Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends,

Happy Mothers' Day to one and all - mothers, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, aunts and godmothers, and to all of you who play and have played a mother's role in the life of someone – to you we are most thankful and appreciative. Because this is one of those weekends when you can organize the in-laws and out-laws to come together without too much effort, let us celebrate all that is good and noble in our families as experienced through the women who mentor us and support us.

There is lots of family activity by way of sacramental celebrations this weekend. Victor and Martha Low's son Kevin is joining us in the community of the Church this evening (May 11) during the 5:00 PM Mass, through the sacrament of Baptism. A very special welcome to his godparents, Dora Lucía Vèlez and Eduardo Caicedo. Kevin will also be joining his two brothers, Brandon and Matthew, who are celebrating their First Communion with him. So, this is a big day in the faith life of the Low family. We will also be welcoming George Fair, the first of George and Nicole Fair's children, to the Table of the Lord for his First Communion too. Congratulations to one and all! May you continue, with the help and example of your family members and all of us who gather here every weekend at St. Catherine of Siena, to deepen and broaden your faith and love of God and neighbor.

Not to be outdone, during the 8:30 AM Mass the following morning (Sunday, May 12), we will be welcoming Lawrence and Lauren Bryant's first child, Lawrence Jay, into the community through the Sacrament of Baptism; he is supported by his godparents, Matthew and Kelly Winkler, and indeed this community of St. Catherine's. Later this same day at the 11:15 AM Mass, we will be welcoming Sophie Marie Greeson to the Altar of the Lord for her First Communion.

If any of you were under any illusions that we are not alive and well, the above young people and their families who are celebrating these great events in their faith lives are a testimony to the Spirit of God working through us here at St. Catherine of Siena.

May God bring to completion the good work that has begun in all of us through our Gospel Way of Life.

Happy Easter and Happy Mothers' Day,

May 12, 2019

Annual Baby Shower for Birthright - May 18 and 19

Birthright is a non-profit international organization that provides love, hope, friendship, information, and referrals to all women facing an unplanned pregnancy. They operate on a very tight budget so the St Catherine's Women's Group is throwing a "Birthright Baby Shower". Please help us by bringing diapers, gently used or new onesies and newborn pajamas, 0-3 month clothing, and other baby items to any Mass on May 18&19. Cash donations are also very much appreciated. Members of the St Catherine's Women's group will be in the Narthex collecting items before and after every Mass on May 18 and 19. Checks are welcome and should be made to St Catherine with Birthright as a memo. The monies will be consolidated and one check will be issue to Birthright. Thank you so much for your support. Questions? Joi Kingsley 832-607-8752.
