PFF Oline Rank #25 In 2019

The Bears offensive line struggled all season, allowing pressure on Mitchell Trubisky and not allowing holes in the run game for David Montgomery to succeed. It would be a stretch for me to say that this unit will improve vastly, but with solid play from James Daniels after he switched to guard in week 10. Bringing in Germain Ifedi into the fold gives a solid, not great starter at the tackle spot. I could see better play from this group, but only because from last season it really can get worse.

Key Additions: CB Artie Burns, S Deon Bush, QB Nick Foles, TE Jimmy Graham, OL Germain Ifedi, Edge Rusher Robert Quinn, LB Danny Trevathan, TE Cole Kmet, CB Jaylon Johnson, DE Trevis Gipson, CB Kindle Vildor, WR Darnell Mooney, G Arlington Hambright, G Lachavious Simmons

Key Departures: QB Chase Daniel, WR Taylor Gabriel, OG Kyle Long, DT Nick Williams, LB Nick Kwiatkoski, OLB Leonard Floyd, OLB Kevin Pierre-Louis, CB Prince Amukamara, CB Sherrick McManis, S Ha Ha Clinton-Dix
