

thank you

~ a special 'THANK YOU' to Mama, Ken and Stone for their support during this entire process. Love you so, so much - but probably love Stone the most (you already know it's true).

~ a special 'THANK YOU' to Jacey for her demanding 'if you're going to do it, do it!' text...sounds so much like Daddy...and to Ole Burr for his reassuring 'we'll support you' and to Crab for being an unexpected cheerleader and his encouraging text messages.

~ a special 'THANK YOU' to Nina, Jakki, Penny, Steve, Aimee, Stevette, Jeanne, Sam, Andy, Mac, Emily, Chandler, Joey, Sonia, Johnny & Angie D. - and so many others that provided advice, encouragement and a ton of proofing and editing to nearly every single thing.

~ a special 'THANK YOU' to Cal (Photos by Cal) for the use of several pictures used on the website and for taking a few on special request...and he delivered perfectly. Thanks, Cal!

~ a special 'THANK YOU' to my Pastor, Brian and church family for immediately lifting me in prayer for this adventure and seeing me through the best times and the darkest times since the day I was born. They have never, ever let me down.

~ an extra special 'THANK YOU' to Daddy...for sharing some of your wonderful traits with me...your love for all people and your forgiving nature...I would have liked another inch or two in height and I'm not so fond of the gray hairs, but if I had to choose what God gave to me from you, then I would choose exactly what I was given....I love you and miss you.

~ last, but most important, 'THANK YOU' to God for all my blessings, trials and tribulations – the highs and the lows - each have been a gift in their own unique way even when I've failed to see it right away.

Angie