Sidewinders Ranch

Welcome to Sidewinders Ranch! We are so happy that you've joined us and hope to grow a long-lasting relationship with you.

Sidewinders Ranch is home to many entertainers, social groups, and organizations. We have over 50 organizations and groups with which we hold an extremely close affiliation. It is crucial that we have a safe, inclusive, and community-oriented environment.

We are here to assist in providing a safe place for everyone who wishes to be a part of Sidewinders Ranch. This includes the ABQ Eagle, the Nest, the Black Cat Cabaret and the Bar. If you need special assistance, please coordinate with us and keep everyone in communication.

Our Mission

We are happy to be a part of and provide a safe, inclusive space for everyone in our community. Over the last two years, we have taken an active role in improving our space, policies, attitudes, and other things that need improvement. We have also put together a list of what we believe and have asked our staff to be a part of our mission.

- We Believe: TOGETHER, our differences make us stronger.
- We Believe: DIVERSITY is a necessity.
- We Believe: HOPE, inspires courage, spirit, and promise.
- We Choose: to GIVE back to our community.
- We are very proud to share this with everyone, as we continue to help people build our community.

Tolerance Policy

Here is our tolerance policy which applies to everyone – not just our entertainers, hosts, or producers. While you may have had issues at other venues, we are willing to give everyone a fresh start.

However, please be on your best behavior. Alcohol can impair judgement – don't let it impair yours to the point that you cannot act in a civil manner and in a manner that is within our guidelines; do not bring "known" issues to our cabaret.

Most people can be professional, but those who aren't will lose the opportunity to host, perform, or otherwise appear in any event, as well as attend any event. We ask the following of everyone (guests, entertainers, hosts, family, friends, contractors and so forth); this includes discussion groups, listservs, social media, text messaging, and any manner of communication that can have an impact on someone's life:

- Refrain from verbally, physically, mentally and sexually harassing people
- Any intentionally demeaning, non-inclusive behavior, or social media posts intended to cause friction and do not align with our inclusive and accepting environment will cause in loss of participation in the cabaret. Please be sure to read:
 - BEHAVIOR. Insubordination, lack of cooperation, lack of professionalism and slander/defamation, coup-like behavior and any unacceptable behavior is unwarranted and can be grounds for dismissal and future participation. The Management of Sidewinders will strictly enforce this.
 - This includes all social media and any posts designed to exclude people, or meant to degrade, intentionally hurt, or demean someone. Leaders must hold themselves to higher standards and should be very conscientious of what they post and the intent of their posts.
 - If you are found to go against these standards, you will be notified and asked to assist in addressing it.
- Follow this general four-way test: <https://my.rotary.org/en/guiding-principles>
- Do not touch others, speak to others in a sexual manner or create friction when it is not welcomed. Do not use racial, gender or any kind of slurs.
- Do not diminish the importance of people's occupations, rights and abilities.
- Be as respectful as possible to all groups.
- All hosts and performers are subject to dismissal from any show at any time due to misconduct, demoralizing behavior and disrespectful behavior.
- All hosts and performers must give trigger warnings when doing something that may cause someone to faint, vomit, scream, etc.
- When "reading" or doing any kind of "known" and potentially harmful discourse, be sure the context is appropriate. For example, "reading" someone during a "reading" show is warranted but do not attack occupations, unchangeable human conditions (i.e. someone who lacks mobility should not be made fun of our read in a fashion that is demoralizing).
- No sex anywhere on premises and in parking lot.
- Performers and hosts will be immediately coached if they are found to say anything that goes against this. If a performer or host does not take the feedback, they will be dismissed for 60 days. If the behavior persists, dismissal will be 3 months or more.

- Beginning 6/1/2018 – any member of the staff and anyone deemed to be in a leadership position at Sidewinders or the Black Cat Cabaret must not publish any support of any political campaign, including the campaigns related to the Political Offices (i.e. senate runs, commissioner runs, council runs), the U.S. Legislature, the State Legislature, the United Court of the Sandias, the New Mexico Gay Rodeo association, or any other political-based organization. All staff must appear neutral in social media.
- Everyone will have a chance to correct their behaviors, getting a “second chance” but do not take advantage of this.

No-Call/No-Show Policy

A performer who is a no-show for an event or show without notifying the Stage Manager, producer, and Artistic Director with a valid reason (illness, work, emergency) will not be able to perform for 3 months. Decision to reduce the suspension period belongs to the Dove and Lily court.

Please follow the Rules and Regulations of the Cabaret: <http://www.sidewindersranch.net/rules-and-regulations---events.html>

All bags are subject to search

- No outside beverages / beverages cannot be brought outside - No alcoholic beverages from outside sources that are not purchased from the venue.
- Please have valid government issued ID at all times.
- All shows / events start at 8pm (and must start within 15 minutes of that time) unless approved. All event times will be approved by the Artistic Director.
- No drugs - All performers, hosts, guests shall not consume or use illegal substances on, before or during the show
- Arrive sober (that includes being sober from any drugs, OTC meds, alcohol, etc.)

Producers, Hosts, Artists – General Show Production

If you need a poster done, please have specs and information to us at least 6 weeks before a show as much as possible. During the show, the Stage Manager will often act on behalf of the Cabaret's Artistic Director, so please follow their instructions. Below are some items to relay to your cast every show. Be sure to add the bar staff (stage manager, artistic director, event assistants, and owners) to any show chat, so they can help track show progress.

If this is your first production, you must work with the Artistic Director in producing the show, or work with an approved producer. However, the Artistic Director will guide you along the way.

Due to the high volume of productions, please keep chatting in the show chats to a minimum. Remember, the artistic director may be overseeing 30 + events at any one time, so please do not inundate the chats.

Do keep performers engaged by checking in once a week with them. Post a set list during the week of the chat as well. All shows/events begin at 7:30pm or 8pm or 9pm or 9:30pm unless otherwise approved beginning 4/1/2017. Stage manager must be approved by Sidewinders Head Stage Manager and must be in writing to Artistic Director and Head Stage Manager. Make sure you know when your event starts and get it in writing.

VERY IMPORTANT Please have your cast list and host(s) reviewed by the Artistic Director before inviting them to your show. This is very important. The cast and hosts must be approved due to over-commitment of performers, conflicts, reputation, social issues, and bans on performers. All themes of shows, show poster, images and show content must be reviewed by the Artistic Director as well.

Please have a cast of at least 15 - 20 performers as much as possible and remember that if someone backs out, they should find a replacement. They should have a "back-up" number and should be ready to perform at the start of the show (unless producer and stage manager know ahead of time). The cast should always inform stage manager and producer of any issues or concerns. Acceptance of a show also involves acceptance of all risks involved in being on premises and in the performance.

Please review the Rules and Regulations on the Sidewinders website.

Cancellation of an event/show without a 3-week notice will incur a fee of $100 unless it is due to extenuating, documented circumstances. These include loss of job, extreme illness, family emergencies and so forth. For music, it should be numbered and include the performer's name, as well as date of the show in the e-mail or subject.

- Name (stage name)
- CDs usually can be used but check with DJ
- MP3 or song links
- Song link 1:
- Song link 2:
- Optional Song link 3:

If using a tech sheet: Preferred method of sending in information:

<http://www.sidewindersranch.net/technical-sheets-and-other-information.html>, otherwise for catalogue-type shows, use sidewindersmedia@gmail.com

Standard or catalogue shows are ones in which no tech sheet is needed - performer is not particular on how they are introduced, and there are no special instructions for the performer/stage management.

Producing an Event at Sidewinders – General Aspects of an Event

Skip the parts that don't pertain (i.e. if you're not doing awards, or booking out of state artists, etc., you can likely skip those). This is intended to assist you but might not be all-encompassing.

Please pay close attention to the portion on building your cast.

This document has the following parts:

- 1) General Guidelines
- 2) Tips on Producing Events (this is a cheat sheet)

General Guidelines

- Book event and meet with Artistic Director as soon as possible.
- Discuss Revenue Targets with Artistic Director
- Read the following:
 - Rules and Regulations: <http://www.sidewindersranch.net/rules-and-regulations---events.html>
- Send Cast and Show Theme to Artistic Director for Approval
- Use the official logo found here: <http://www.sidewindersranch.net/media.html>
- All 18 – 20 year-olds (herein known as “Youth”) who are performing artists/entertainers must be paid a minimum of $5 per song performed, or $10 minimum per event. They can ask for more as their own booking fee.
 - If you are asking any 18 – 20 years-old performing artists, they must be approved by the Artistic Director first.
 - 18 – 20 years-old performing artists are not required to donate their tips.
 - If 18 – 20 years-old performing artists are asked to be in the show and you'd like them to donate their tips, please ask them when you are booking them. However, any 18 – 20 years-old performing artists you book must agree to $5 per song or $10 per show at a minimum.
 - All 18 – 20 years-old performing artists should stay in the non-drinking designated areas.
 - Anyone under 21 years-old is not permitted to drink alcohol.
 - You must send a copy of this to the 18 – 20 years-old performing artist, and they must respond with “I agree to the minimum payment of $5 per song or $10 per show.” They must then write, “I will or will not donate my tips earned during performance.”
 - Payment must come from the bar or an appointed person, i.e. stage manager or co-owner of the establishment. Funds for payment will come from tips earned during the event from the producer of the event, unless the bar sponsors the 18 – 20 years-old performing artist.
 - Youth are considered Professional Entertainers or Professional Performing Artists and are contracted to the end of the event (after curtain call) and must leave within a reasonable amount of time after curtain call; this reasonable time is to give them ample time to gather all costumes, make-up, and payment for the event.

- Youth can waive all fees but they must indicate this in writing in a message to producer and Artistic Director. Artistic Director is Renato Estacio, Co-Owner of the establishment.
- Designated individuals of the NMGRA and other Resident Groups will have input into all events they are assisting in managing or creating as of 4/12/2018. Posters, casts, and themes will all be by consent.
- Artistic Director to approve within 24- 36 hours
 - Approve Cast and Crew
 - Approve Show theme
 - Approve any titles (i.e. Grand Duke, Duchess, Lord, Laerd)
- Survey/Panels if needed – create panels to judge if needed
- Order materials (awards, crowns) if doing a competition
- Book guest Artists if needed; you are responsible for their fees. If Friday/Saturday, please discuss how fees can be paid if there is a cover:
 - Flights
 - Hotels
 - Ground transportation
- Book cast – 20 – 25 performers – one number each (15 is okay, too). Can go up to 30 performers no problem. If a 15 performer cast, then ask if any can do 2 numbers.
 - Cast should use: <http://www.sidewindersranch.net/technical-sheets-and-other-information.html> but often they just send music to sidewindersmedia@gmail.com
- Confirm number of Security and Roles if large group
- If you do not cancel your event with a 3-week notice, there will be a $100 fee assessed to the producer. This can be made up by fundraising, monthly payment or other method if cash is not available.
- There will be lost of ability to produce shows/events if the producer gives less than a 3- week notice of not being able to produce the event. To produce in the future, the producer will need to meet with the artistic director and come up with a plan on future show production to mitigate risk. At that point, you will be given instructions on how to move forward.
- Staffing – let bar know if you have a large cast or anticipate a large event. People to discuss your event with:
 - Bar
 - Stage manager
 - Spot operator (volunteer unless approved – duties to be given by AD)
 - Door person:
 - Do they need wristbands?
 - Do they need stamps?
 - Do they have a guest list?

- Stage manager to insure DJ, spot operator and first 3 entertainers are ready 15 minutes before the show.

 - If you are not comfortable discussing with stage manager or Artistic Director, please speak to Michael Burdick.
 - Following up during event – Stage management and Producer:
 - Maintain professionalism with relations at all times during event.
 - Avoid unnecessary venting, poor representation and any unneeded drama.
 - All staff should ask performers if they need anything throughout the event.

- Side stage and backstage – be sure to ask artists if there is anything last minute in case something comes up – i.e. they can't reach their zipper, nail falls off, coming from different part of stage, need water, need inhaler, having an anxiety attack, etc.
- Be sure to give performers space after each performance, assist if they need and ask if they need water – they may not be able to speak or go to the bar and might not remember to take water or inhalers with them. Need to be sure space, water, medications are accessible.
