Dr.RichelleLyon@gmail.com

Dr. T. Richelle Lyon is an experienced psychology educator, researcher, and consultant with a strong academic and professional background. She earned a doctorate in counseling psychology from Argosy University with a 4.0 GPA and holds a master's degree in general psychology from Pepperdine University and a bachelor's degree in experimental psychology from UC Santa Barbara. She is a member of Psi Chi, the National Honor Society in Psychology.

Dr. Lyon has published multiple peer-reviewed articles and a doctoral dissertation, An Investigation of the New Media and Conscientiousness in Relation to Attitudes About Jury Service. She has taught undergraduate and graduate-level courses in psychology, research methods, and statistics at several higher education institutions including the City University of New York (CUNY) and Schreiner University. Her teaching is grounded in evidence-based practices and real-world application. She integrates APA-style writing and individualized feedback to promote student success. Dr. Lyon is also highly proficient in LMS online teaching platforms (Canvas, Blackboard) and statistical software (SPSS, Excel). Students consistently praise her clarity, organization, and mentorship.

In addition to her teaching experience, Dr. Lyon brings over a decade of experience in research consulting and data analysis through Lyon Research & Consulting, LLC. She has supported doctoral candidates, nonprofit organizations, and small businesses with study design, writing, evaluation, and data interpretation. This makes her uniquely qualified to serve on dissertation committees and to guide students through complex research design and statistical analyses.
