

CENTRAL INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE SIGNS MULTI-YEAR REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT WITH COLLEGIATE SPORTS MANAGEMENT GROUP

December 10, 2020

CHESTER, VA – The Central International College (CIC) signs multi-year representation agreement with Collegiate Sports Management Group (CSMG) for services related to CIC’s needs in the areas of marketing, sponsorship, media and facility naming rights. CSMG will work with the CIC to implement short and long-term goals that help CIC capture the community and focus on strategic growth.

“Over the course of my career I have been blessed with outstanding supervisors, assistants and students and this continues to hold true. CIC might be a small non-profit African American state-sanctioned institution, but our team has goals to continue to positively impact and engage with our local community’s youth programs.” stated Willard Bailey, CEO and President at CIC.

CSMG will work to expand current partnerships and help maximize exposure, develop new innovative strategies and increase revenue for CIC. Additionally, through CSMG’s valuation process, the CIC will better understand the value of each respective asset the institution offers.

“We are excited to partner with Central International College and Willard Bailey. Bailey is a titan in the HBCU community with an impressive record as a football coach and an inspirational leader. We look forward to collaborating and working to enhance the CIC’s vision on both regional and national levels,” stated Dan Girard, Director of Media and Property Partnership at CSMG.

The Black College Football Hall of Fame announced its 12th Class, the class of 2021 with six inductees selected including Coach Willard Bailey. Coach compiled a record of 238-19-7 winning seven Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) conference championships and has never had a losing season between the years of 1971 through 1983.
