

Kick off Fall Planting Season with a visit to Prickly Ed's Cactus Patch Native Plant Emporium!

www.PricklyEds.com

This weekend we are celebrating the Full Moon, the Start of Fall Planting Season, AND all of our “Pollineighbors”!

From August 28th - August 30th 2026, Members of the Pollinator Pathway or Audubon Pollinator Alliance will receive 15% off all plant purchases.
MUST show proof that you have officially joined (on the map, registration email confirmation, etc.) in order to qualify for the discount!

Visit <https://www.pollinator-pathway.org> and/or <https://asri.org/pollinators/alliance.html> to verify that you are there -

And, on Saturday, August 29th from 11-1 stop by to “Meet Your Pollineighbors”! Folks from local Pollinator Pathways & the Audubon Alliance will be here to talk about ways you can connect with others working to educate, advocate, and plant change in local communities!

Pollineighbors

Community, Conservation, Connection... one healthy yard at a time

Add your property to the Pathway

Click on the map image above to view the Google Map

Learn more about landscaping for pollinators - and for healthier communities - at <https://pricklyeds.com/pollinator-gardening> - while there you can download our brand new resource
“The Ultimate Southern New England Pollinator Planting Guide”