"New" HOME901 Website

The HOME901 website has gotten updated! You can continue using this helpful site to find free additional resources throughout Shelby County.

There are several organizations listed that can assist you in finding a home, paying your bills, and fixing your house. There's also an application you can complete if you have an eviction notice and so much more.

The End of E.R.A.

Thanks to all who have applied and shared information about this emergency program with others in need. Even though the program is officially closed, we are still processing the thousands of applications received in August. There is more information below regarding some upcoming changes and news.

Thank You!

If you already applied...

We have updates for those who have already applied to the ERA/HOME901 program.

To access your application portal and check your status, you can still use www.HOME901.org. In the meantime, you can use these additional resources listed on the HOME901 website including the Community Services Agency (CSA), until we process your application.

Keep an eye on your application portal and email for updates.

For more information, visit <https://home901.org/covid-renters/> or call 211 for help.
