Dear faithful Patriots,

Kari Lake wins her day in court. We need a MAGA party.

Another great fundraiser. It is so much fun to be out there interacting with Yumans and all our visitors. And it's such fun to watch Jim and Donna Kopczynski work with the children who love to spin that wheel.

Donna's husband Ron worked the crowd and Michael Richards ran the voter registration booth.

Notice this week that even the left wing president of Mexico recogized the totally unAmerican plot to prevent Trump from getting his name on the ballot in 2024. Notice, too, that those election machines are accessed by a ton of biased groups. Our poling system is soooooo corrupt.

Well, read them all. There will be a test.

Colorado River Tea Party Minutes March 2, 2023

Jim called the meeting to order at 6:04 PM

Gilbert gave the Invocation

Big Wayne led us in the Pledge of Allegiance

Jim read the Mission Statement

Nikki read the minutes of the last meeting. The report was accepted and passed

Ruth read the Treasurers Report. Audit was completed and reconciled. Report accepted & passed.

John gave the Legislative Report with highlights of testimony at the AZ Senate and House Oversight hearings that Governor Katie Hobbs, several Maricopa County Supervisors and Runbeck election services may have accepted bribes from the Sinaloa cartel. Bribes are in the form of phony mortgages or deeds of trust which could expose massive corruption and collusion with money laundering and racketeering. A published list of those involved is available online.

Ways and Means: Carla made a plea for 2 volunteers to man our booth from 3 -6 PM on Saturday, March 11 at the BBQ and Brew Festival. We have new ladies scarves and ATV flags in our inventory.

Old Business: Don’t forget to volunteer and attend the BBQ & Brew Festival Friday 4-9 PM March 10 and Saturday, March 11 10AM-830PM.

New Business: Membership needs to vote at the April 6th meeting on an amendment to the bylaws to include the past chairman in executive meetings. Sheriff Wilmot’s video can be viewed on youtube.

Tim Dunn, District 25 Representative Arizona House, is our speaker this evening. He brought up the State of the State address given by Governor Hobbs who says she has an open door policy to work with Republicans and then vetos bills that they introduce. Her first priority is public education and she has removed the student voucher program. She will not approve the 1.3 billion proposed education cut and wants to increase the spending to address crowded classrooms, crumbling infrastructure and teachers salaries, hire more social workers and counselors. She has proposed adding 40 million for college scholarships to “Dreamers”. She is in support of women's rights through abortions. She mentioned her concerns about our severe water situation, housing situation for lower income families, and indicated we need to pass immigration reform so she is inviting Majorkas to visit the border with her. Representative Dunn said the bills passed recently in the House banned CRT, voter signature verification passed, the Secretary of State can’t oversee election felony, Cleaning up early voting list, early voting drop boxes now will be inside buildings, counties can do their own hand counting of ballots.

Good of the Order: Bruce Luna handed out information to make the Tea Party aware of a Same Sex Mock Wedding that was held at the Antelope High School in Welton on February 14th. Parents never notified & kids were not allowed to opt out. Concerned parents contacted the Superintendent and received no response and when showing up at the Board Meeting on the 21st were informed the time was changed to earlier and they were not permitted to speak. Lynette, the parent of a student from this school advised her child was given an assignment to give their opinion of banned books which had links for downloads so they could view pornographic pictures. When questioning the school principal she was advised they would not inform other parents and his lawyer advised not to inform the parents. Bruce is encouraging the public to call & file complaints with the Board. Neil presented his “Forbidden News Information” flyer with the latest insanity taking place. The Lincoln Day Dinner still has 2 spots available. See Tanya for tickets.

Jim made motion to adjourn at 7:40 PM. Gilbert seconded and someone seconded.

Mexico's Leftwing President AMLO Slams Trump Charges as 'Fabrication'

• by Kyle Becker March 22, 2023 Featured, Opinion

Mexico's President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador on Tuesday went on a rant against the United States, condemning the Biden administration for lecturing his government on human rights abuses when its own track record has been abysmal.

The leftwing president also slammed the Biden administration for targeting former U.S. President Donald Trump in a political prosecution that he called a "fabrication." "Right now, former President Trump is declaring that they are going to arrest him," López Obrador, also known by his initials AMLO, said during a press conference. "If that were the case...it would be so that his name doesn't appear on the ballot."

"I say this because I too have suffered from the fabrication of a crime, when they didn't want me to run," López Obrador added. "And this is completely anti-democratic.... Why not allow the people to decide?"

AMLO also dismissed a report on Mexico's corruption and human rights abuses by saying, "they're lying," and added the U.S. "believes it's the government of the world." "It's not worth getting angry about, that's just how they are," Lopez Obrador commented before meeting with former U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry in Mexico later on Tuesday. He added the report "is not true, they're liars."

woke

(adj.) The ability to see injustice or discrimination where it doesn't exist.

At Equity High School, a composite of leftist policies found across the country, students are not allowed to compete at all.

By Angela Morabito -- The Federalist

Woke school districts didn't happen overnight. Instead, the left gradually chipping away at merit-based policies forced excellence to give way to so-called "equity." Equity is an education jargon word that means lowering standards for students based on race.

Equity High Schools offer no honors classes. For students who excel in any subject, tough luck: The schools never gives out F grades as part of a plan to confront "systemic racism." (Ed. Note: What is more racist that that?)

The content of classes at this school deviates substantially from the core educational subjects. In math class, students are taught to examine their feelings and others' Social studies courses indoctrinate students with critical race theory. Science classes don't teach the biological differences between males and females, because doing so would be "transphobic" in the eyes of leftist administrators.

Classrooms are chaotic because "restorative justice" — or ending consequences for bad behavior — has replaced true discipline.

Access to Equity High's college prep services is restricted based on race and a student's perceived level of privilege. Virginia, issued invitations to college prep services that excluded white and Asian students unless a white or Asian student has a disability, is not a native English speaker, is socioeconomically disadvantaged, or would be the first in his family to go to college.

Equity High has no valedictorian, lest it single out one student for exemplary achievement. The school has given up on class rank, too, to prevent students from viewing each other as competitors.

Students need not pass a test to graduate. It is entirely possible to graduate from Equity High without ever learning to read, write, or do math, without any grades to reflect the lack of learning that has taken place.

The motivation behind "equity" policies is to make it impossible for students to fail. Instead, it makes it impossible for students to succeed.

In Brief: 42% of America's Murders Occur in 1% of Democrat Counties

America doesn't have a crime problem; it has a Democrat problem.

Patriot Post Editorial

Most Americans know that crime isn't epidemic in all of our nation's counties. Journalist Daniel Greenfield makes a compelling case that the real problem is Democrats.

He begins by highlighting the Democrat effort to "spin high crime rates caused by their pro-crime policies" as being "a Republican problem." Their lackeys in the media are all too happy to run interference. The truth, however, refutes this lie.

Take Oklahoma, for example, as New York Times columnist Paul Krugman recently did. He claimed, "Oklahoma's murder rate was almost 50 percent higher than California's, almost double New York's."

Krugman, who somehow has a Nobel Prize, failed to note that most of the murders were coming out of Oklahoma City and Tulsa. In last year's gubernatorial election, Republican Gov. Kevin Stitt won most of the state while Oklahoma, Tulsa and Cleveland counties however went to leftist Democrat Joy Hofmeister. The 'blue' parts of Oklahoma are also red with blood.

The bloody red counties include such Democrat strongholds as Philadelphia, New York City, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Dallas, D.C., Miami-Dade, Milwaukee, San Diego, St. Louis, Chicago's Cook County, Houston's Harris County, Detroit's Wayne County, Memphis' Shelby County, Phoenix's Maricopa County, Cleveland's Cuyahoga County, and many others.

Joe Biden easily won all of those counties, which account for huge percentages of their states' murders. "There isn't a red state murder problem," Greenfield says, "red states have a Democrat crime problem."

These numbers clearly show that America is not a violent country, that we do not have a crime problem and that gun culture is not the issue: crime culture in Democrat cities is the issue.

Why is this? Several reasons: Democrat politicians cater to the criminals overrunning their cities by either going easy on them or by criticizing and defunding police — problems that got exponentially worse as they fomented division based on racial grievances after the death of George Floyd. This isn't, contra Krugman, a mystery.

Greenfield concludes:

America could be a safe and pleasant place to live. And the majority of its counties, which are mostly Republican, are. Unfortunately many of its Democrat counties are broken places, packed with broken families, criminal cultures and leftist politicians who pander to the criminals.

And the party and its media cover it up with lies about systemic racism.

As David Horowitz warned in, 'I Can't Breathe: How a Racial Hoax Is Killing America', the consequences of these lies is more of the same misery, more crime and more death.

Virginia Democrats Attack Hindu Immigrant For Supporting The ‘Remarkable’ U.S. Constitution

They falsely claimed the Virginia Board of Education’s revised standards that Suparna Dutta helped draft would ‘whitewash’ education.

By Stephanie Lundquist-Arora -- The Federalist

Earlier this week, activists marched to the doors of a public hearing in Mt. Vernon, Va., beating on drums and yelling shrilly into the air in political theater over Virginia’s revised history and social science “standards of learning.”

Inside, local mother Suparna Dutta, whom the activists had recently smeared to defeat her nomination to the Virginia Board of Education, stood strong as a private citizen. She moved from the stage to the audience, firm as Democrat school board members, delegates, and activists lied at the podium. They falsely claimed the Board of Education’s revised standards that Dutta helped draft would “whitewash” education.

During the drafting process, Dutta courageously went toe-to-toe with Anne Holton, the wife of U.S. Sen. Tim Kaine, who sat like royalty at the dais at the Mt. Vernon meeting. Dutta, a Hindu immigrant from India, refuted Holton’s arguments that our nation’s founding documents are not remarkable and that socialism is compatible with our democracy.

During the Virginia Board of Education meeting on Feb. 1, Dutta had replied to Holton, “The Declaration and the Constitution ... are remarkable documents.” Dutta, who lived under socialism in India, continued, “Socialism is the nanny state ... which co-opts the important decisions belonging to families and individuals. It produces dependency and depression.”

In response, Holton’s supporters immediately organized a movement to reject Dutta’s appointment. Objecting to her perspective and audacity to stand up to the former first lady of Virginia, they claimed that the engineer and parent was not qualified to serve on the board.

Then they went even farther, defaming her all the way to the Virginia Senate floor. On Feb. 7, Virginia state Sen. Ghazala Hashmi introduced an amendment to remove Dutta from the board, citing an alleged affiliation with “very extreme and right-wing white supremacist groups.” The amendment passed on party lines, with every Democrat voting in favor.

With remarkable documents, our nation was founded on the ideals of political and individual freedom. At one time, we upheld the importance of free speech and the diversity of thought. Now, we are held hostage by an intolerant contingent that is beating a dangerous war drum for ideological conformity, even in K-12 education.

Parents could surrender, but, like Dutta, they showed up to refuse intellectual hegemony. It’s time to reevaluate what it means to be an American and stand up for freedom from Mt. Vernon to beyond.

EXCLUSIVE: ELECTION SYSTEM DISCOVERED
Used in MULTIPLE STATS
Internet Connected, Uncertified, and Accessible to Numerous Govt Agencies and Outside Entities

By Joe Hoft -- Gateway Pundit

Election experts in New Mexico established that the post-election canvass reports in all 33 New Mexico Counties are being illegally prepared. Complete election records are being uploaded to an uncertified, centralized software under the control of the Secretary of State (SOS) called SERVIS, (a program that was offered them FREE OF CHARGE!)

Use of any uncertified software for this part of the election process is a violation of federal and state law. And according to state law, the SOS is not to have access to the complete election record from any county until the election has been certified.

According to the BPro website, TotalVote is a “centralized voter registration and election management system that securely captures and manages voter, candidate, and all election information. It is the only software system that encompasses the entire election process into one system.” (emphasis added).

TotalVote has no Election Assistance Commission (EAC) certifications whatsoever. Meaning it does not comply with the Help America Vote Act and it has never been tested by any accredited third party. However, as previously established, it is certainly touching parts of the election that require certification.

To date, New Mexico has paid BPro a total of $2,722,939 for the development and upkeep of SERVIS necessary to utilize their “gift” of TotalVote.

The most disturbing discovery by far was this slide, titled “Protecting the Dominion Server Air Gap,” from internal training documents. It shows the clerks how they are to transfer their data from their Dominion Server to the SERVIS system and back again:

The SERVIS program is internet-connected, uncertified, and accessible by all county clerks, the SOS’s office, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and potentially others such as ERIC, VIP, and “registration agents” according to the BPro contracts.

The public, who has paid for its creation, has no way of knowing whether SERVIS can be trusted since it has never been tested to EAC standards, even though it handles parts of the election that are subject to federal oversight.

Facts would suggest that the “gift” of BPro’s TotalVote software could be a Trojan horse that is being used to subvert New Mexico’s elections. And this issue affects more than just New Mexico. The BPro platform is used in at least 15 other states, including Arizona and Nevada – two states that “stopped counting” in the middle of the night and took days to report their election results in 2020, with Arizona repeating the exercise in both the primary and general 2022 elections.

Americans must demand that their election data be held entirely within their counties as the law requires.
