Colorado River Tea Party Minutes October 6, 2022 Meeting

Jim called the meeting to order at 6:05 PM

Cecil gave the Invocation

Big Wayne led us in the Pledge of Allegiance

Jim welcomed new guests.

Gilbert moved that that we conduct our Tea Party business after our guests have spoken. Cora Lee seconded, and the motion passed.

Mayor Nicholls said there was a 20 point spread between him and his opponent in the mayoral election and thanked his constituents for supporting him.

He does not endorse city council candidates but encouraged all Tea Party members to show up at the forums and become familiar with each candidate and the issues they support.

The mayor discussed a number of issues:

- 1. He encouraged a yes vote on two propositions. 416 is the City of Yuma General Plan that provides guidance for social, economic, environmental and overall physical development of the City of Yuma consisting of transportation, land use, public safety, parks and redevelopment areas. Proposition 417 is the continuation of the 2% hospitality tax which funds parks and recreation, tourism and the Yuma Crossing National Heritage area. This is a tax levied on hotels, bar and restaurants and applies more to tourists and winter visitors frequenting these establishments.
- 2. October 22 - Mayors Bike Ride with with 5 short stops and crossing the border for tacos and beer. This is a family event to show unity in Yuma county. Event starts at the Convention Center at 7 AM and the ride starts at 8 AM.
- 3. The Yuma Neighborhood Leadership Academy course offers a 13 week program Thursday nights starting in January. The course gives the citizens a chance to get behind the scenes of the City of Yuma departments and services. Contact the mayor at Douglas.Nicholls@yumaz.gov if interested.
- 4. Water issues - The EPA determined that water transfer to Queen Creek in Maricopa County has no environment impact. Hedge funds from out of state owns GSA farms in La Paz county. They are selling the water rights on this land to Queen Creek for 20 million to help grow the population. Yuma has senior rights to the water due to agriculture but Maricopa wants senior rights. This is an ongoing issue in the state.

5. Arizona Border - 700 to 900 illegals are crossing every day. Containers protect the most active areas but the border is still not secure and high numbers of fentanyl and meth are still getting through. Yuma County has spent 20 million in the last six months for illegals at local hospitals with 1.5 million for infant deliveries. The county has not been reimbursed by the Federal Government despite numerous attempts made by Mayor Nicholls contacting the Secretary of State's office. He will attempt to contact the White House.

Sheriff Wilmot said regional sheriffs met recently to discuss Arizona border issues. He said Chris Magnus, the former police chief of Tucson was chosen by Biden to lead Customs and Border Protection in April. Sheriff Wilmot said Magnus is not effective and wants to get rid of the sheriffs. Others say he will simply advance the Biden administration's open-borders policies. Overdoses from fentanyl are worse than ever and the administration is doing nothing to stop it.

The Sheriff and Police Departments are starting the "Coffee With A cop" events again. This is a no agenda or speeches event, just a chance to ask questions, voice concerns and get to know the officers in your neighborhood. Go to the website for more information. yumacountysheriff.org.

Tanya Wright spoke briefly about the event she organized last week for the City Council candidates at the One America Center downtown Yuma. Six candidates participated in a "speed dating" type of questions and concerns for each candidate. There was a turnout of around 100 in attendance.

We resumed business as usual.

Nikki read the Minutes of the September 15th meeting and said the Ways and Means committee needs volunteers to help contribute desserts at our meetings. We will pass around a sign up sheet for volunteers at the next meeting. Baking is not necessary. Fry's makes great desserts! Jim motioned to accept the report, Carla seconded, motion passed.

Matt gave the treasurer's report and indicated we issued a disbursement donation to the church for use of our meeting room twice a month. He has found a reliable priced computer and printer at Sam's Club and will purchase upon member approval. Jim added we need to alleviate having our treasurer using their own equipment at home and store financial information on personal computers plus printing reports at their place of employment. Neal moved to accept the report, Arlene seconded, Motion passed.

Jim said Cora Lee will be the chair for the Nominating Committee and we need a total of 3 members on the committee. Positions open are Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, Ways and Means Chairman. Nomination for officers is October 29th meeting, election is the 1st meeting in December. Contact Cora Lee at 928-580-5575 to nominate candidates for these positions.

We have revised our Tea Party bylaws since we are now a 501C4 instead of a 501C3 organization. You should have received an email with the new bylaws. They will also be included in the next newsletter. Members should read the report and be ready to vote on it next month.

Carla reported that Ways and Means Committee has new hats and flags and we will have merchandise at the Tacos and Tunes event this Saturday, October 8 from 10 AM-9PM.

Yuma County Fair is October 13 through 16. The GOP has a booth and needs volunteers. Call Bonnie Knight 928-920-2629.

Paul Gosar and Tim Dunn will be at our Tea Party Church (Community Christian Church) October 24th from 10 to 11:30 AM for an event with the Alzheimer's Assoc.

Neal Rowe concluded the evening to advise he is the new Web Master for our website (coloradoriverteparty.com). He spent a few minutes to update us on pertinent information to keep us abreast of the current dark news of the day, accessing debates you may have missed, how to get involved in securing our elections and the next TRUMP RALLY in Mesa, AZ this Sunday, October 9 starting at 4:00 PM. You can also watch this on the Newsmax Channel if you have Direct TV.

Jim adjourned the meeting at 7:55 PM and we experienced a nice cool breeze. Fall is coming!

Respectfully Submitted,
Nikki Pol

The Premeditated Murder of the American Family

By Joan Swirsky

In 1959, I was 18, newly married to my former boyfriend of four years, and thrilled to be starting my “grown-up” life with the man of my dreams. Little did my then-apolitical self know that the close of that halcyon decade had been preceded by nearly a century of a concerted effort to destroy the American family, an effort fueled by the same fanatical Communist zealots who now occupy the Oval Office of the United States of America!

Now why would anyone—much less a huge number of people—want to destroy the greatest and most successful experiment in government in world history.

Simply, because it flew in the face of every political system that previously existed—monarchies, dictatorships, oligarchies, aristocracies, totalitarianism, communism, socialism—systems in which the immense power and abuse-of-power that these regimes exercised would be vanquished if replaced by the Power of the People that the Founding Fathers of America envisioned.

The mission of those other regimes was never ever about concern for their populaces; rather it was—and is today—purely about the acquisition and maintenance of power and control and especially the immense wealth that comes with both power and control. Always, always, always follow the money!

HOW CAN WE DESTROY AMERICA?

The enemies of America thought long and hard about how to destroy this fledgling experiment. It was clear to them that America's strength was a function of three phenomena:

1. A fervent belief in the God
2. An equally ardent belief in and passion for the concept of Freedom.
3. The most passionate was the embrace, belief, and allegiance to family, its sanctity, its strength, its ability to weather all storms and overcome all obstacles.

If we destroy all three, our enemies reasoned, the masses they considered essentially stupid would be forced to rely exclusively on Big Government. And so, to this day, the socialists-cum-communists among us are employing--as their predecessors did-- every malevolent, criminal, and vicious tactic they can muster to actualize that goal.

China's Drug Attack on the US by Lawrence Kadish

As a leading global manufacturer of fentanyl, which is being smuggled into the US in massive quantities, China is unique in appreciating just how destabilizing such a drug can be to a nation.

The Chinese have a very long memory. And a strong sense of history. If only Americans possessed both, for we would be able far better to understand the enormous consequences of the lethal drug abuse harming America from the massive quantities of death-dealing fentanyl being smuggled into our country, with its origins often a Chinese lab.

The Chinese know full well that a society's addiction to drugs can unravel a proud nation, stripping away its very sovereignty. When opium was brought to China in the 1700s, the British quickly used the drug as a means of gaining an economic advantage over its new trading partner. The addiction to the drug was so explosive that the Chinese emperor eventually sought to ban it. When his military destroyed warehouses full of the drug, the British responded with a crushing naval attack that became known as a series of Opium Wars.

Other Western nations followed Britain's lead, but it was England that forced a humiliating treaty on the Chinese, and evidently that cause-and-effect has never been forgotten by today's Chinese rulers.

So as a leading global manufacturer of fentanyl, China is unique in appreciating just how destabilizing such a drug can be to a nation.

Defund The IRS: GOP Has A Duty To Curb The Runaway Agency

Either having forgotten or maybe entirely unaware of why the colonies fought for independence, Joe Biden said some years ago that paying higher taxes was “patriotic.” Now as president, Biden wants to enforce his version of patriotism by siccing the IRS on the country. If only we could declare our independence from politicians so ravenous for other people’s money that they’ll say and do anything.

There are reasons to rein in, and, as soon as possible, replace the IRS with a new arm of the state that is less abusive, whose employees are less antagonistic toward their fellow Americans, will no longer perform “root-canal audits,” will never again violate our privacy, and can’t be used to crush political foes and critics of the establishment.

For instance, the system we have now that is administered by the IRS:

- Requires Americans to spend more than 6.5 billion hours complying with tax filing and reporting requirements, the equivalent, says the Tax Foundation, to “3.1 million full-time workers doing nothing but tax return paperwork.”
- Causes millions of taxpayers to waste millions of hours holding for phone calls before giving up. According to the National Taxpayer Advocate, IRS “assistors” answer only 9% or 10% of the calls that come in.
- Produces audits that are incorrect 60% to 90% of the time.
- Obliges “citizens [to] surrender 100% of their personal privacy to the federal government in order to facilitate tax preparation,”
- Assumes “you are guilty until you prove yourself innocent.”
- Trips up Americans with a tax code that was changed more than 5,900 times from 2001 to 2019.

To understand the woke, you have to understand The Culture of Narcissism

By Mark Judge

The nature of the Left in 2022 is rooted more in psychology than political science. Specifically, liberalism is suffering from narcissism. To understand how, it's essential to grasp the true meaning of narcissism. In its clinical definition, narcissism is not self-love — it's the opposite. The narcissist isn't full of ego. Rather, he has no real sense of self. Where the self would be is emptiness, which results in a mad effort to fill the psyche with meaning. Lacking a stable and confident sense of identity, the narcissist hunts for meaning in therapy, self-help, sex, or radical politics. None of these can give meaning to empty lives.

(What caused the problem?)

Formerly, the presence of potent but fallible individuals, economically self-sufficient, with final legal and moral authority over their children's upbringing, provided one kind of template for the growing child's psychic development. As fathers (and increasingly mothers) become employees, with the family's economic survival dependent on remote, abstract corporate authorities, and as care-taking parents were increasingly supervised or replaced by educational, medical, and social-welfare bureaucracies, the template changed. The child now has no human-size authority figures in the immediate environment against which to measure itself and so reduce its fantasies to human scale. As a result, it continues to alternate between fantasies of omnipotence and helplessness. This makes acceptance of limits, finitude, and death more difficult, which in turn makes commitment and perseverance of any kind — civic, artistic, sexual, parental — more difficult.
