A Note From The Director

Thank you for coming to The Pillowman. If you are joining us for the first time, we are very excited to be your first Black Box production. Also thank you for helping us start off OUR third season here at the Tom Peterson Black Box.

This show was in short a monster to put on. It challenged us as a whole creatively, emotionally and physically. This cast and crew has worked so hard and we all hope you are willing to take a journey with us as we tell one of the most thought provoking shows we have ever encountered.

Thank you again and we hope you enjoy the show.

A Note From The Director

Thank you for joining us for The Pillowman! I'm so excited to kick off our third season of Black Box productions, and we truly appreciate your continued support. If this is your first time joining us, welcome!

This talented group of actors has worked incredibly hard to bring this emotionally complex and thought-provoking story to life. The Pillowman is a show that challenges us, makes us question what we see, and hopefully stays with us long after the curtain closes.

Thank you for being here, supporting local theatre, and helping us continue to grow. We hope you enjoy the show!

- Marcos Alvarez

Cast Biographies

Andrew Gerodias

Andrew Gerodias has been involved in theatre from a young age, performing in community theatre, school productions, and throughout college. After a lengthy break from the stage, he returned to performing at SCCT. Outside of theatre, Andrew works in higher education and mental health counseling and enjoys staying involved in the arts.

Benjamin Feeken

Benjamin Feeken recently graduated from Morningside University with a bachelor's degree in Music and History in May of 2026. He currently works at KTIV as a sales assistant. He has enjoyed doing multiple musicals at Sioux City Community Theatre!

Daylynn Williams

Daylynn William is a junior at South Sioux City High School, where she participates in theatre and serves as Speech Captain for the SSCHS Speech Team. This production is her first community theatre experience, and she is excited to join the local theatre community. She thanks everyone for their support!

Kristina Weber

Kristina is a Siouxland native who first found her love for acting over 20 years ago as a jitterbug in SCCT's mainstage production of The Wizard of Oz. It was love at first sight and since then she has performed in dozens of shows, most recently: Almost Maine, Dark Whispers of Edgar Allen Poe, Chicago, and MOMologues. Kristina is thrilled you're here and can't wait to freak you out. ENJOY THE SHOW!

Ross Hildebrand

Ross has worked at Vizio in the Dunes for a couple of years. He has called the area home for the past few years, living here with his wife and 1-year-old son.

Ross's last time on stage was back in high school, where he had the opportunity to perform in plays and musicals including "Kamp Krazy", "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown", and "The Lone Ranger". After some time away, he's thrilled to return to the theatre and be part of The Pillowman!

Steve Smith

I've been working at KWIT here in Sioux City for years reading news, doing a weekly blues show and handling operations and managerial duties.

I have two girls, one in med school in Des Moines and the other at Western Iowa Tech.

I first started at community theatre last year for Night of the Living Dead and was also in Urinetown playing Old Man Strong.

Wyatt Randeris

Wyatt Randeris is currently a Senior studying Finance and Mathematics at Morningside University. Randeris previous credits include Sound of Music, The Normal Heart, Almost Maine, Die Fleudermas, Ubu Anew (A play for strange people), and Be More Chill.

Kindly return your Playbills to the entrance of the theatre. We will reuse them for our upcoming shows. Thank you for your cooperation.
