Dear LPCC Licensee:

We are pleased to inform you that you satisfy the education and experience requirements specified in Business and Professions Code Section 4999.20(a)(3) to assess and treat couples and families.

Effective January 1, 2017, pursuant to California Code of Regulations, Title 16, Section 1820.7, Licensed Professional Clinical Counselors are required to provide a copy of this letter to the following:

- Clients prior to commencement of couple or family treatment
- The supervisees listed below prior to commencing supervision
 - 1) Marriage and Family Therapist Interns or Trainees
 - 2) Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor or Professional Clinical Counselor Interns gaining supervised experience to comply with Business and Professions Code Section 4999.20(a)(3)

Please retain this original letter for your files.

NOTE: LPCCs are required to complete six units of continuing education specific to marriage and family therapy in each renewal cycle in order to remain qualified to assess and treat couples and families. Be sure to retain your certificates of completion for a minimum of two years.
