

AMSTERDAM

live '88 in amsterdam

This was the final show from our first European tour. Although some of the songs are played so fast it sounds like we're worried about missing our flight out of Schiphol, my favorite bits are the extended takes on songs like "Scared" and "Tiny Giants". There's older material here ("The Price We Pay", "Backstab"), along with some work-in-progress ("Jam #2" is the song "On", in utero). Sometimes the sound quality isn't the best, but how much did you pay for this CD? ... Nothing!

Enjoy,
Christopher Jones
