

Frequently Asked Questions

When should I contact an accountant?

When you are considering starting a business or need assistance with financial management, help with complex transactions, compliance, growth planning, or payroll matters.

How do I know which accountant is right for me?

Does your accountant timely return your calls?
Do you feel comfortable asking them financial questions?
Do you understand your business's income statement?
With the right accountant, the answer should be a resounding "Yes!"

What is the cost of private accounting?

Each business's accounting needs are unique.
Contact Valeriya for a personalized quote
for one-time or reoccurring accounting services.

