This second edition of the History of Mt. Zion Cemetery, printed in January, 2010, was primarily to correct typographical and obvious errors and make additional copies available to our members. Previous supplements have been incorporated into the proper family sections and additional information has been added that would be of interest to our membership. Most of the contents have been left just as Mrs. Rust wrote them in 1972.

This edition is dedicated to those who, over the years, have contributed their time, money and efforts to the preservation of these grounds.

This plaque was placed inside the gate entrance to the cemetery in recognition of Mrs. Orrie Cushman Rust who was instrumental in organizing the Mt. Zion Cemetery Association.

A history of Mt. Zion Cemetery and Mt. Zion Families compiled by Orrie Cushman Rust with the assistance of Bickham Christian and members of the various families.

Foreword

Every attempt has been made to secure accurate and complete information by interviews and existing records. Any omissions or errors which may be found in this book are unintentional and should be reported to a member of the Association so that corrections may be made.

It is suggested that this book shall become your permanent family record as the old family Bible used to be. Pages may be inserted for additional data.

HISTORY OF MT. ZION CHURCH

Directly across the road from the cemetery once stood Mt. Zion Church. It was likely built in the 1840's by a Presbyterian congregation and owned and used by them until it was sold to the Methodist Episcopal Church South in 1855. It was incorporated March 14, 1855. Signers of this Act of Incorporation were:

W.B. Cook, W.H. Lindsey, Alfred Dockery, J.C. Burch, A. L. Hood, J.B. Thompson and S.H. Dockery.

In 1858 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Noel donated five acres of land, "Unto the Trustees of Mt. Zion Episcopal Church South, because of his devotion to the cause of religion and the Worship of Almighty God." Signing the Act of Donation were R.T. Noel, H.B. Noel, J.B. Thompson (as President of the Board) and William Lindsey (as Secretary of the Board). Witnesses were Isham C. Thompson and R.F.P. Goodgion. Notary was W.B. Cooke.

The church was a severely plain rectangular structure facing the road (west). There was no steeple. Two doors were at the front with steps leading up. Women entered by the door on the left, men entered on the right. Inside there were wooden benches, a row of wide benches down the center and two rows of narrow benches to the left and right with aisles leading from the doors. The benches were home-made but were well and carefully constructed. They were slatted seats and backs and slightly contoured. They were hard, of course, and the sermons were usually long.

Five windows on the north and south sides let in light and air. A platform on two levels was surrounded by a low railing and the pulpit stood on the lower level. It was painted a brownish-orange color. The only other furnishing was a box-like cabinet fastened high in the northeast corner. It was used to hold hymn books and church records.

It was said, but not positively ascertained, that there were kerosene lamps on the walls between the windows with bright reflectors and that night services were sometimes held.

Mt. Zion Church was on a circuit and services were held there on the fourth Sunday of each month. Some of the pastors were Reverends Z.W. Barnes, W.F. Henderson, Jesse Burch, Power, Isabel, Staples, Anders and others.

In late summer "after crops were laid by", a three-day revival or "protracted meeting" was held, usually with visiting evangelists. A feature of these meetings was dinner on the ground on the last day. These were not picnic lunches, but were elaborate cooked dishes. Plank tables were built between trees and the ladies covered them with their finest damask linen table cloths. The social aspect of the Mt. Zion congregation was noted. The ladies wore their finest clothes and jewels, hats and gloves. Three costumes were necessary for the three days. Fans were also a necessity, beautiful folding fans for the ladies and palmetto fans for the men.

Still standing is the big oak tree north of the church site. Here the colored nurses sat with the babies and small children. The church was surrounded on three sides by forest trees.

The congregation dwindled until it was decided to abandon the church. The remaining members transferred to Mooringsport and ownership of the land and church building was taken over by the Mooringsport Church.

For the next few years the old building was sabotaged, benches and windows stolen, and the records scattered and "blown away." What was left was finally sold to be torn down and the lumber hauled away. This was in the fall of 1940.

The purchaser was the Rev. A.D. Ashby of Blanchard. He used the lumber to build a house in which his daughter, Mattie Lou Ashby still resides.

A HISTORY OF MT. ZION CEMETERY

The earliest marked grave in the cemetery is that of a two-year-old child, James Thompson. The date is 1845. Since the plot was not formally donated until 1858, it can be assumed that a cemetery was started here earlier. There is evidence that many graves were left unmarked, or perhaps marked with a wooden slab which decayed and disappeared with the passing of the years. One such is that of a small child near the center of the north side. A little picket fence was built around it and a cedar tree planted. The tree is now grown as large as cedars grow and the remains of the fence may still be seen, but even the oldest residents did not know who the child was.

After Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor Noel donated the land, some of the families had iron fences built around the respective lots. These were the Noels, Lindseys, Curries, and later, the Elgin-Caldwell family, and still later, the Cushman-Bridges family. There was no outside fence around the property until in 1936, Stanley Cushman built a wire fence and Percy Sharp, Sr. installed a gate with a wooden sign over it.

For many years families had their own lots cleared and the central portion kept mowed, but the greater part grew up in a jungle of vines, weeds, grass and bushes.

During those years a regrettable amount of vandalism and thievery took place. Among objects stolen were three ornamental iron gates from the Noel Lindsey and Caldwell lots, two marble urns from the Noel lot, an iron grave cover from the Noel lot, numerous flowers and shrubbery which had been planted, and even a little monument from the Sharp lot. The latter was found miles away on the bank of a bayou and recovered by Percy Sharp, Jr.

Some of the vandalism which took place is hard to explain. There appears to have been a morbid interest in the three above-ground vaults, particularly that of Margaret Elvira Thompson in the Noel lot. There was a legend of sorts that this lady came back to life after being pronounced dead. When she actually did die, her family objected to having her interred and the coffin was placed in the above-ground vault. Some fox hunters, it was rumored, shoved the heavy lid aside one night to get a sight of what was inside. It was said that the body was perfectly preserved. Other night prowlers visited it and the lid was broken and marred. Later it was mended.

The vaults of Mrs. Solomon and that of John Simmons had simply been placed over the graves but they also were broken and damaged.

A mystery which will probably never be explained was the digging into the grave of John Currie in the enclosed Currie lot. While visiting the cemetery one day, we noticed a large pile of fresh dirt beside the grave. Someone using shovels, the marks of which could be seen, had dug a hole half the size of the grave about four feet deep. The only explanation possible was that something had been hidden there in an easily identified spot, and later retrieved. Other vandalism included monuments knocked over and broken and urns broken.

Then in 1971 Misses Lela May and Marion Currie had a cyclone fence built around the cemetery, replacing the worn-out wire fence. It was intended as a memorial to Mr. Dick Lindsey, a cousin and the last of the family. "We were his heirs" they explained. It was immediately arranged to have a Mt. Zion Day, the last Sunday in May, when all interested survivors met and brought flowers. This meeting was well attended, and the Mt. Zion Cemetery Association was organized, with Orrie Cushman Rust as president and Percy Sharp, Jr. as secretary-treasurer. Dues were fixed and annual meetings were arranged. Articles of Incorporation were to be prepared for adoption at the next meeting.

All during 1971 clearing and restoration took place. Ned Cushman undertook to keep the whole area mowed and this was faithfully done with the result that it looked well-kept and cared for, and it was noticeable that all sabotage ceased.

A wrought iron sign was installed over the gate, monuments were mended and cleaned, and all grown-up areas were cleared out so that mowing could be done right up to the fences. This clearing was mainly the work of Ned Cushman. During the year, two large trees fell, one of them across the south fence. The disposal of these was also the work of Ned Cushman. Culverts were donated by Percy Sharp, III and were installed across the road so that a parking lot could be opened up on the area originally donated for the church. Ned Cushman began this work of clearing and leveling about half an acre.

The second meeting of the Mt. Zion Cemetery Association was held on Sunday, May 28, 1972. It also was well attended. The Articles of Incorporation were drawn up with the following board members signing: Noel Barnes Jr., John Solomon, Robert Cushman, Orrie C. Rust and Percy Sharp, Jr. At the close of the business meeting a dinner was spread on tables and a social hour was enjoyed.

Robert Cushman had surveyed and platted a map of the cemetery. Copies of this map were made available so that lots could be bought.

ACT OF DONATION

The State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo

Be it known that this day before me, William Brantley Cooke, a Notary Public in and for the State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo, duly commissioned and sworn, came and appeared Richard T. Noel of the State and Parish aforesaid, who declared that for the sum of five dollars to him in hand paid, the receipt where-of is hereby acknowledged, and his devotion to the cause of religion and the worship of Almighty God, he by these presents, donates, grants, conveys, transfers, assigns, sets over and delivers with a full guaranty; against all troubles, debts, mortgages, claims, evictions, donations, alienations and other encumbrances whatsoever, unto the Trustees of Mt. Zion Episcopal Church South of the State and Parish aforesaid. Here present, accepting and signing this act of donation, by Joseph B. Thompson, President and William H. Lindsey, secretary of the board of trustees of said society, duly authorized so to do by the constitution of said board of trustees; the property hereinafter described together with all the rights, privileges, customs, servitude, ways and appurtenances there-to belonging or in anywise appertaining. The property intended to be conveyed by this act is the following: to wit, a certain lot of ground situated in the State and Parish aforesaid, beginning at a stake 44 poles East of the half mile stake in the line between Sections 34 & 35 in Township Nineteen, Range sixteen (as known on the map of the Parish of Caddo) from which a Red Oak 15 inches in diameter, bears W 38° 15' W 38 links and a Post Oak 10 inches in diameter bears 3.28°, 40', 51 links, thence North Sixteen poles to a stake, thence east to a stake, thence South Sixteen poles to a stake, thence West, fifty poles to the beginning and contains five acres. To have and to hold the said land to the said trustees and their successors in office perpetually and forever or to their assigns. And the said donor hereby further promises that he and his heirs shall and will forever warrant and defend the title to the land herein conveyed, against all legal claims and demands whatever, and moreover transfers into said claims, all the rights and actions of warranty to which he is entitled against all former proprietors of said land, subrogating said claims to said rights and actions to be by them enjoyed and exercised in the same manner as they might have been by the present donor. The parties hereto waive the production of the certificate of mortgage from the recorder of mortgages of this parish and hold the said Notary harmless from the non-production thereof. And now to these presents, personally came and appeared Hetty S. Burch, wife of the said Richard T. Noel, who after having taken cognizance of the foregoing act which I, the Notary, carefully read and explained to her, declared and said that it is her wish and intention to release in favor of the said donee, the land herein described from the matrimonial dotal, paraphrenal and other rights, and from any claims, mortgages or privileges to which she may be entitled, whether by virtue of her marriage with the said Noel or otherwise. Whereupon I, the said Notary, did inform the said wife, verbally apart and out of the presence and hearing of her husband that, by the laws of this State, the wife has a legal mortgage on the property of her husband: First, for the restitution of her dowry and for the reinvestment of the dotal property sold by her husband and which she brought in marriage, reckoning from the celebration of the marriage; Secondly for the restitution and reinvestment of the dotal property by her acquired since marriage, whether by succession or donation, from the day the succession opened or the donation perfected; Thirdly, for nuptial presents; Fourthly, for debts by her contracted with her husband; and Fifthly, for the amount of her paraphernal property, alienated by her and received by her husband or otherwise disposed of for his individual interest. That, in making her intended renunciation, she would deprive herself irrevocably and forever of all rights of reclamation against the land herein described, whether by mortgage, privilege or otherwise.

And the said wife did thereupon declare unto me, Notary, that she was fully aware of and acquainted with the nature and extent of the matrimonial dotal, paraphernal and other rights and privileges thus secured to her by law on the property of her said husband, and that she nevertheless did persist in her intention of renouncing and does formally renounce, not only all the rights, claims and privileges hereinbefore enumerated and described, but all others of any nature or kind whatever to which she is in any way entitled by any law, now or hereafter in the state of Louisiana. And the said Richard T. Noel, being now present aiding and authorizing his said wife in the execution of these presents, she the said wife did again declare that she did and does hereby make a formal renunciation and relinquishment of all her said matrimonial, dotal Paraphrenal and other rights, claims and privileges in favour of the said donees, binding herself and her heirs at all times to sustain and acknowledge the validity of the renunciation.

Thus done and passed in the Parish of Caddo aforesaid, in the presence of Isham C. Thompson and R.F.P. Goodgion, good and lawful witnesses, both of this parish, who hereto sign their names with the parties aforesaid and me, Notary. In evidence of which I hereunto subscribe my name officially and affix the impress of my seal of office on this ninth day of December A.D. One thousand Eight Hundred and fifty-eight.

I.C. Thompson
R. F. P. Goodgion
R. T. Noel
H.B. Noel
J. B. Thompson (as President of the Board)
William H. Lindsey (Secretary of the Board).

W. B. Cooke
Notary Public

BURCH-SIMMONS-RANDLE FAMILIES

Monument: Rev. Jesse Burch, 1790-1857

The Rev. Jesse Burch was born in Burke County, Georgia, that part of the county which became Jefferson County when it was created in 1796. He was a son of the Rev. Jesse Burch Sr. (1758-1807) and his wife Hettie Commander (1760-1807). They lived in Louisville, the county seat of Jefferson County. The Rev. Jesse Burch, Jr. lived in Eufaula, Harbour County, Alabama for many years and all of his children seem to have been born there. He and his family moved to Caddo Parish, Louisiana in the 1840's and settled there on Sec.19,Twp.15,which was about two miles north of Mt. Zion Church on the east side of the Mooringsport-Greenwood Road. In addition to his duties as pastor, he was a prosperous planter. The earliest known school in the area was known as "Burch's School House."

Monument: Susanna Burch, 1798-1861

Mrs. Susanna Dean Burch was born in the Burke-Jefferson County area of Georgia. (See also Jesse Burch for more information) She was a daughter of William Dean and Susana Compton. Following are the heirs of the Rev. Jesse Burch, as shown in Caddo Parish, La. Probate records.

Amanda McKenzie. (Could have been a daughter or a grand-daughter.)

Hugh Burch Currie (Grand-son) (see also Currie family section)

Josephine E. Burch Thompson Penick, daughter, Caddo Parish Marriage records show that she was a widow of Thompson when she married Thomas M. Penick in 1855. Her late husband was likely brother of Joseph E. Thompson, married to Margaret E. Burch.

Jesse C. Burch, only son, was born in Barbour County, Alabama. He and Catherine L. Burch (who married Dr. Hugh Currie) were twins. He was educated at McKenzie School in Clarksville, Red River County, Texas. He married Maria T. McClelland of Lebanon, Tennessee, in Caddo Parish, Louisiana. They moved to Plainsview, Hale County Texas, where he served for many years as County Judge of Hale County. He retired in 1893.

Monument: John M. Simmons 1826-1857 (Above ground vault)

The 1850 Federal census of Caddo Parish shows that John M. Simmons' wife was Josephine Simmons, born in Alabama in 1831. Caddo Parish marriage records show that she married Robert H. Motley Sept. 16, 1858. It is not known whether she had children by either of her husbands or what became of her. Because John M. Simmons was buried so near Margaret Elvira Burch Thompson's grave, and because his widow, Josephine E. Simmons had the same given name "Josephine E. E. as the foregoing Mrs. M. E. B. Thompson's sister whose first husband was also a Thompson, there is an undetermined family connection between Josephine E. Simmons and Josephine E. Burch Thompson Penick.

Monument: Elizabeth Alice, wife of A.E. Dockery,

Born June 25, 1845 Died Oct. 12, 1870

Elizabeth Alice Barnes Dockery was born in Pendleton, South Carolina. She married Alfred Fletcher Dockery in Caddo Parish, Louisiana. He was born in the state of Illinois in 1850. The 1850 census of Caddo Parish shows that his mother was Rachel Dockery, who was born in North Carolina in 1781.

Monument: Miss Lucia A. daughter of Rev. T. S. & S. Randle,

Born May 2, 1878 Died Feb. 2, 1882

This little girl was a daughter of the Rev. Thomas Scott Randle and his wife, Sallie Ross Randle. The journal of Louisiana Conference 12, p.7, Nov.1919, and p.59 gives his obituary written by his twin brother, Rev. Robert Randle. The twin brothers were born in Natchez, Miss. Oct. 17, 1852, sons of Rev. Richmond and Mary A. Scott Randle. Rev. Thomas Scott Randle married Aug. 6th, 1867, Miss Sallie Ross, daughter of Major E. K. Ross of Bastrop, Louisiana. The obituary states that Rev. Thomas Scott Randle was pastor of the Methodist Church in Mooringsport at the time of his daughter's death, probably before the present cemetery was established there. He died Jan. 23, 1919 in Joaquin, Texas.

Born Aug.18, 1874 Died March, 27,1877

This child was a son of the above-mentioned twin brother, Robert Randle. Apparently he had not then been ordained as a minister, as the title "Rev." does not appear on the tombstone of his son. Why he was in the area is not known. He may have been visiting the Rev. Z. W. Barnes.

Monument: Sarah E.W.McClelland, 1838-1858

This young lady, a native of Lebanon, Tennessee, was visiting her sister, Mrs.Maria T. McClelland Burch, wife of Jesse C. Burch,(see also above) at the time of her death. At the side of Sarah McClelland is buried her brother, Joseph McClelland. In the 1850 Federal Census of Caddo Parish, he was living in the household of Joseph B. Thompson. He was born in Tennessee, 1828. He may have been a nephew of Mr. Thompson, as both their given names were Joseph. It is not known when Joseph McClelland died. Tradition has it that he came here when his sister died and that his death occurred soon afterward.

THE CURRIE FAMILY

Monument : Laughlin Currie

Lauchlin (correct spelling) Currie was the fourth child of Angus Currie (1770-1840) and his wife, Catherine McLean (1775-1842). They were born in Scotland, he in Aberdeenshire and she in Argyleshire. They came to Richmond Co. Virginia as infants, and they were married there in 1795. In 1835 Angus Currie and his family moved to Barbour Co. Alabama. Angus and Catherine Currie are buried in Pea River Presbyterian Church Cemetery. Lauchlin Currie married Sarah McDonald in Richmond Co. North Carolina and the same year (1835) they migrated to Barbour County Alabama, where they lived until 1847, when they moved to Caddo Parish. In 1853 Lauchlin Currie was one of the three trustees of Wildwood Academy which was organized that year. It was a school for young men and was located directly opposite the present Cushman Place, which was the original Lauchlin Currie plantation. Wildwood Academy closed at the outbreak of the Civil War, as the majority of the students enlisted in the Confederate Army. In 1854 Lauchlin Currie was one of the organizers of Bethel Presbyterian Church. It was located about one mile south of Mt. Zion Methodist Church. In the late 1880s its congregation transferred their membership to the Presbyterian Church in Waskom, Texas.

Monument: Sallie Currie

Sarah (Sallie) McDonald Currie (1814-1887) was born in Richmond County, North Carolina and was the third child of Alexander McDonald (1776-1860) and Christian Martin (1782-1857). Alexander McDonald was born on the Isle of Skye, Scotland, and was a grand-nephew of the greatly revered Scottish heroine, Flora McDonald, (1722-1790). She managed the escape from Scotland of Prince Charles (bonnie Prince Charlie) the Stuart pretender to the British throne. His loyal Scots were disastrously defeated at the Battle of Culloden in 1746 by the English army, and there was a price on his head. Sarah McDonald's mother was Christian Martin, (1782-1857) who was born in Argyleshire, Scotland and was a daughter of Daniel and Janet Martin, who migrated to Richmond County, North Carolina immediately after the Revolution.

Monument: Scott Currie 1849-1856

These two children were the son and daughter of Lauchlin and Sarah Currie.

Monument: John A. Currie 1847-1908

John Alexander Currie was the fifth child of Lauchlin and Sarah McDonald Currie. He was the last child born to them in Barbour Co. Alabama. Immediately after his birth they set off for their new home in Caddo Parish, Louisiana.

Monument: Cora C. wife of J. A. Currie, 1856-1907

Cora Isabella Madeline Bickham Currie was a daughter of Benjamin Ramsay Bickham (1819-1872) and his wife, Margaret Daniel (1832-1880)

Monument: Blanche Currie 1884-1907

She was the eldest child of John Alexander Currie and Cora Isabela Madeline Bickham Currie. Her mother nursed her through her last illness and caught the disease herself. She died a few months later. (see their monuments)

Monument: Alph Currie 1894-1894

This infant's full name was Alfred Leonard Currie

Monument: Fred Currie 1895-1933

His full name was Frederick Leonard Currie. He married Isabel McClurg. They had one daughter, Jane (Mrs. William R. Dudley). He was a veteran of World War I. His parents were John Alexander and Cora Currie.

THE CURRIE FAMILY (Continued)

The first Angus Currie (1770-1840) and his wife, Catherine McLean Currie (1775-1842) who were the parents of Lauchlin Currie, were also the parents of Angus Currie II . He became the owner of a tract of land in Caddo Parish in the Longwood area. His home was on the hill south of the present John Meyer home. He married Jane Patterson in 1835. They had eleven children. One daughter was the Abigail who married William A. Lindsey.

Angus Currie II died at the close of a Sunday morning service at Mt.Zion Church which was used by both Methodist and Presbyterian congregations. Being an elder, he had just finished assisting in administering the Lord's Supper. He suffered a heart attack and collapsed on the steps of the church. He is buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery and his wife who died two years later is buried beside him. A monument was placed at the site by his grandson, Dick Lindsey, bearing only their names.

The youngest son of Angus and Jane Currie was Walter Scott Currie. He married Miss Mamie Ellet (called May). She was the daughter of Thomas E. Ellet and Jessie Koger. He was born at the Longwood home, but spent most of his adult life in Jonesville, Texas.

This couple had three daughters. The two living descendents , Lela May and Marion Currie live at the family home in Jonesville. They have divided their love and interest between Concord Cemetery and Mt. Zion, and were largely instrumental in the organizations of the two associations. They have given generously of time and work and money to these two restorations, and both groups are deeply indebted to them.

THE STAR-CROSSED FAMILY OF DR. HUGH CURRIE

Monument: Catherine L. Currie 1833-1856

Catherine L. Burch Currie and her twin brother, Jesse C. Burch were the youngest children of the Rev. Jesse Burch and Susanna Dean Burch. She lived less than two weeks after the tragic deaths of her two young sons. Her contemporaries said that "she died of a broken heart." See the touching inscription on the tomb of the children: "Lovely and pleasant in their lives and in their death they were not divided."

Monument: Virgil Eugene and James Dean Currie

This marker is in error. It is over the grave of Dr. Hugh Currie, who was not in the Confederate army. The "H.B. Currie" whose military service is recorded in the official records of Louisiana Confederate soldiers turned out to be Hugh Burch Currie, a nephew of Dr. Hugh Currie. This H.B. Currie was the only child of John Currie (brother of Dr. Hugh Currie). His mother was Elizabeth Burch, a sister of Dr. Hugh Currie's wife, Catherine L. Burch Currie. Therefore, the military service on the marker belongs to Hugh Burch Currie, while the dates of birth and death belong to Dr. Hugh Currie. It is not known what became of Hugh Burch Currie. The last known record of him was in a letter written in 1868, which refers to his attendance at the wedding of his double-first cousin, Emma C. Currie to William Anthony Ellet. She (Emma C. Currie) born 1850, was the eldest and only surviving child of Dr. Hugh and Catherine Currie. She married, in November 1868, William Anthony Ellet. Contemporary accounts describe it as an unusually splendid and happy wedding. In less than a year, the bride died at childbirth. It is believed that she and her infant son are buried in an unmarked grave to the right of the graves of her two little brothers. In 1870, William Anthony Ellet (1842-1921) married his deceased wife's first cousin, Susanna Noel (1853-1925). She was the daughter of Richard Taylor Noel and Hettie Susanna Burch Noel (see also their monuments).

THE LINDSEY FAMILY

Monument: "Grandmother- -Grandfather"

This very uninformative tombstone marks the graves of William H. Lindsey Sr. who was born in Georgia in 1810, and his wife, Mary Lindsey born in Georgia in 1811. Her maiden name has not been determined. They were married in Georgia in 1830. One of their daughters, Martha M. Lindsey, born in Georgia in 1833, married Charles Garlick in 1854. Their daughter, Emma Garlick, married John Mooring Fly. From this union, the Sharp family of Mooringsport descended. William H. Lindsey was one of the founders of Mt. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church.

Double monument:

Martin Hampton Sharp was born in Montgomery, Alabama. His parents, Cunningham and Elizabeth (Gibbons) Sharp, born in NC, moved to Alabama after their marriage. Cunningham Sharp was of Irish descent, a Democrat, a planter and a soldier of the War of 1812. He died at the age of seventy years, his wife at the age of sixty. They were members of the Presbyterian Church and the parents of ten children. Martin Hampton Sharp was the youngest of the ten. He came to Caddo Parish in 1855 and gained experience in farming by managing the Paige estate. In 1868 he became a land owner himself and settled in Ward Three, one mile southwest of Longwood. By 1900 the plantation comprised 1,800 acres. Five hundred acres were under cultivation. On coming to Louisiana he was without means, but by industry he became one of the wealthiest planters in this area.

In 1863-64 he was in Harrison's regiment, Third Louisiana Infantry, and held the rank of sergeant. During those years he lost all he had accumulated, but soon retrieved his fortune. ## THE NOEL-BARNES FAMILIES

Monument: Richard T. Noel 1815-1873

Richard Taylor Noel was a son of William Noel (1784-1814) and Elizabeth Role (1786-1817). They were natives of Virginia. Richard Taylor Noel was one of the organizers of Mt. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, and in 1858 he gave to the church five acres of land. This cemetery is on part of that land.

Monument: Hettie S. Noel, 1827-1910

Hettie Susanna Burch Noel was born in Barbour County, Alabama, and was a daughter of Rev. Jesse Burch and his wife, Susanna Dean Burch. (Also see their monuments in this cemetery.) She was a party to the above donation of land and is the subject of the obituary by Rev. R. Harp.

Monument: William E. Noel, 1844-1926

William Edmond Noel was the eldest child of Richard T. Noel and Hettie Susanna Burch Noel (See the foregoing). His home was about a mile north of the Mt. Zion Cemetery. He was in the siege of Vicksburg.

Monument: Elizabeth H. Noel, 1849-1919

Elizabeth (Betty) Hoss Noel was a daughter of Jacob Hoss Sr. (1810-1890), and Sarah E. Hearne, 1823-1861. He was a native of Tennessee and she was born in Alabama. During the war years (1861-1865) Jacob Hoss Sr. was sheriff of Caddo Parish, La. They are both buried in the Hoss family cemetery on the same road as Mt. Zion about four miles south of Greenwood. The following are definitely children of William Edmond and Elizabeth Noel: Robert E. Noel, 1882-1902 and Benjamin Noel, 1892-1895. He was evidently the youngest child and no more were anticipated, as they named him Benjamin.

OBITUARY OF Mrs. Hettie Susana Noel

Mrs. Noel was born in Eufaula, Alabama, March 6th. 1827 and died at the "Old Noel Home" January 17, 1910. She was the daughter of Rev. Jesse Burch and Mrs. Susana Burch (nee Dean).

The Burch family came to Caddo Parish in 1839 and their daughter, Hettie Susana was married to Richard T. Noel of the said parish in 1842. Mr. Noel died in 1873, leaving four children, namely: William Edmond Noel of Gilliam La., Susana (now Mrs. W. A. Ellet) of Mooringsport, La., Virginia (deceased) who married Mr. R. T. Cole of Shreveport, and Taylor Noel (deceased).

The only living member of the original Burch family is Mr. Jesse Burch, of Holdenville, Oklahoma.

The names of grandchildren, nieces and nephews of Mrs. Hettie Noel are too numerous to be inserted in this sketch, even if we had their names. They reside mostly in Shreveport, Gilliam, Blanchard, Caddo Parish, La.

The subject of this sketch was converted and joined the Methodist Church at the age of ten years, and thus spent about seventy-five years of her devoted and beautiful life as a bright and loyal Christian. She was interred in the Mt. Zion Cemetery, by the Mt. Zion Church where she had worshiped for more than one generation. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and the muddy roads, there was a large assemblage present to witness with reverential respect the solemn obsequies with which her body was consigned to the earth to rest until Resurrection morn, but they witnessed in the composed features and smile of triumph on the face of the corpse how, with a child of God, the sting of death is removed. She was ready. If it was God's will, she preferred to go on. This was her testimony.

THE NOEL-BARNES FAMILIES (Continued)

The writer arranged in 1847 to give regular religious service at Burch's School House in the Burch-Noel settlement, by which he became their pastor. He was often the guest of Mr. Richard and Hettie Noel and the fellowship grew into a friendship which neither time nor distance could extinguish. How grateful to the young minister, after a thirty or forty mile ride, to enter a home where he is made to feel, not only welcome but where his host considers it a privilege to entertain. This kind of hospitality gave them access, especially to the young people which was very great to their usefulness.

Mrs. Noel exerted a wide-reaching influence over her acquaintances and they were many. Full of sympathy, abounding in smiles and encouragement and cheer, it is not strange that it should be said, "she loved everybody and everybody loved her."

Robert J. Harp

Monument: Melville Noel Barnes III,

Born July 18, 1950 Died: April 23, 1972

This young man, called "Beau" was the great-grandson of Estelle Noel Barnes (also see her monument).

A cousin of Richard Taylor Noel, James Downey Noel, also came to Caddo Parish from Virginia. He married Mary Ann Mooring. Their son was James Smith Noel, who married Frances Adelaide Baugess. Their son was William B. Noel who married Margaret Fly (Miss Pat) of Mooringsport. Children of this couple were:

1. Daughter, Louise, deceased. Married Jack Kline.
2. Son, William Bryant, deceased.
3. Son, James, Jr.

It was James S. Noel who built Noel Memorial Church in Shreveport.

The old Noel house where the Cushmans lived until 1935 was the original Taylor Noel home. It consisted of four large rooms with a wide hall between and a kitchen at the rear and a graceful portico in front. After Mr. Noel's death, his son William (Mr. Bill) lived there with his large family. The house was enlarged by adding four rooms. Mr. Bill's mother lived there until her death in 1910. She was much beloved. My mother called her "Grandma Noel" as her friend Estelle did.

She loved flowers. There were very beautiful roses in the yard and two climbing roses over the portico-- a yellow Marchel Neil and a climbing American Beauty. There was a sweet shrub and a magnolia tree and several mimosas. She had planted hundreds of jonquil and narcissus bulbs, which bloomed profusely every spring. When we moved to the new house, I dug up some of the bulbs and still have them, multiplied many times over. She had a flower pit in one corner of the front yard where she kept pot plants during the winter. It was a hollow pit, covered with glass windows. She had edged her flower beds with bottles, upside down. Mostly they were green beer bottles. Many were broken, so my mother had us gather them up and fill the old flower pit, then shovel dirt over them.

Mr. Bill was a Confederate soldier and was in Vicksburg during the Siege. After the surrender, he was discharged along with several other men from the same neighborhood. One of them was my grandfather, Josiah Bridges. To get home they had to walk, a distance of nearly two hundred miles. Mr. Bill was crippled. Whether he had lost a leg in the war or not, I could not ascertain. The other men carried him, two at a time, taking turns. He was in a wheel chair for the rest of his life. There were no women in the family and a colored man, John Drayden, cooked and cared for Mr. Bill and the five or six sons. When he came to church at Mt. Zion, John Drayden pushed the wheel chair down the aisle with Mr. Bill swearing at him for being in the wrong aisle or for bumping against benches.

(Note by Orrie C. Rust)

There are two high hills on the Blanchard-Latex Road, near the Cushman place, which we have always called "The Barnes Hills" because the Melville Barnes home was at the top of one of them. My father, R. H. Cushman, called them "Mt. Melville" and "Mt. Estelle." Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIntosh live there now in a new home.

There is a four or five-mile stretch of perfectly straight road on the way to Blanchard. It was surveyed and opened up by Mr. Melville Barnes exactly on a section line. The Barnes and Cushman families were good friends. Estelle Noel and my mother grew up together and my mother visited in their home. It was at a party in the Noel house that she met my father. He was playing dominoes. She was dancing. They were married within a month of each other and Estelle's death the next year was a great grief.

THE CUSHMAN FAMILY

Double Monument: CUSHMAN

Robert Heath Mar. 10, 1869 Apr. 1,1954

Robert was born and grew up in Henderson, Texas where all his family are buried. He came to Caddo Parish as a young man, bought the land known as the Curry Place and went into the cattle business. He also rented out tenant farms for raising cotton and corn. He married Jodie Bridges in 1895. Their first born child died at the age of five, and the youngest son was killed in World War II. Other children surviving at this writing, (1972) are two daughters, Orrie Cushman Rust and Virginia Bradfield, and three sons, Herbert Alien, Robert Bridges, and Ned.

Jodie Bridges was the youngest daughter of Lucy and Josiah Bridges. She lived to the age of ninety-five, older than any member of her family had ever lived. She had seven children, but only three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. "Two daughters, two grand-daughters, and two great-grand-daughters."

Monument: Lucy May March 21, 1896 November 25,1901

Monument: Stanley Cushman, Staff-sergeant, U.S. Air Force

Jan 9, 1911 May 20, 1943

The death of this youngest son of Robert and Jodie Cushman was a tragedy from which his family never recovered. His epitaph should read: "Beloved by everyone." He was killed in a bomber crash near Rapid City South Dakota just as he was completing his training.

Monument: Stanley Cushman Rust April 5, 1954 Sept. 10,1969

This fifteen-year-old boy was the only grandson and great-grandson of the Cushman family. He was named for his uncle (above). He was killed in a gun shot accident in Rock Springs, Wyoming where his family lived and is buried there. This little marker is a memorial, erected by his grandmother, Orrie Cushman Rust.

Robert Heath Cushman was called "Bob" by his family and early friends in Henderson. Here in Caddo Parish, he was always "Mr. Cushman", and his wife's nieces and nephews called him "Uncle Cushman". He was a well-educated man with a fondness for history. He attended private schools. By a coincidence, one of his teachers, a Mrs. Trammel, later came to Longwood School and was my mother's teacher. Another of his teachers, Mrs. Julia Truett Bishop, had a grand-daughter who was my best friend at Mansfield College.

His family were Methodist and he never missed a Sunday, attending Sunday School, later teaching a class. He grew up in a highly moral atmosphere, and all his life he was intolerant of loose or undignified conduct. He never drank or smoked. He was a handsome man and undoubtedly aware of it, as he had himself photographed at least once a year. He always wore a mustache.

After graduation, he and a friend heard of a promising opening in the Rio Grand Valley, near the Mexican border. They borrowed money from the friend's father and stocked a small general store near a labor camp. Their customers were almost all Mexicans. The little business thrived and by the time the camp moved, they had repaid the loan and cleared a thousand dollars apiece. The friend returned to Henderson and opened a business there, but my father had his heart set on cattle. His Uncle Will Harris was in Caddo Parish and he urged "Bob" to come go into business with him. He had a herd of cattle and Papa bought half. After he married, he rode around, looking for a place of his own. He learned of the Lachlin Currie place which was for sale. It had a year-round spring of water for the cattle, a handsome house with a water well and a few out-houses, barns, cribs, smoke house, etc. He bought it and moved in and started a family. A number of Negro tenants were already living on the place and others came later. Their rent was paid in cotton. They were furnished mules and plows, and were "advanced" rations throughout the year. In the fall after cotton was ginned, they settled up. In a good year, some of them made a profit, but usually they simply started over again.

Several of the Negro men who did not have wives or families worked on a daily basis. They were called wages hands, not hired men. They raised crops of cotton and corn, planted a big garden and orchard, cared for the milk cows and the pigs or whatever they were called on to do. There was always a cook in the kitchen, a wash-woman, and a nurse for the small children.

When the children began to reach school age, a serious problem arose. The old Longwood School had closed and the nearest school was at Blanchard, eight miles away. The oldest child was a daughter—I, Orrie. An arrangement was made for me to stay with my uncle and aunt in Shreveport and go to school. The school was then called Texarkana Annex, later Line Avenue School. My teacher was Miss Anna Trichel.

Then, when the boys reached school age, my father knew something had to be done about a neighborhood school. Mr. C. E. Byrd was then superintendent of Parish schools and he and my father took a liking to each other. The old school was still standing, in fairly good condition, and Mr. Byrd agreed to send a teacher if there were at least ten pupils. Papa and Mr. Pryor Hearne undertook to round up the necessary ten. Papa had two, Mr. Hearne had two, Mr. Dick Sharp had three, Mr. Sam Hammack had two. Then Mr. Hugh Bickham agreed to send his three oldest daughters. A family named Flowers sent two daughters. So the first enrollment of the reactivated Longwood School was as follows: Orrie and Billy Cushman, Pearl and Ethel Hearne, Joe, John L. and Arnold Sharp, Vaughn and Merle Hammack, Mattie, Volle and Susie May Bickham and Emma and Mamie Flowers. Mr. Byrd was satisfied and assigned his youngest, least-qualified teacher. He also sent a broom and a box of chalk. The old, long, hand-made desks and benches were still there. Four sat at each desk. The sloping tops raised up to hold books etc. Boys sat on one side, girls on the other. There was a table for the teacher and a chair. A big square board had been painted black many years before and still served as a blackboard. A bucket was donated to hold drinking water, obtained from a spring, a few hundred feet behind the school. There was a dipper to drink from.

All of the pupils lived in walking distance except the Cushmans. Five miles was too far for small children to walk. So Papa bought a two-wheeled "gig" for us to drive. We had a fat little mare named Ribbon, later a gray named "Gray" and later a nervous, high-strung bay named Nero.

No one knew anything about suitable text books, so my mother consulted a cousin of her's who was a teacher and got a list of text books. readers, Nicholson's arithmetic, civics, physiology, history, geography and, of course spellers and language. Our parents bought the books and they were handed down until they wore out. Grading was haphazard and usually according to age, rather than achievement. Our make-shift teachers did very little actual teaching. We taught ourselves and each other and our mothers drilled us at night. The teacher "heard the lesson" and assigned another.

The school, begun about 1906, continued until some time in the twenties. The older pupils quit or were sent to college, younger brothers and sisters became school age, at least one new family moved in --the Sam Brysons and the Pryor Hearne family moved to Shreveport. The Cushman brothers rode horseback. I was sent to Mansfield College. Later Billy and Robert were sent to Louisiana Tech. Virginia Cushman and Stanley Cushman attended school in Mooringsport, driving a second-hand Dodge car the ten miles over a dirt road.

Mr. John Meyer and Miss Martea Winston were the last teachers. The old building was torn down about 1910, and a smaller, more modern building replaced it. This building was used as a neighborhood center. Mrs. Blanche Sharp organized a Sunday School. Parties were held there in the evenings, and as we grew older, dances were held, with a Negro string band.

Robert Heath Cushman continued to enlarge his herd of cattle and his acreage of cotton and feed crops. The ante-bellum house which had been built by Lauchlin Currie in 1854, burned to the ground one morning, about 1904. The fire spread slowly in the thick-timbered old structure and most of the contents were saved by the crowd of Negroes who hurried to help. Luckily, a little five-room tenant house had just been finished near by, and the family moved into it. As soon as the ashes cooled, a more adequate house was built on the site. Years later, about 1912, a thousand-acre plantation, known as the Noel Place, owned by the Busch-Everett Oil Company, later the Texas Company, was offered for lease. Mr. Cushman took a long-term lease and the family moved into the large, pleasant Noel house. The children grew up, the daughters married, the older sons left home for work with oil companies, Ned Cushman joined the Navy, and only the youngest, Stanley was at home. In 1935, it was decided to return to the home place and a contract was let for a modern, comfortable house to be built on the site of the former one. The oil boom furnished excitement throughout the thirties. Grand-children came to visit. World War II struck. Only the two younger sons were draft age. Ned was in the Aleutians. Stanley went into the Air Force and was killed just as he was finishing his training on a B-17. Ned finished his term in the Army and joined the Fire Department in Shreveport.

R. H. Cushman and Jodie Cushman lived in the house until their deaths, his in 1954 and her's in 1970.

On coming to Louisiana, George Solomon had $375 dollars in gold. He lost it all when his first crop was a failure. In 1861 he became a member of the Seventeenth Louisiana Infantry. He served until 1864 when he was transferred to the Confederate Navy on the gun boat, "Shreveport". He was in the Battle of Corinth, Siege of Vicksburg and a number of skirmishes. At the close of the war, he returned to farming. By 1870 he owned 360 acres of land, about half under cultivation. In 1876, he bought a horse gin, which he operated several years, but in 1885, built a steam gin. In 1865, he married Miss Eusibia Attaway. To them eleven children were born: (1)Frances Verona (who married Thomas Watson) (2)Allen(who died an infant) (3)Stella (who married Robert Jones) (4)Sallie (who married George Merritt), (5)Sturling, (who died at age fourteen), (6)Thurston (who married Addie Kent),(7) Ernest (who married Sallie Tippet), (8)Frank (who married Addie Kent Solomon after Thurston died), (9)Eusibia (10)Betty Clide (who married Nathan Pinckney Daniel), and (11)Edward (who married Jo Ella ?).

Mr. Solomon's sudden death was a great loss, not only to his family and friends, but to the Mt. Zion Cemetery Association. Long before the Association was formed, he came often and mowed grass and kept the Solomon lot neat. King retired as manager of North Ridge Farms, a 2,500 acre farm located on Hwy. 71, north of Shreveport. In the beginning it was a cotton and cattle operation and later in the 1950's cotton farming was discontinued. His son, Harry, as a young boy, can recall him visiting Mt. Zion many times and expressing the desire to see the cemetery cleaned up with a sign over the entrance. This wish came true in the early 1970's. (See History of Mt. Zion Cemetery.) ### TILLINGHAST-YORK-FLY FAMILIES

Monuments: Edward Lawrence Tillinghast, 1869-1874

Albert Lawrence Tillinghast, 1877-1888

Comment by B. Christian: The parents of the above children were Dr. Edward Lawrence Tillinghast and Frances Lewis Fly Tillinghast. He was born in South Carolina in 1839 and died in Mooringsport, La. in 1915. He was a prototype of the kindly country doctor who personally attended his patients at any time, day or night and at any place.

Frances Lewis Fly, 1851-1918, was a daughter of Benjamin Franklin Fly, (1821-185?)

Monument: James W. York, 1826-1875

Nothing is known of the above as to where he was born or who his parents were. We only know that he was the second husband of Mary E. J. Mooring, who was born in Madison County, Tennessee in 1829. She was a daughter of John Mooring, 1794-1883 and his wife, Elizabeth Colbym, 1797-1872. Mary Mooring's first husband was Benjamin Franklin Fly, 1821-1857. They had three children: John Mooring Fly, 1848-1912, who married Emma Garlick, 1855-1932. Second child was Frances Lewis Fly, 1851-1918, who married Dr. Edward Lawrence Tillinghast (see above). Their third child was Mildred Fly, 1855-1900, who married Eli Monroe Stroud. In the early 1880's Eli Monroe and Mildred Stroud moved to Cleburne, Texas and took with them her mother, Mary E. J. Mooring Fly York. She died and is buried there as are the above mentioned Strouds. Her parents and first husband are buried in the Mooring Cemetery, a few miles south of Mooringsport.

Monument: Marvin Gray, 1869-1874

Comment by B. Christian: This little boy was a son of Hezekiah Thomas Gray and Martha Eliza Mooring Gray, 1838- ?. He was a brother of the afore-mentioned Albert Conway Gray.

THE PUCKETT FAMILY

Monument: Martin L. Puckett, Born 1837 Died April 2, 1923

Martin Littleberry Puckett came to Caddo Parish, Louisiana from Rusk Co., Texas in the 1890's. He purchased the tract known as the Simms' Place, just across the Texas-Louisiana line, comprising an entire section of land, with a handsome ante-bellum house, built in the 1850's. He was an uncle of Oregon Polk Harris Cushman, mother of R. H. Cushman. He married late in life Mrs. Lula Belle McGee. One daughter, Sarah, was born. She married John Moneyham. After the death of Martin Puckett, his widow married William P. Hammack.

Martin Littleberry Puckett was twelve years old when he came, in 1850, to Harrison County, Texas, from Spalding County, Georgia. He was brought by Dr. and Mrs. William Ray Harris. Mrs. Harris, nee Sarah Puckett, was his sister, their parents apparently having died. They came by ox cart.

It is known that Martin Puckett and his uncle-in-law, Dr. Harris, ran a store in Jonesville, Texas. It is also known that he served in the Civil War from Louisiana.

Dr. and Mrs. Harris moved to west Texas in 1894, so that may be the date when Martin Puckett moved to Louisiana and bought the Simms Place. He had two brothers and several sisters besides Sarah. One brother was John Yell Puckett. He lived in Pike County, Alabama but later came to Texas. Second brother, Pleas Puckett was a doctor in Spalding County, Georgia. The oldest sister, Narcissus Puckett married Mr. Vaughn of Vaughn, Georgia. He owned the town and the railroad there. Many relatives of the Puckett family are now living in Vaughn, Georgia. Some of these are: Miss Nettie Puckett, Mr. Tom Puckett, Mrs. Maud Pundy and her family, Mrs. Joe Louis and family, Mrs. Florence Mitchell and family. Max Bradbury of Shreveport is also a relative.

Martin Puckett's wife was Lula Belle McGee, from Coshatta, La. She was the daughter of C. C. and Mary Elizabeth McGee.

The writer remembers "Uncle Puckett" as a genial old gentleman with a long white beard, who called her father "Bob". He brought stick candy to the children and asked them riddles.

The following listing of burials is incomplete due to the fact that some of the monuments have been damaged, some are unreadable due to age and deterioration and some are simply missing information.

At this update, January 2010, there are 218 recorded interments in the Mt. Zion Cemetery. Several other early graves have been identified and recorded as unknown. One such grave is said to be the oldest one in the cemetery – that of a small child with no monument but with a little picket fence around it.
