

Carolina Staffing is seeking qualified candidates for a Work Control Planner opportunity for our customer in Los Alamos, NM to support the Los Alamos National Laboratory.

Work Location : Los Alamos, New Mexico (ON-SITE)

Min Experience required:- 10 years

ONLY U.S. CITIZENS

SCOPE

Job Summary

- Develops and/or reviews work packages including time, material, and labor estimates, written step-by-step work instructions, procedures, and/or safety and testing requirements for the implementation and control of operations, maintenance, or modification of work activities within a given facility or area.
- Specific planning duties may be related to mechanical, electrical, chemical and/or radiological equipment, policies, and procedures and may also include resolving work restraints and bringing work packages to final closure.
- MS Office, need to be able to resource/find information – Spreadsheets and SharePoint sites are regularly used
- Constructability experience, Mechanical/Electrical/Construction background preferable

If you are interested in being considered for this position and your resume clearly outlines your relevant experience for this position, please follow the application steps via our website: Job Board (carolinastaffingllc.com)

Carolina Staffing will not submit your resume without first having detailed discussions with you and obtaining your permission to do so. We look forward to hearing from you!