The Dunn/Gosar meeting about Alzheimer's was very informative. We are fortunate to be the one state that has day care for adults. We are the only state that covers the cost of Alzheimers testing. Yuma has lots of help. Contact WACOG. You'll be surprised. 928 782 1886.

Our intent is to give you a tase and let you follow the trail to full artiles. However, I couldn't find a way to meaningfully cut "The Party of Perverts" so I plugged in the whole thing.

We've got a big job ahead of us.

God will Bless us One and All .

RECOMMENDED POSITIONS

Proposed Constitutional Amendments

PROP 128 ✓ VOTE YES

Allows the legislature to amend ballot measures that the Arizona or US Supreme Court has determined contains unconstitutional or illegal language.

PROP 129 ✓ VOTE YES

Requires ballot initiatives to pertain to a single subject, the same requirement for bills passed in the legislature.

PROP 130 (NO POSITION)

Consolidates property tax exemptions and allows for veterans to be exempted from property tax.

PROP 131 (NO POSITION)

Creates the office of the Lieutenant Governor, who would run on the same ticket as the Governor and would take over existing powers within the state government, such as running the Department of Administration.

PROP 132 ✓ VOTE YES

Requires any new tax or tax increase on the ballot to receive at least 60% of the vote to pass.

Proposed Laws

PROP 308 ✗ VOTE NO

Allows individuals here illegally to receive taxpayer subsidized tuition at our universities.

PROP 309 ✓ VOTE YES

Is the Arizonans for Voter ID Act ensuring all in-person voters show valid, government issued photo ID and creates ID requirements for voting by mail.

PROP 310 ✗ VOTE NO

Increases the statewide sales tax by 0.1% resulting in a nearly $200 million tax increase to fund fire districts statewide.

PROP 209 ✗ VOTE NO

Excuses people from having to pay their debt which will increase inflation, make it harder to access credit, and shift the burden to the taxpayers who do pay their bills.

PROP 211 ✗ VOTE NO

Requires private organizations to disclose donors to the government if they spend more than a certain amount in any given election, violating the constitutional right to privacy and association.

Colorado River Tea Party
Minutes October 20, 2022

Jim called the meeting to order at 6:05 PM

Cecil gave the invocation

Big Wayne led us in the Pledge of Allegiance

Jim read the Mission Statement

We had four new guests and one official at our meeting this evening.

Nikki read the minutes of the October 6th meeting. A date correction was made for the Executive Board nominations from October 29 to November 17th. Motion was made to accept minutes, seconded and the motion passed.

Matt gave the Treasurers Report. A check was written to Carla for the Tacos and Tunes booth and to Constant Contact for a six month period to pay for our Tea party newsletter. Gilbert motioned to accept, Big Wayne seconded and the motion passed.

Carla with Ways and Means said she has bags for Door Knocking and Trump All Aboard buttons still available. We have new bumper stickers, hats and new Trump hats in our inventory. Carla is asking for volunteers to take over the Ways and Means Committee and will help anyone interested for the first few months.

Cora Lee is heading up the Nomination Committee for Executive Officers and has two other members on her committee. Contact her if you are interested in running.

Jim mentioned we had a good turnout at the Tacos and Tunes event last weekend. There were 17,000 people attending. The Tea Party handed out 678 American flags plus prizes to the kids who were able to answer questions about our Government, the U.S. Constitution, the Presidents and the American flag. We signed up 12 new Tea Party members and 3 new voter registrations.

Jim introduced Robert Scarborough, who is running for one of the 3 available seats for Yuma City Council. Robert is a businessman who runs Green Trees Grocery and The Furniture Depot in Yuma. Robert has been involved with the Freedom Library for years. He and Howard Blitz have taught 9 classes at elementary schools throughout Yuma. He is ultra conservative and feels the city should be run like a business. His message is that the city spends too much money on frivolous things and we waste money. We need to keep government out of our lives.. The Hotel Del Sol and transportation hub projects are senseless and a big waste of the tax payers money. There are only 10 people a day that use the rail service and there is no partnership from the rail or bus companies. Taxpayers would be on the hook to finance and maintain these projects.

Greg Wilkinson educated us on the November 2022 Ballot Measures and recommended positions by the Republican Committee. The 100 series are Constitutional Amendments, 200 series are Citizens Initiatives, 300 series are Legislature Initiatives and 400 series are Local Ballot and Local City. Greg urged us to read each of these ballot measures and decide for ourselves but also recommended what the party recommends and the hidden agendas.

Cora Lee gave a shout out to Winnie and Wreaths Across America and said every grave in Yuma was covered last year. Gilbert motioned for the Tea Party to donate funds this year to meet that same goal. Arlene seconded and the motion passed. Cora Lee will have a list in the newsletter of all the activities coming up. Neal gave us our "Weekly Dose of Insanity" and advised to purchase the Alex Jones book, The Great Reset and watch the Anthony Fauci movie. Jim adjourned the meeting at 7:40 PM.

Respectfully Submitted
Nikki Pollard - Secretary

Ukraine vs Russia...The Bigger Picture

by Craig Andresen

Like it or not, we're involved in the war between Ukraine and Russia. Right now, we're supplying Ukraine with arms and cash to the point we're actually supporting Ukraine's national budget, and while arguments can certainly be made that we have our own financial issues to deal with aside from propping up another country, we believe that may be a bit short-sighted.

closing, we would be remiss not to mention that the world is watching how we respond to Putin's aggression and specifically, China is watching to see if there is any change after our midterm election. If the House and the Senate turn red, but the status quo with regard to our involvement short of boots on the ground remains the same, China will be emboldened to move against Taiwan before the 2024 election regardless of Putin's losses in Ukraine. On the other hand, sending Ukraine the military hardware necessary to bring about a rapid end to the war would have the effect of dampening China's desire to engage in expansion.

We are on the cusp of dire things and a failure by the U.S. to force an end to the aggression of one of the world's most dangerous actors could well lead us where no one wants to go...WWIII.

And that is the bottom line.

The Lawyers' Party

By Bruce Walker

The Democratic Party has become the Lawyers' Party. Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton are lawyers. Bill Clinton and Michelle Obama are lawyers. John Edwards, the other former Democrat candidate for president, is a lawyer and so is his wife Elizabeth. Every Democrat nominee since 1984 went to law school (although Gore did not graduate.) Every Democrat vice presidential nominee since 1976, except for Lloyd Bentsen, went to law school. Look at the Democrat Party in Congress: the Majority Leader in each house is a lawyer.

The Republican Party is different. President Bush and Vice President Cheney were not lawyers, but businessmen. The leaders of the Republican Revolution were not lawyers. Newt Gingrich was a history professor; Tom Delay was an exterminator; and Dick Armey was an economist. House Minority Leader Boehner was a plastic manufacturer, not a lawyer. The former Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist is a heart surgeon.

Who was the last Republican president who was a lawyer? Gerald Ford, who left office thirty-one years ago and who barely won the Republican nomination as a sitting president, running against Ronald Reagan in 1976. The Republican Party is made up of real people doing real work. The Democratic Party is made up of lawyers. Democrats mock and scorn men who create wealth, like Bush and Cheney, or who heal the sick like Frist, or who immerse themselves in history like Gingrich.

For the rest of the story click here.

Perhaps Americans will understand that change cannot be brought to our nation by those lawyers who already largely dictate American society and business. Perhaps Americans will see that hope does not come from the mouths of lawyers but from personal dreams nourished by hard work. Perhaps Americans will embrace the truth that more lawyers with more power will only make our problems worse.

The only bird that will peck at an Eagle is a crow. He will sit on his back and bite at his neck. The Eagle does not respond or fight with the crow. It does not waste time or energy on the crow. The Eagle simply opens its wings and flies higher in the sky. The higher the Eagle flies, the harder it is for the crow to breathe. Eventually the crow will fall back to earth due to the lack of oxygen. My friends, stop wasting your time with the crows in your life. Just take them to new heights and they will fade away.

Biden Says Trumpism Is America's Sickness, But Leftist Cancer Is What's Really Killing Us

:BEN CARSON

We are beyond the point of sugarcoating or minimizing the profoundly destructive effects of the left on American society.

Every American should recognize that the political left is an aggressive, life-threatening cancer and that extraordinary measures are necessary. This is a harsh but accurate diagnosis. Again, cancer can't be reasoned with or persuaded of its ill effects.

Americans must rise up in November in the biggest red wave of our lifetimes and send an unmistakable message to every leftist in Congress, in state capitals, and on city councils and school boards. Instead of allowing cancer to grow and multiply in our communities and our institutions, we must continue to fight it. Peaceful revolution is our goal. But enough Americans are aware of the results of unchecked leftism and won't let America turn into Kiev in 1932 or Chongqing in 1960. We must preserve freedom for our progeny. May God bless our efforts.

The Party of Perverts

By Ilana Mercer

Our 'Democracy' Is Just Fine, It's Democrats That Are Threatened

Edgar Allan Poe's "The System of Dr. Tarr and Prof. Fether" tells of inmates in an asylum who overpower their wardens, tar and feather them, throw them into underground cells, and proceed to have "a jolly season of it" without them. The finer point of Poe's short story is that, to the objective observer come to visit, there is little to distinguish lunatic from ostensibly sane overlord.

No such risk exists in the case of the Democrats, dreadful curs that they are (with apologies to the canine community).

Not so long ago I held out hope that ordinary Democrats would be put off by the crude displays coming from the demented, intersectional, social-injustice succubae overcrowding the Democratic Party and its media phalanx. This has not happened. The Democrats have only normalized and streamlined their dystopian operation. This is a party that stands for losing robbers, rapists, killers and perverts on the land.

And not nearly enough is said about the party's sexual politics.

Twerking tush in front of school kids is indecent exposure. It used to be illegal, certainly and indisputably immoral. But thanks to the Democrats' sexual proclivities and politics, we have other-gendered people inflicting their kinks on kids, under the guise of education. The same American children can't read, write or do arithmetic, but are No. 1 in pornography and Critical Race Theory.

It's the Democrats' doing. To them, all this is just orientation day at kindergarten—they have not a bad word to say about turning school children into the captive audience and playthings of perverts and ethnocidally antiwhite agitators, posing as educators.

Invite adult onanism and sexual acting-out into the schools. Break down boundaries of propriety—those between generations, between what is public and what has always been private; between what is proper and improper; legal and illegal: That's the Democrats distilled.

As 2022's midterm election campaigns have worn on and are now winding down, it is becoming clear that there is a rising crop of scrappy Republicans willing to put up a fight, rather than just "reach across the aisle," as has been the perennial custom of our people. They are "not backing down" is how the feistiest of TV talkers, Tucker Carlson, described these America First Republicans. However, "not backing down" is still merely treading water. How about showing how the Democrats' actions and arguments over two years are as diabolical as they are demonic.

Yet Republicans miss the mark and slide into extenuation: They call the Democrats "radicals," their agenda a "radical one," when the Democrat Party appears to have become the party of perverts.

To label Democrats as radicals is to compliment them. I'm a radical reactionary; a radical for free-speech, a radical for property rights, for localism, for individual liberty. See what I mean? The "radical" adjective is not necessarily pejorative.

Why, then, are Republicans not calling them out as the party of sexual-offenders-by-proxy, of violent criminals, outlaws and scofflaws?

Their Democrat platform, after all, is one that promises to end Anglo-America, welcome the world, evict the unborn as a constitutionally enshrined right, while sundering the Bill of Rights and reveling in all manner of evil, criminal and carnal.

Will Elon Musk Save the First Amendment?

by Bruce Thornton 12 Comment

Elon Musk's acquisition of Twitter was finalized last Friday, and the world's richest man confirmed his reason for doing so: "I acquired Twitter because it is important to the future of civilization to have a common digital town square, where a wide range of beliefs can be debated in a healthy manner, without resorting to violence." Musk is reacting to Twitter's blatantly politicized censorship and bullying of conservatives and others who publicize opinions that challenge or expose progressive Democrats' orthodoxy.

Here's hoping that Musk keeps his nerve and reforms Twitter by purging its staff and policies that arrogantly run rough-shod over the First Amendment, based on their delusional belief that they are virtuous "brights" who are so certain of their superior knowledge that only they should be allowed to speak in the town square, and be charged with silencing heretics and blasphemers against their sacred narrative of "our democracy."

This link between free speech and political freedom, moreover, arose in ancient Athens, the first government ever to allow non-elites, or the demos, the masses, to become citizens who voted, deliberated, consented to the laws, and served in offices. No matter how low their birth, how lacking in education, or poor, they were politically equal and free.

Comedy and other genres like satire, then, have been foundational to democracy and republics from the beginning. They are important mechanisms for keeping politicians accountable to the people by humiliating them publicly and mocking their pretensions of importance and superior knowledge. Hence the use of scatological and sexual humor for 2500 years: those universal human functions reinforce the central assumption especially of representative government that all citizens are politically equal. As Lenny Bruce joked, there no man no matter how powerful who won't get on his knees and beg a woman to "just touch it." The sordid and humiliating sexual exploits of JFK and Bill Clinton confirm this eternal truth.

Needless to say, elites like Plato despised this freedom of all citizens to speak frankly and crudely to their betters. But Plato was a utopian, antidemocratic technocrat, like today's progressives who believe that "experts" and cognitive elites should govern the masses.

So why should we be surprised that tech moguls like Jeff Bezos and Bill Gates champion censoring news that challenges their political narratives and interest, or that Amazon censors books disliked by progressives?

If Elon Musk follows through and returns First Amendment rights to Twitter, he will be remembered for taking the war against censorship into one of its most consequential bastions. And let's not forget our delightful schadenfreude over watching the "woke" lose their, er, minds. As the show-tune has it, there's "no ordeal like the end of Camille."
