

SOUTH CAROLINA SOCIOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION (SCSA) EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD

PURPOSE: To recognize a SCSA member who has made outstanding contributions to sociology through their innovative and impactful teaching.

ELIGIBILITY: Candidates must be current members of SCSA but need not reside in South Carolina. Self-nominations are welcome and encouraged. Registration for the 2023 annual meeting grants membership into SCSA. Please visit the SCSA website at <https://southcarolinasociology.org/annual-meeting> for online registration. Applicants must register before 11:59PM EST on Tuesday, January 17, 2023.

SELECTION PROCESS: Applications will be reviewed by the SCSA Awards Committee.

To apply, please submit the following items:

- Brief cover letter that introduces the applicant to the committee and describes their innovative, impactful, or creative teaching endeavors conducted within the last three years only.
- Curriculum Vitae.
- One letter of recommendation from a colleague familiar with the nominee's teaching accomplishments.
- Supporting documentation such as syllabi, student evaluations, textbooks, or any other materials to demonstrate the nominee's significant contributions to the teaching of sociology.
- Please scan all documents into a single PDF file in the order listed above and email the attachment to SCSA Past President, Dr. Vinetta Witt (Vinetta.Witt@newberry.edu). Submissions must be received by 11:59PM EST on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. Include the term "SCSA Teaching Award" in the subject line of your e-mail.

AWARD RECIPIENT: The winner will be announced at the 2023 SCSA Annual Meeting and receive recognition in the organization's newsletter and on the website. The recipient will also receive a cash award and plaque. It is expected that the winner will attend the 2023 meeting.
