcats' third baseman made the tough play, keeping the game deadlocked.

In the Mudcats' eighth, Drew Niles and Ryan Jorgensen opened up play with consecutive singles. Next, Chip Ambres bunted down the third-base line, reaching base when Southern League MVP Corey Hart sailed the ball over the head of first baseman Brandon Gemoll. Taking advantage of Hart's miscue, Niles trotted home with the series' first run. After an intentional walk to fill the bases, Jesus Medrano singled in two runs for a 3-0 lead. Huntsville wouldn't go down easy though. In their half of the ninth, the Stars quickly hit up Mudcats' closer Mike Flannery for two runs. However, hard-throwing lefthander Franklyn Gracesqui struck out Milwaukee's top prospect, Brad Nelson, with runners at second and third to give Carolina a 1-0 series lead.

In game two, Carolina appeared on the verge of a nearly insurmountable 2-0 lead in the best-of-five series after taking a 4-1 lead into the bottom of the seventh inning. Starting pitcher Todd Moser gave up just a single run in five innings, fanning seven and pitching out of two bases loaded jams. However, the Stars showed their grit, tying the game 4-4 thanks to two untimely errors by Carolina in the last of the ninth (among six Mudcat errors in the contest). Heroics would come in the 11th inning, as light-hitting catcher Kade Johnson swatted reliever Jose Cueto's very first pitch of the game over the left field wall to even the series.

Five County Stadium would be the site for the final games of what was now a best-of-three series. Carolina started its winningest pitcher, Donnie Bridges (10-2), in game three, hoping to seize command of the series again. The Mudcats took a mid-game 3-0 lead behind a two-run homer by Chip Ambres, and Bridges was tossing no-hit ball through five innings. However, the wheels came off when Bridges hit the first batter of the sixth. Huntsville strung three successive doubles together, leading to five runs and a 6-3 come-from-behind victory. Suddenly, the Mudcats, the wire-to-wire league favorite, found themselves in an elimination game at their home park.

The game four starting baseball fell in the hands of Carolina's Nic Ungs, a 24-year-old native of Dyersville, Iowa, famous among baseball fans as the site of the "Field Of Dreams." And on this night, Ungs pitched like he invented the game. Three first-inning runs for Carolina may have quelled Ungs' nerves, as he was unhittable for most of the contest. Ungs tossed the game of his career - a complete game three-hitter in a 7-1 Mudcats' win. One game would decide the championship.

Sunday, September 14th. A sun-splashed afternoon featuring Carolina's game one starter Hutchinson trying for an encore performance. Retiring the first nine batters of the game, Hutchinson put the Mudcats in prime position to claim their first title since 1995. However, Carolina could do little with Huntsville's Greg Bruso. Just a week earlier, Bruso knocked Birmingham out of the playoffs. Facing Carolina for the first time in the championship series, he was looking for deja vu. It was not to be though, thanks to some clutch hitting from a gritty Mudcats' squad.

In the fifth inning, with championship pressure slowly building on every pitch, the Mudcats fired the first salvo. The rally began when it should have ended. With two outs and none on, Hutchinson - 0-6, with five strikeouts as a hitter in the regular season - surprised Bruso and the Stars with his second hit of the game. Jesus Medrano followed with a seemingly benign single. Ambres then coaxed a walk from Bruso to fill the bases for Carolina's home run leader, Matt Padgett. In a game where the trophy might conceivably ride on the flight of one pitch, that one pitch came to Padgett. Crushing a ball to the right field wall for a three-run double, Padgett provided the Mudcats with the boost they needed. Championship number two was now in sight for the Carolina faithful.

Nearly spent from running the bases the previous inning, Hutchinson faced just two hitters in the Stars' sixth, hitting a man and giving up a single. Manager Tracy Woodson, sensing the fatigue in Hutchinson, called on Sean Fesh for relief. Fesh, who appeared in each of the first three games of the finals, showed why he won team's MVP award last season. The 30-year-old, who had never won a title of any kind, ended the inning having only allowed one run. He then proceeded to work a perfect top of the seventh inning, while Padgett dealt the finishing blow in the bottom half with a two-out single to score Medrano. Armed with a 4-1 lead, Carolina turned the ballgame over to their bullpen stoppers.

Gracesqui put on a powerful display in the eighth inning, issuing nothing more than a harmless two-out walk. In the ninth, with all fans standing, Flannery entered for one of the more emotional appearances of his pro career. Guarding a 4-1 lead, he retired the first two batters with ease, only to have two consecutive errors committed by second baseman Medrano. The Stars had the tying run at the plate with the Mudcats still one out away from the title. Chris Barnwell lifted a deep fly into left-centerfield, but Ambres covered the ground and made the catch to clinch the 2003 Southern League Championship for Carolina. The Mudcats' players and fans could now breathe a sigh of relief and begin celebrating their first championship in nearly a decade.

As the champagne flowed on the field, the team hoisted the championship trophy and posed for a photo. In a surprise to no one, Trevor Hutchinson was named Championship Series MVP With stellar performances in two of Carolina's three victories, it would be hard to imagine a Mudcats' championship without Hutchinson.

Far away in Miami, two former Mudcats received cell phone updates throughout the game. Dontrelle Willis and Miguel Cabrera, along with the 40,000 fans at Pro Player Stadium, cheered raucously when the Mudcats' championship score was posted on the stadium scoreboard. Six weeks later, they were celebrating again, as the Florida Marlins won the second World Series in their short existence.

WESTON WILSON

2018 WILLIE DUKE AWARD WINNER

AWARDS

WILLIE DUKE AWARD

The Willie Duke award is presented annually to the Carolina Mudcats' player(s) who best symbolizes the spirit and dedication to baseball exhibited by Willie Duke. Known as "Mr. Baseball" for his tireless efforts promoting the game, Willie (1910-1993) was one of the "founding fathers" of the Raleigh Hot Stove League in 1950 and served as its President for many years. Known as "Mr. Baseball" in Raleigh, he was active in helping to organize and develop youth baseball programs such as Little League and American Legion Baseball in the Raleigh area.

Born in Franklin County on July 5, 1910, Willie moved to Raleigh and attended Hugh Morson High School. He played baseball and football at NC State and graduated in 1933. He received his Master's Degree from UNC.

Willie began his professional baseball career in 1934 and, except for an interruption while he served as a commissioned officer in the Navy during World War II, continued for almost 20 years. He never played in the Major Leagues, but he reached Triple-A in 1938 when he played for Minneapolis in the American Association. He batted in the "cleanup" spot behind future Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Willie also scouted for several major league teams and managed in the minor leagues. He skippered the Durham club in 1947-48 and 1951.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the Hwy 264 gate, located near the team administrative office. Credentials are available for pickup three hours prior to game time. Working credentials issued by Carolina Mudcats Media Relations or Major League Baseball/Minor League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored.

PRESS BOX

The Five County Stadium press box is located on the fourth floor behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio booths, have sliding windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The press box is a smoke-free environment. There are two radio booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media to the main concourse. The press box is equipped for wireless and wired internet access. Information on accessing the network is available upon request. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located near the team administrative office and beyond the left field wall. The visiting clubhouse is located beyond the right field wall. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access, by request, beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time (excluding morning and early afternoon first pitch times). The clubhouse closes one hour before first pitch and will remain closed through the game. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are all off limits to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the left field corner gate and steps leading from the respective dugouts on the third and first base sides. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 45 minutes prior to game time. The grounds crew and media relations department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

PARKING

Parking is available on the Hwy 39 and Old Hwy 264 sides of Five County Stadium. Local media is encouraged to park on the Hwy 264 side of Five County Stadium. No specific area is reserved for media parking. Season credentials double as a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a media list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

Photo wells are located on the first and third-base sides on the field near the dugouts. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wired and wireless internet is also available. Please check with Carolina Mudcats Media Relations for connection information.

POSTGAME ACCESS

By rule, clubhouses open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS

Press hospitality is open to those with a applicable credential issued by the Carolina Mudcats Media Relations Department or Major League/Minor League Baseball. Meal tickets will be provided beginning 1 1/2 hours prior to game time. Meal tickets can be obtained from the Carolina Mudcats Media Relations Department.

TELEVISION CREWS

Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Five County Stadium. Additional game highlights are available upon request.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Carolina Mudcats Media Relations Department. All single-game credential requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Credential requests can be made by contacting Gregory Young at (916) 804-8029 or by email at mudcatsradio@carolinamudcats.com. Daily credentials can be picked up at the main box office behind home plate no earlier than three hours prior to game time. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

PESCADOS DE CAROLINA - COPA DE LA DIVERSIÓN...

"Copa de la Diversión" is a season-long event series specifically designed to embrace the culture and values that resonate most with participating teams' local U.S. Hispanic/Latinx communities. Carolina's Pescados de Carolina, Copa de la Diversión identity is presented locally by the Dental Center at Zebulon and by ECHO Power Tools, the "Official Outdoor Power Tool of Copa de la Diversión" ("Herramienta Oficial de la Copa de la Diversión").

CAROLINA MICRO BREWS...

The Carolina Mudcats are brewing up a big change for the 2019 season as the club will re-brand for four nights this season (4/13, 5/9, 6/6, 8/1) as the "Carolina Micro Brews," paying homage to their Major League affiliate, the Milwaukee Brewers. The all-new Micro Brews moniker and brand features a blue and yellow color scheme designed after the Brewers. The new cap logo features an interlocking "M" and "B" logo for Micro Brews, while the jersey logo reads Micro Brews with a hop flower dotting the letter "i" in Micro. The front of the jersey also features the Mudcats logo and uniform number. The left-sleeve also features the interlocking M and B logo placed on a yellow and blue barrel, as well as blue and yellow piping along the edges of the sleeves.
