Here are just a few of the highlights of this clinic experience:

- learn about judging regular equitation versus IEA
- the tests the judges can ask
- strategies to be successful with your draw
- how to navigate judges comments

During the riding portion we will practice:

- how to ride your draw
- how to ride the track of the course
- how to perform tests
- how to improve your equitation

Welcome Danielle and Baby

This week we welcomed Danielle Slutzky and her boy After Hours aka "Baby" to the barn. Danielle shared, "I'm so excited to have Baby back home after his recuperation period. I am also thrilled to get back to both training and competing with my wonderful equine teammate! Additionally, I'm really looking forward to becoming a member of our growing team of fantastic amateur riders at BTS!

Ashley and Henry at the Las Vegas National

We wish to congratulate Ashley Andersen and Henry on their outstanding accomplishments at the Las Vegas National, AON/USHJA Championships in November!

This amazing team earned champion in the Children's Hunter 15 - 17 Championship by earning 1st place in the Handy, 1st in the Welcome O/F, 2nd in the Under Saddle, and 7th in the Classic. Her warm-up class was one for the books. She was 3rd out of 24 and the last rider at almost 11:00PM!

Ashley's favorite part of the week was having unlimited access to Henry any time of the day. Staying at South Point Hotel and Casino where the show was, was such a bonus. She only left the property one day for a few hours. The rest of the week was spent "enjoying the experience". Spending time with her barn mates and friends Kate and Mila was very special. It was nice for the girls to share the new experience together.

In Ashley's words, "there were too many special memories from the show that it is hard to pick a favorite". "I couldn't have asked for a better horse."

The week overall was the experience of a lifetime for Ashley with the fantastic ending! She was thrilled to have the opportunity to participate in the show and the successes were just a bonus. Lots of joy and happy emotions bundled into an amazing memory filled week!!

We are so proud of Ashley's hard work and her accomplishments over the season. This was a wonderful way to celebrate this team! Way to go Ashley and Henry!
