DESIGN WALL DIGEST

The Best of the Season to You

At this time of year, we often reflect on those closest to us, near & far. I love this time of year. The family, the friends, and the food. I wish you only the best in 2020 and I sincerely thank each of you for contributing so positively to my memories. May your memories bring a smile to your face and new memories last a lifetime.

My list of gratuities is great: first and foremost, I thank you for your business, I'd be remiss if I didn't thank my community - from my neighbours for having clients who visit and inevitably have them stop in to meet me to those who live in the area and who have been so warm and welcoming.

I've had successful classes and thank my professional and capable instructors

(Brenda, Judy, and Marj), my visiting specialists (Gail and Karla), and the volunteers in my friend and family circle for being so willing to help with my success. I give my word that I will continue to advance the art & craft of quilting, offering fresh and quality classes by exceptional instructors and stay as involved in the quilting community as much as I can.

Gift-Giving

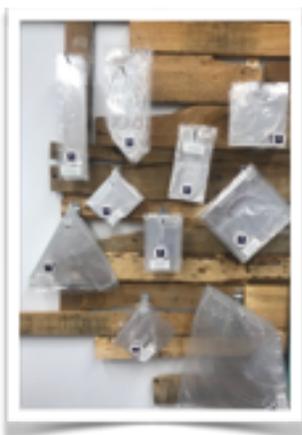

Christmas happens to be the year’s most notable time when gift-giving is top of mind. As quilters, boundaries of giving our handmade creations are not limited to one time of year. We plan ahead, sometimes come across, and keep in mind many people in our lives or people who come into our lives. Colours, styles, and ideas are limitless. The occasion for such surprises are endless and as such, fabric, collections, ideas, and ideas come to us year-round.

Design Wall offers name brands, collections & ideas to keep the spirit of gift-giving a year-round event.

Top Quality

I have made contact and developed working relationships with several top suppliers and factory-direct fabric and product manufactures. I can honestly say, the quality has not disappointed. Top quality is evident in samples I’ve made or had made, customer feedback, and the sheer hand of these products. Here are a few fine examples - visiting Design Wall allows you the ability to take it all in, in it’s glorious beauty.

Coming in 2020

I have several new lines coming in 2020.

Tula Pink's highly anticipated Home Made is on it's way in a big way - all prints, wide-backs, pre-cuts, and kits of her lovely new quilt pattern. I'm not taking pre-orders as I am confident my supplier will send through everything I've ordered. Expect it in the March/April timeframe.

More Tim Holtz, Moda collections, FreeSpirit's Reverie, and more.

I truly look forward to the upcoming year; the Thread Club, the classes, the mini retreats, and having you as my clients. All the best...

Merry Christmas to all, and to all a goodnight!
