A Note from the Director

I watched the movie The Sound of Music for the first time in the 90s during an early morning babysitting gig, most likely wearing neon shorts, sporting a perm, and drinking an Ecto Cooler KoolAid. I was mesmerized by Julie Andrew's angelic voice, the puppets in the Lonely Goatherd, the romantic gazebo scene, and the handsome Christopher Plummer.

*It wasn't until the SCCT theatre performed the show 20 years later that I finally saw the stage version. If you're like me and you are more familiar with the movie than the stage production, I can assure you that you will still hear many of the same unforgettable songs. (Just a warning they may not be where you expect them to be). You will get to know some delightful characters better (Max and Elsa). You will cheer on Maria as she overcomes fear and chooses to leave the safety of the abbey for the unknown. And if you're really like me, you will be deeply moved by Captain Von Trapp's decision to defy a cruel, powerful regime and remain steadfast to his core beliefs - family, loyalty, and integrity. I am honored to work with this incredible cast and crew.
Thank you for supporting your local community theatre. I hope you enjoy the show.*

A Note from the Music Director

I'm thrilled to be working on my first show with SCCT! In the past, I've directed The Sound of Music, Little Shop of Horrors, and 12 Angry Men at Le Mars Community High School. Some of my favorite roles on stage have been Natalie in Next to Normal and Medium Alison in Fun Home with the Coe College Theatre Department.

Outside of theater, I teach high school vocal music at Le Mars Community High School. I also love ice skating, reading, caring for my houseplants, and spending time with my three cats and my husband, Jordan.

Thank you to Andrea Rohlena for this amazing opportunity!

- Josie

A Note from the Choreographer

I've been delighted to work with SCCT's Sound of Music! I graduated from West High School and will be attending AMDA NYC this fall to study dance theatre and psychology. My recent choreography credits include Hometown: Teen Edition (West High School), Mean Girls: High School Version (LAMB Theatre), and Disney's The Little Mermaid (West High School).

I've trained with Contemporary Dance Studio and Jensen Performing Arts Center, where I've participated in competitions, conventions, master classes, and United by the Arts events with well-known choreographers.

I'm so grateful to the cast for all their hard work and to my family and friends for their endless support. @Reyganmann
