Cast Biographies

Alex Harder
Alex is very excited to be in a production where she gets to sing super low notes and eat food! You may have seen her in previous productions, including Evil Dead, Abigail, For Now, Pirates of Penzance, and Little Women.

Amanda Gerodias
Amanda's excited to bring this show to life for you. She's been loving the challenge of playing multiple roles for this production. She's very grateful for her girls helping to babysit their brother so mom can attend rehearsals, and her husband for all his love and support.

Augie Nicolai
He is excited and thankful to be back on the Community Theatre stage with a great cast. His favorite role will always be being Grandpa (Pap) to his grandsons Easton and Gabe. He is grateful for his wife's support in all his crazy adventures.

Blaze Trent
Blaze Trent is a student at WITCC. He is majoring in band instrument repair. This is his first production with SCCT. He has previously performed in Frozen, Descendants, Footloose, and Beauty and the Beast.

Erianah Austin
Erianah Austin is thrilled to return to SCCT! She is currently pursuing her BFA in Musical Theatre at USD. Notable credits include Mean Girls, Godspell, Bright Star and [title of show]. Love and thanks to her family, friends, and the cast! Enjoy the show!

Erin McSwain
I am a mid-Missouri girl chasing my love of theater finding myself in the middle of New York ... I mean Sioux City. Come see Rusty Harry Charlie Horse sing, dance, and shoot crap!

Isabella Contee
Isabella would like to thank Nathan Detroit for finally finding a place for the game–and the director for giving an Ox a chance to dance.

Jamie-Lynn Riffenberg
Jamie-Lynn hopes that her middle school choir teacher is thrilled now that she is exclusively singing tenor for a production and hopes you don't all swoon too hard with all the swagger she leaves on stage. Love these people involved with the show and love you. Have a blast.

Joey Martin
Joey is excited to be back after appearing as Urinetown's Ms. Pennywise! Favorite roles include Next to Normal's Diana and 9 to 5's Judy. She loves performing, choreographing, and having no free time. Huge thanks to her husband Jared for supporting her theater addiction and her cats for tolerating her!

Kaitlyn Gallagher
Kaitlyn Gallagher is thrilled to return to the SCCT stage! She has loved being part of this wonderful theatre community, previously appearing in Urinetown and Romeo & Juliet. She sends a special thank-you to her husband for always being her biggest fan and cheering her on from the front row!

Kathy Pfautsch
Kathy Pfautsch is an afternoon host at KWIT-KOJI Siouxland Public Media. They also do voice over work and regularly perform with Great Plains Radio Theater. Kathy is getting back into theater after...some time because basically everyone else in the family was doing that, too.

Lindsey Gibbs
Lindsey is excited to be representing the time she spent living in Detroit by playing good ole Nathan. She bets a thousand bucks that the audience will love this production. She would like to thank her supportive family for dealing with her theatre addiction.

Pam McDermott
Pam McDermott has been involved at SCCT for 10 years as an actor (Sound of Music, Steel Magnolias, Calendar Girls); director (Oliver, Fiddler on the Roof) and box office manager. She hopes you all enjoy this wonderful production.

Rachel Wurth
After her year hiatus from the stage, Rachel is glad to be back in the "crap" game. She is happy to be back on stage for Guys and Dolls, a show she hasn't done since high school. She's also proud to be sharing the stage with Baby Girl Wurth! Enjoy!
