A Note from the Adapter

Romeo & Juliet has always been my favorite Shakespeare play, but for me personally, I also grew up with Shakespeare modernly adapted into today's pop culture with movies like Romeo + Juliet, 10 Things I Hate About You, She's The Man among others. So having the opportunity to adapt a Shakespeare play was a dream to give it an edgy twist to the classic we know and love!

This show is the text of Shakespeare of Romeo and Juliet we all know, but instead of Verona being a bustling city in Italy, Verona is a local music venue (think The Marquee). With our Romeo, a punk with a bit of a melancholy to his attitude. And Juliet, a product of yacht rock loving Capulet with an edge unapproved by her father, share a forbidden love.

This has been my personal love letter to punk and counterculture of the 20th century I've followed since I was a teen, as well as my love for a classic love story, I'm grateful for the Sioux City community theater for the opportunity to bring this to life

Lace up your boots, put your finest fishnets, and give that Mohawk a good spray of Aquanaut and experience Romeo and Juliet like never before!
