

It's Only Skin Deep

It's only skin deep, the way you make me feel sometimes
It's only skin deep when you look at me the way that you do
It's only skin deep when I try to imagine life without you
It's only skin deep.

It's only skin deep when I want to be in your arms
It's only skin deep, when you tend to look the other way
It's only skin deep when you caress my soul
It's only skin deep when you tell me you want forever with me
It's only skin deep.

It's only skin deep, your hand on mine
It's only skin deep when you kiss my cheek and smile
It's only skin deep when you say it's just a friend
It's only skin deep.

It's only skin deep when you want to make love to me
It's only skin deep with you promise me eternity
It's only skin deep when I give you all of me
It's only skin deep when pictures of "us" include only me
It's only skin deep.

It's only skin deep because I saw through your lies
It's only skin deep when she called you last night
It's only skin deep when I took back my pride
It's only skin deep when you begged for another chance
It's only skin deep.

It's only skin deep the pain you put me through
It's only skin deep when your words try to cut me down
It's only skin deep when a tear falls from my eye
It's only skin deep – the color of my skin
It's only skin deep.
