The Eagle Blossoms of Turtle Bay New York by Gyll on View Thursday September 16th, 2021 at Pink Moose Cafe United Plaza New York E47th & 1st ave noon - 7pm

The Eagle Blossoms of Turtle Bay is a multi sensory story display of awareness translated through eagles, flowers, colors and wood.

Gyll tells the story through her Joyful Magic Garden of how The 88 Eagles flying nearly 30,000 feet have dropped flower seeds to grow and blossom allowing us to feel our magical joy within.

The Eagle Blossoms of Turtle Bay New York features works by Gyll who seeks to weed out the query dominant narratives bringing awareness of possibilities and to surface a new natural authentic narrative upon ourselves.

Additional features related to this exhibition, including video content and Gyll speaking about her work, are posted at www.eagleblossoms.com
