LEADERSHIP SPEAKER OF THE YEAR FINALIST

> When we understand what shapes us, we get to choose what comes next.

Why Angela

Angela Malakai is an international keynote speaker, MC and author of The Gift.

For more than 20 years she has developed people and leaders across Australia and New Zealand.

She works with organisations through keynotes, workshops and coaching, so the change doesn't end when the applause does.

Through humour, honest storytelling and practical frameworks, she helps people understand what has shaped them, recognise the patterns holding them back, and choose how they want to live and lead. Her work comes back to one idea: we have the ability to choose how we live our lives.

Her story moves people. Her framework moves them forward.

LIVE ON PURPOSE

Perfect for:
Conferences | Leadership | Teams | People & Culture | Sales

Stop living by default. Start choosing your life.

So much of how we live is shaped before we consciously choose it. Our experiences create beliefs, patterns and ways of responding that shape the lives we build.

Angela explores how awareness creates choice, and how our choices can shape our lives and what comes next.

People leave recognising where they may be living on autopilot and how to consciously choose differently.

Also Available

LEAD BOLDLY — Lead yourself first.

Perfect for:
Executive Forums | Leadership Development | Managers | Sales Summits

How we lead is shaped by who we are, what we've experienced and the patterns we carry.

Angela helps leaders understand their own patterns and become curious about the patterns they see in others, creating stronger communication, deeper connection and more human leadership.

People leave understanding what shapes how they lead and where they can consciously choose differently.

ONE SMALL VOTE — Every choice is a vote.

Perfect for:
Teams | Wellbeing | People & Culture | Sales | Conferences

Every day we cast small votes, for ourselves or against ourselves. In what we say, what we tolerate, what we own and where we put our energy. Most of them happen without us noticing.

Using her VOTE framework (Voice, Ownership, Tolerance, Energy), Angela shows how small, conscious choices create real change at work and at home.

People leave with a simple tool for courageous conversations, healthier boundaries and choosing where their energy goes.

ANGELA AS YOUR MC

Holding a room for a day is a different job from holding it for an hour. Angela keeps energy, timing and tone steady across a full programme, lands the transitions, and reads what a room needs before it asks.

Perfect for:
Conferences | Awards Nights | Leadership Summits | Wellbeing & Community Events

KEYNOTES IN DETAIL

Outcomes, formats and how it works.

LIVE ON PURPOSE

Stop living by default. Start choosing your life.

Perfect for: Conferences | Leadership | Teams | People & Culture | Sales
20, 45 or 60 minutes | In person or virtual

Most people run on patterns they never chose. Angela helps them see those patterns and choose what comes next, at work and in life.

Your people leave able to:

- Recognise where they're on autopilot and what it's costing them
- Respond rather than react under pressure
- Take ownership of their choices, energy and results

LEAD BOLDLY

Lead yourself first.

Perfect for: Executive Forums | Leadership Development | Managers | Sales Summits
20, 45 or 60 minutes | In person or virtual

Leaders can only take people as far as they've taken themselves.

Leaders leave able to:

- Understand the patterns driving how they lead, especially under pressure
- Lead with emotional intelligence and build psychological safety
- Have the courageous conversations they've been avoiding

ONE SMALL VOTE

Every choice is a vote.

Perfect for: Teams | Wellbeing | People & Culture | Sales | Conferences
20, 45 or 60 minutes | In person or virtual

Small daily choices shape culture, wellbeing and performance. VOTE gives people a simple tool to make those choices consciously.

Your people leave able to:

- Voice: speak up and have honest conversations
- Ownership: own their responses instead of blaming circumstances
- Tolerance: set boundaries that protect wellbeing and performance
- Energy: direct their energy where it counts and reduce burnout

CONVERSATIONS THAT CONVERT

Sell to the beliefs, not the brief.

Perfect for: Sales Summits | Sales Teams | Client-Facing Teams | Business Owners
20, 45 or 60 minutes | In person or virtual

Audiences have changed. Sales happen where trust meets need, and every buying decision is driven by unconscious beliefs, theirs and yours. Angela shows sales teams how to understand those beliefs to create need, build trust and convert with confidence.

Your team leaves able to:

- Uncover the unconscious beliefs driving how clients decide
- Recognise their own beliefs that stall sales, and choose differently
- Use four simple ways to build trust, connect and close more sales
