A Note from the Director

Welcome!

I've wanted to direct Ride the Cyclone for three years. It's a weird, hilarious, and heart-breaking honest show about what happens after the unthinkable, and how we make peace with the versions of ourselves we never got to be.

This show, which gained most of its audience through viral videos on TikTok, is about so much more than viral soundbites. It's about hope. About small-town kids dreaming big, about how art and friendship can make something extraordinary out of the ordinary. That's what this community theater does best, and what this cast has done every night.

This show has lived rent-free in my (and my other chronically online people's) head for years. I'm so grateful it finally got to live here, too.

Now sit back, relax; please remain seated with your hands, arms, feet, and legs inside the vehicle at all times; and enjoy the ride!
